Sole Agent for Glasgow and Edinburgh Districts—

MR. A. E. AARONSON,

Marlborough Mansions, Esplanade, PORTOBELLO.

Telegrams—"AARONSON, PORTOBELLO."

ASSOCIATIONS TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.

WELLCROFT BOWLING CLUB, QUEEN'S PARK.

This club was established in January, 1835, and the bowling green formed on part of the lands of Wellcroft, situated in Surrey Street, Laurieston. In 1851 the club removed and formed two beautiful greens, with a curling pond, near the head of Eglinton Street, on ground obtained from the Royal Incorporation of Hutcheson's Hospital. From this site the club was in 1876 under the necessity of removing to a more eligible site at the north-west corner of the Queen's Park, where two spacious greens were made, a neat and commodious bowl house erected, and the ground tastefully laid out so as to form a most agreeable and ornamental adjunct to the locality. Membership limited to 200. Present membership (April, 1899), 185. Annual subscription, £1 10s.

Office-bearers for 1899-1900:—President, James A. Crerar; vice-president, George Black; secretary, William Sturgeon, 49 Virginia St.; treasurer, Alex. McLennan, 92 St. Vincent St.; ordinary directors, Thomas Henderson, David M'Kinlay, Robert Bowie, Alex. Allan, Daniel Douglas, and Arthur H. Knight; retiring president, Archd. Brownlie.

GLASGOW SEAMEN'S EVANGELISTIC MISSION.

BETHEL—The Ferry, 10 Springfield Terrace, s.s.

Object—The spiritual and social well-being of seamen and their families. The work is carried on by a chaplain, assisted by about sixty voluntary workers. Seven in-door and 3 open-air services are held weekly. Bags well stocked with books and a New Testament in each are put on board out-going vessels. Tracts in English and in foreign languages are distributed freely among the men. The ships and sailors' families are visited regularly, and the men of the sea are influenced in every way for good. Other ports have more than one such society, and the needs of Glasgow, along with the great success which has followed the efforts of this Mission, will abundantly justify its existence. The Seamen's Mission is dependent upon voluntary contributions, which may be sent to the secretary, Mr. James Neilson, The Ferry, 10 Springfield Terrace, s.s., Glasgow.

ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 4 oz. 1d., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional 2 oz.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instruction to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

4. Under certain conditions as to packing, &c., packets containing glass, grease, liquids, or colouring powders may now be sent by letter post. Senders of such articles should, before posting, become fully acquainted with the regulations affecting such, which may be ascertained at any Post Office.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered inland newspaper, whether posted singly or with others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight.

2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

3. Any publication fulfilling the subjoined conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

a. The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

b. It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

c. The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title, and the date, at the top of every subsequent page. This regulation applies also to "Tables of Contents" and "Indices."

d. A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspaper, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspaper or not; or it must consist wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the paper, and have its title and date printed at the top of every page, except that any page, sheet, or side on which engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper appear, need not be dated.

* Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

4. The title of every newspaper should be exposed to view.

5. All publications not so registered are treated as book packets, and are subject to the rates and regulations of the Book Post.

6. A newspaper, if posted in a cover, must have such cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the paper being easily withdrawn for examination.

7. No newspaper and no cover of a newspaper may bear anything not being part of the newspaper besides the title of the newspaper, the names and addresses of the sender and of the addressee, a request for return in case of non-delivery, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. †

8. No unregistered publication, and no article (not being part of the newspaper, or a supplement thereto) may be posted in, or in the same cover with, the newspaper.

9. Any newspaper, or packet of newspapers, in the case of which any of the three last-mentioned rules is infringed, is chargeable as a book-packet, if admissible as such. If not admissible as such, and under 8 oz. in weight, it is chargeable as a letter packet; if over 8 oz., it is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage.

10. A packet of newspapers must not weigh above 5 lbs., or exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width or depth.

Inland Book Post.

1. The prepaid postage of a book-packet is $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and the weight is limited to 2 oz. (a packet above 2 oz. is treated as a letter packet). If it be posted unpaid the charge is double that amount.

2. The expression "book-packet" means a packet which contains one or more of the following articles or documents, that is to say:—

a. Any matter wholly printed on paper or some substance ordinarily used for printing, with the exception of paper money.

b. Books and other publications or works of a literary character, and any other written or printed matter not being in the nature of a letter (on paper or on some substance ordinarily used for writing or printing).

c. Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, and engravings on paper or on some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

d. Maps, plans, and charts on paper or some other substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

e. The binding or mounting of any article hereinbefore described, provided such binding or mounting be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.

The following documents, whether containing matter

† In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves as well as on the covers.

in the nature of a letter or not, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

f. Invoices, orders for goods, advice notes, way bills, bills of lading, receipts, statements of account, prices current, market reports.

(Provided that nothing shall appear in writing on the document save dates, the names and addresses of the parties, the particulars and prices of any goods, or the particulars of any sums of money to which the document relates, and the mode of consignment of any such goods or money.) Anything other than aforesaid in the nature of a letter must be wholly in print.

g. Manuscript for press and printed proofs, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the arrangement or correction of the type or the execution of the work.)

h. Examination papers, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the questions put or the answers thereto.)

i. Circulars, that is, printed notices and letters, whether separate or on the same sheet of paper with any other document transmissible by Book Post.*

(The circular may be corrected in writing; the date of the despatch and the name and address and description of the sender and the name of the addressee may be inserted in writing; when the circular is a notice of meeting or appointment, the place, date and hour, and, in the case of a notice of meeting, the objects of the meeting may be inserted in writing; when the circular is a polling card, the name and address of the voter and his number on the register may be inserted in writing.)

j. Deeds, agreements, proposals and policies of assurance, powers of attorney, proxy papers, voting papers, certificates, licenses.

(Provided that nothing appear in the document in writing or print which does not form part of the document as a legal instrument.)

k. Notices, reports, returns, and certificates issued, made, or given by officers of a Court of Justice, or other public officers in the discharge of their duties, and returns or reports made to such public officers or public bodies.

(Provided that the document consist of a printed form, and that any written matter on such document consist merely of information or statements appropriate to the form and necessary to the completion of the document.)

l. Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission of any of the before-mentioned articles by post when transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is so used.

In the above definition—

Expressions referring to print or printing shall be taken to refer to any species of type-printing easy to recognize, and to include lithography, hand-stamping, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognize, but not to include type-writing or imitations thereof.

* Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the type-writer, or are produced by means of the mimeograph or other mechanical process from type-written originals, will nevertheless be admitted to the privilege of the book rate, provided that they are posted by being handed in at the counter of some head post office or district or branch post office, that special attention is called to their nature, and that at least twenty copies, precisely identical, are posted at the same time. Sub-offices are not available for posting circulars of this kind.

Expressions referring to writing shall be taken to include type-writing or any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

3. Book-packets should be posted either without covers (in which case they must not be fastened in any way) or in unfastened envelopes or in covers which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination. If anything is written or printed on the inside of the covers, the covers must be left unfastened. It is not forbidden to tie the ends of a book-packet with string, but the string should be easy to unfasten.

4. When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book-packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

Inland Post Cards.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp—double or reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them—and private Cards prepaid with halfpenny stamps—may be transmitted between places in the United Kingdom with communications in the nature of a letter printed or written upon the back.

2. The address, and the sender's name and address, with a request for return in case of non-delivery, may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the front (or stamped) side. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered. If any one of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged on delivery.

3. Private Cards bearing adhesive halfpenny stamps may also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the Official Post Card. The maximum size must correspond as nearly as may be to the size of the Inland Official Card, and the minimum size must not be less than $3\frac{1}{2}$ by $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches. They are subject to the rules stated in the preceding paragraph.

4. When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, Post Cards (unless paid for and posted as late letters) may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

The conditions on which private cards are embossed with a halfpenny stamp can be ascertained at the Office of Inland Revenue.

It will be seen from the foregoing rules, that there is no legal way of sending a letter, other than a circular letter, through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a post card.

A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened, letters may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the proper postage upon all written letters (which are not written on post cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of one penny (i.e., double the deficient postage) on delivery.

Large numbers of letters, not being circular letters, are from time to time found in halfpenny wrappers, contrary to the express provisions of the book post; and as the officers of the department are instructed to surcharge all such letters with additional postage, it will save not only trouble to the Post Office but annoyance to the public, if care be taken always to pay letter postage for letters other than circular letters, unless they be written or printed on post cards.

INLAND PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

Inland Pattern or Sample post has been merged in the letter post. All samples therefore are now transmitted under the conditions applicable to letter packets.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Parcels not exceeding 11 lbs. in weight are accepted at all Post Offices for transmission by the Inland Parcel Post under the following general conditions in regard to weight, dimensions, and rates of postage, viz. :—

The rates of postage for Parcels are—	s.	d.
Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight,	-	0 3
Exceeding 1 lb., and not exceeding 2 lbs.,	-	0 4
“ 2 lbs.,	3	0 5
“ 3 “	4	0 6
“ 4 “	5	0 7
“ 5 “	6	0 8
“ 6 “	7	0 9
“ 7 “	8	0 10
“ 8 “	9	0 11
“ 9 “	11	1 0

Dimensions.—The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are—Maximum length, 3 feet 6 inches; maximum length and girth combined, 6 feet.

Examples.—A parcel measuring 3 feet 6 inches in its longest dimensions may measure as much as 2 feet 6 inches in girth, i.e., around its thickest part; or—a shorter parcel may be thicker; e.g. if measuring no more than 3 feet in length, it may measure as much as 3 feet in girth, i.e. around its thickest part.

Delivery.—Parcels for the city (including Crosshill, Hillhead, Parkhead, Partick, Pollokshields, and Springburn) are delivered at 7.0 a.m., 9.0 a.m. (Central Districts only), 10.15 a.m., 12.30 p.m., 2.30 p.m., 4.30 p.m., and 7.30 p.m.

Posting.—Parcels must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be taken into a Post Office and handed over the counter, otherwise they are treated as posted out of course and charged accordingly. Care must be taken that every parcel bears a clear address, and is distinctly addressed to a Post Town. It is the sender's duty to affix the stamps necessary for the postage.

Under certain conditions the postage on parcels posted in large numbers may be paid for in money.

Compensation for Loss and Damage of Parcels.—The Postmaster-General will (not in consequence of any legal liability) under certain conditions give compensation for the loss and damage of parcels, as shown hereunder.

If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster General will accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage, if posted under the conditions laid down in the rules of the department.

If the parcel is registered the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—For a fee of 2d., £5; 3d., £10; 4d., £20; 5d., £30; 6d., £40; 7d., £50; 8d., £60; 9d., £70; 10d., £80; 11d., £90; 1s., £100; 1s. 1d., £110; 1s. 2d., £120.

In no case will a larger amount of compensation than £120 be paid, nor will it in any case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a parcel containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid, or any article of an exceptionally fragile character.

A receipt, or certificate of posting, will be given for all registered parcels; but to secure compensation upon a parcel which it is not intended to register, the sender should fill in a certificate of posting, which may be obtained at any Post Office, and present it with the parcel, to an officer of the Post Office, who will sign, date, stamp, and return it.

Claims for compensation should be made within seven days after the date of posting.

Parcels addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the adjacent uninhabited islets) are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for all other portions of the United Kingdom; but as the Channel Islands, in relation to the customs laws of the United Kingdom, are subject to the same restrictions as foreign countries, such parcels are liable to customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender is required to make a declaration of contents upon a special form provided for the purpose at the office where the parcel may be posted.

Parcels for the Isle of Man are treated in all respects in the same way as parcels for places in the United Kingdom generally. They are, however, liable to examination by the officers of customs; but the sender is not (as in the case of the Channel Islands) called upon to furnish a declaration of contents.

Re-direction.—Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to an additional charge at the full rate of postage originally payable for every re-direction, unless the original and the corrected address are in a delivery from the same Post Office. In such cases no additional charge is made for re-direction. Parcels, like other postal packets, can only be re-directed by the Department upon receipt of an authority duly signed by the person to whom they are addressed.

A request for the re-direction of letters does not include the re-direction of parcels, for which it is necessary to hand in a separate instruction.

Returned Parcels.—In order to facilitate the return of parcels which cannot be delivered, it is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

The prohibitions against the sending by post of anything indecent, or explosive, or of any living creature, or of any enclosure bearing an address different from that borne on the cover in which it is enclosed, are the same in the case of parcels as in the case of letters and other postal packets. Liquids, glass, china, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care.

Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, &c., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. The edges or points of sharp instruments like axes, razors, needles, forks, &c., must be carefully protected. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked "Eggs," or "Fragile—with care," or "Perishable." Generally, the packing of a parcel must be such as to protect the parcel itself from damage and other postal packets from being damaged in any way by it. Any parcel not so packed will, if tendered for transmission, be refused, and if discovered in transit, will be detained unless it can be properly packed, and sent forward.

EXCEPTIONAL RATES OF POSTAGE.

(1) Petitions and addresses to the Queen are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House of Parliament so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, if in covers, are in open covers.

(2) Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, in open covers, having the words "Parliamentary Proceedings" written or printed thereon, are subject to no limits of size and weight; and are liable only to a rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every 2 ozs., whether prepaid or not.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, &c.

Modes of prepayment.

The prepayment of inland letters, newspapers, book packets, and parcels can only be effected by means of postage stamps—except that at the Chief Office, Glasgow, inland letters, book packets, and parcels may be prepaid in money, provided the amount paid be not less than £1. The letters and book packets must be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction. The prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly with stamps.

Registration.

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book-packet passing through the post between any two places in the United Kingdom is twopence.

No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless it be addressed to the care of a person or firm.

Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover, securely fastened.

Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and it should on no account be dropped into a letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, an article marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter box it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a registration fee of 4d. (less any amount prepaid for registration) instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.

At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered articles on payment of the ordinary fee is shown on the notice exhibited in the Post Office window. Usually this time is fixed at half an hour before the closing of the Letter Box; but at the Head Office articles bearing a late fee of fourpence, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, may be registered until the letter-box is closed.

When several letters are sent by the same person for registration they should be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer.

The loss of a registered article, as it can be traced through its whole course, is a rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if registered, as the machinery of the Department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk, and offer a temptation which ought not to be afforded.

Inland letters or packets which contain coin, watches, or jewellery, if posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a registration fee of fourpence in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters or packets which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the Mail for which they are posted, are detained for the next despatch.

By law the Postmaster General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered articles, but subject to certain rules, which may be ascertained at any Post Office, he will (voluntarily and as an act of grace) give compensation for the loss and damage of Inland registered letters and other registered postal packets. The amount of compensation varies according to the fee paid, but in no case can it exceed £120.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen will take letters for registration on their outward and inward walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

Re-direction.

No charge is made for the re-direction of letters (including registered letters, post cards, book packets, or newspapers), whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that the postal packet is re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that it does not appear to have been opened or tampered with.

Re-directed postal packets which are re-posted later than the day after delivery, or which appear to have been opened, will be liable to charge as freshly posted unpaid packets.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter which is marked "registered" and found in the letter box, and must be surcharged with a registration fee of fourpence, minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

Notices of removal, and applications for letters to be re-directed should, in all cases, be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. Printed forms of notice can be obtained at the Head Office on application. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

A Postmaster is not bound to re-direct letters for a person temporarily leaving his home, and not having a private bag or box, unless the house be left uninhabited. Nor does the Department, as a rule, re-direct letters, &c., addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings.

Collection.

Arrangements are made for the collection by postmen of ordinary letters, &c. (not registered letters or articles intended for transmission by parcel post) from private letter boxes of approved pattern at hotels, business premises, offices, &c.

The charge for this accommodation is as follows:—

For one collection daily from a box on the ground floor, £3 a year.

For each daily collection above one an additional £1 a year.

For boxes above or below the ground floor an additional £1 a year in respect of every floor the collector has to ascend or descend to make the collections.

For each additional person or firm beyond one making use of the box, £1 a year.

Pursuant to the terms of section 19 of the Post Office (Protection) Act, 1884, the following notice will be affixed to these boxes, viz.:—

“A Postal packet put into this box will not for the purpose of any enactment, law, or contract, whereby the due posting of a Postal packet is evidence of the receipt thereof by the addressee, be deemed to have been duly posted.”

Applications in regard to the collections from private posting boxes should be made to the Postmaster.

Delivery.

1. Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office.

2. All letters, &c., must be delivered as addressed; but by payment of a fee of £1 1s. a year firms or persons can have letters addressed to their offices delivered at their private address, and vice versa, provided that both addresses are served from the same delivery office. By paying 5s. a year any person may obtain his registered letters at the Post Office, even although he does not rent a private box.

3. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can claim to have his letters or parcels delivered at the office window if a delivery by postmen or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters or parcels which arrive by a mail after which there is no immediate delivery by postmen, may be obtained by means of express delivery.

4. Persons who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind, including book packets, newspapers, and circulars, in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz.:—The full express fees (3d. per mile or part of a mile) as per one packet, and 1d. per every ten, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any office from which deliveries are made. The application should be addressed to the postmaster of the office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered, and may be delivered by hand or sent through the post prepaid. Care should be taken that the application reaches the head post office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by postmen commences. The express fees on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the special messenger on delivery.

5. When letters or parcels directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, a Postmaster may refuse to deliver them at the window, and may send them out by the postmen, or by express delivery, except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

6. No person can have a private box unless he is willing to pay the appointed fee. The fee is at the rate of £3 per annum, payable in advance. Special arrangements are made for locked bags to and from the renters of private boxes and the Post Office.

A RETURNED LETTER OFFICE

Is established in Glasgow, and all undeliverable letters, &c., addressed to Glasgow, its sub-offices, and certain other Head Offices in the West of Scotland are disposed of there.

On reaching the Returned Letter Office a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once opened, and if found to contain the writer's address is returned to him. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an article of value the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which on being opened is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered and, unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged to the sender. Letters bearing the sender's name and address impressed or printed on the envelopes are returned unopened.

After being retained for periods varying from one week to one month, foreign and colonial letters are, with few exceptions, returned unopened to the countries from which they were received.

The following regulations govern the disposal of undelivered post cards, newspapers, book packets, (including circulars) under 2 oz. in weight:—(1) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside the sender's name and address, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, the packets will be sent back to the sender direct from the office of delivery, and will be delivered on payment of a second postage. (2) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside no request for their return in case of non-delivery, they will be disposed of at the Head Office of delivery, unless the contents appear to be of considerable importance or of value, in which case the packets will be offered to the sender (if known), and delivered to him on payment of a second postage. These regulations do not apply to letter packets, which are in every case, where practicable, returned free to the senders.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF MESSAGES, LETTERS, AND PARCELS.

Messages, letters, and parcels are delivered under the following services, by special messenger, from the undermentioned offices in the Glasgow district:—
Chief Office—George Square; Branch Offices at Anderston, Bridgeton, Candleriggs, Charing Cross, Crosshill, Duke Street, Eglinton Street, Fish Market, Stock Exchange, Govan, Hillhead, Hope Street, Waterloo Street, Kingston, Maryhill, Partick, St. Enoch Square, Sandyford; Town Sub-Offices at Crossmyloof, Crown Street, Garscube Cross, St. Rollox, Ibrox, Springburn, Jordanhill, Mount Florida, Whiteinch, Nithsdale Road, Parkhead, Polmadie, Port-Dundas, Possilpark, Pollokshields; and at all Sub-Offices at which telegraph business is transacted.

Local Service.—Under this Service any Postal Packet (letters, parcels, &c., except articles of a dangerous or offensive nature), will be conveyed the entire distance by Express Messenger for the following fees:—
 Not exceeding 1 lb., 3d. a mile. When the packet exceeds 1 lb. there is a further charge of 1d. for every lb. or part of a lb. beyond the first, in addition to the mileage charge. If the sender desires that a special conveyance be used, and a public conveyance (by train, omnibus, or tramcar) is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must in all cases be paid in addition to the foregoing charges. Two or more packages may be carried by the same messenger at reduced charges. For further particulars apply at any of the offices mentioned.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in Advance of the Ordinary Deliveries, at the Request of Addressee.—Persons or firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, book packets, newspapers, and circulars), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz:—The full express fee of 3d. a mile as for one packet, and 1d. for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person to whom, or firm to which, the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters or parcels are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Post Offices.

Supplementary Service—Express after First Stage.—Express Packets may be handed in at any Post Office in Glasgow, but as those posted at Town Sub-Offices which are not Express Delivery Offices, take the ordinary course of post from the office at which they are handed in until they reach the Head Office, there may be some delay before the packet reaches the hands of the Express Messenger, and the sender of a packet intended for local delivery is recommended, where there is an Express Delivery Office within easy reach, to take his packet to that office.

Reply or Further Service.—On the delivery of an Express Packet, the delivering messenger may take a reply or perform a further Express Delivery Service. The Express Fee must be prepaid either by the sender of the first service or by the sender of the reply or further service. The messenger is allowed to wait for the reply ten minutes free of charge, but after that time 2d. is charged for every $\frac{1}{4}$ hour or part of $\frac{1}{4}$ hour during which he is required to wait. If the return or further service is to an address on the messenger's homeward route, or within half-a-mile of the office from which he started on the original service, half only of the mileage rate is charged, but if the packet exceeds 1 lb. in weight, the full weight charge must be paid in addition to the half mileage rate.

Acceptance of Express Packets by Telegraph Messenger.—A Telegraph Messenger, on delivering a telegram, may, if desired, take back to the Post Office where he is employed a Postal Packet for Express Delivery. The charges must be prepaid by the sender. The Express fee for such service will be charged as from the residence of the sender and not from the Office where the Messenger is employed.

Hours of Business.—Head Post Office, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Branch Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sub-Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. No business is transacted on Sundays, Good Friday, or Christmas Day.

Express Delivery after Transmission by Ordinary Post.—Under this Service letters and parcels may be forwarded by mail in the regular course of post to any Express Delivery Office, and, on arrival, be sent out for delivery by special messenger. The Express Fee, in addition to the full ordinary postage, is at the rate of 3d. per mile from the office of delivery; the fee is in no case less than 3d., and this and the postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps affixed to the letter or parcel. If a special conveyance be used or if the distance exceeds 2 miles and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost must be paid in addition to the express fee and postage. When the distance exceeds 2 miles, at least one-half of the amount payable in respect of Fee and Charge for special conveyance must be prepaid, and the deficiency (if any) will be demanded from the Addressee; if this be not done, the letter cannot be delivered by Special Messenger, but will be treated as an Ordinary Mail Letter. Hours of Delivery—Head Post Office, 4.30 a.m. to 12 midnight on week days. To callers, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday, 6 a.m. to 9 a.m., 4.45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTERS BY RAILWAY.

Single Inland Post Letters, not exceeding four ounces in weight, are now, under an agreement with the Postmaster General, accepted by certain Railway Companies to be sent by next available train or steamship, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. In the former case, the letter should be addressed to the Parcel Office of the station to be called for; and in the latter, the words "To be posted on arrival" should be written below the name of the station. Such letters must be taken to a passenger station and tendered at the Parcel Booking Office, or, if that office be closed, to the Passenger Booking Office. The total cost of transmission of every letter is 3d., of which 1d. is paid by means of an ordinary postage stamp affixed to the cover, the remaining 2d. being handed in cash to the railway servant. A letter which contains, or appears to contain, a watch, coin, or jewellery, or any article or thing which, if sent by post, would require to be registered, or any article prohibited from transmission by Inland Letter Post cannot be sent as a railway letter. If the case requires it, a railway letter will be passed on from Company to Company in succession to the station of address, provided the latter is on the line of a Company party to the arrangement.

Such letters may be handed in at any Express Delivery Office for immediate conveyance to the Railway Station, and, if desired, the letters, after transmission by train, can, on reaching the Office of Delivery in the ordinary course of post, be sent at once to destination by Special Messenger, or, if desired, they can be delivered by Special Messenger direct from the Station. In the latter case the sender must telegraph to the Postmaster of the nearest Postal Telegraph Office for the Station of Address requesting him to send a Special Messenger to meet the train. The letter must be marked "Express Delivery" and with a perpendicular line, and the postage and express fees prepaid thereon in stamps by the sender.

INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS SERVICE.

The Express Service is in force also between this country and certain foreign countries. For particulars apply at any Post Office.

At Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, sub-postmasters are required to keep ½d. and 1d. stamps, post cards, and registered letter envelopes only; but they are bound, on application, to procure postage stamps of other values, embossed postage envelopes, and newspaper wrappers.

Inland Bill Stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d., and 1s., are for sale at the Chief Office, Branches, &c.

Dog. Gun, and private Brewers' Licenses are issued at all Money Order Offices.

Licenses for Gamekeepers, Game, Carriage and Civil Service Fee Stamps, Patent, Design, and Trade Mark Stamps and Forms, can be obtained at the Head Office.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps and registered letter envelopes, or (if he have no stamps in his possession) he must receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office affix stamps carefully to the letters. This privilege does not extend to town postmen.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps, or of embossed or impressed stamps cut out from the envelopes, cards, wrappers, or telegraph message forms (even although the stamps have not been before used or sent by post).

Applications for allowance on spoilt or unused postage stamps, embossed envelopes, post cards, or newspaper wrappers, which have not passed through the post, should be made to the Distributor of Stamps, Inland Revenue. Such applications, however, can only be entertained if the stamps or other articles have been spoilt or become useless within the period of six months preceding the date of application. In the case of envelopes, cards, or wrappers, the applications must be accompanied by these articles intact, as no allowance can be granted on the embossed, or impressed stamps if cut therefrom.

Postage Stamps purchased from the Public.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the payments are as follows:—

		The full price minus
For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value,	½d.
Above 1s. 8d., and not exceeding 3s. 4d.,	1d.
“ 3s. 4d., “ “	5s. -	1½d.
“ 5s., “ “	6s. 8d.,	2d.
“ 6s. 8d., “ “	8s. 4d.,	2½d.

and so on.

To prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, single stamps cannot be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips of not less than two.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended that the initials of firms, &c., be perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, and Postmasters have been instructed not to purchase such stamps. The perforation of the stamps on post cards, newspaper wrappers, and embossed envelopes with initials is also not objected to.

Paper and cardboard taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be ascertained on application at that office.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book or card, or any article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character can be sent by post, nor can any explosive, dangerous, noxious, or deleterious substance, nor any filth, nor any sharp instrument not properly protected, nor any living creature (except live bees, in suitable closed cases), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the mails or any officer of the Post Office. Eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., may not be sent except by Parcel Post, and if so sent must be packed with special care.

2. No postal packet may contain another packet, whether of the same or of a different description, addressed to a different person at a different address, unless a separate postage is paid for each packet.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Post Office is not liable, by law, for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter, book, or other postal packet; but liability for actual loss or damage is accepted on certain conditions in the case of parcels and registered packets.

2. Postal packets which are likely to suffer from great pressure should be placed in strong covers.

3. No information can be given respecting letters or any other postal packets except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public. A Postmaster may, however, give an address if he has no reason to believe that the person whose address it is would disapprove of his doing so.

4. Provision having been made, by means of the Post Office Guide and the Glasgow Local Guide, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to the officers of the department. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Department does not hold itself responsible.

5. Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination, according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets except parcels for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

8. If any postal packet be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster, with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the postal packet, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words "posted at _____, under cover to the Postmaster of _____."

9. Every address should be legible and complete, and the last word in it should be the name of the Post Town, except when the Post Town is but little known, or when there are two Post Towns of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with or very like the name of some foreign town or country. In such cases the name of the County should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Newport in Monmouthshire should be—

"Newport, Monmouthshire."

Any writing or printing on the address side of a postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, is likely to embarrass the officers dealing with the packet, will be liable to be withheld from delivery.

10. When a letter is sent to a place where there is only a Sub-Office, the name of the Head Office should be given, unless the office is a Railway Sub-Office, in which case the name of the County should be added.

11. In the case of letters or other postal packets for places abroad, the name of the country as well as the town should be given in full, and should be the last word in the address.

12. Letters for well-known firms and persons in Glasgow are sometimes addressed "Glasgow" only; but this practice often causes delay in their delivery. Letters for strangers or for persons whose address is not known at the Chief Office, simply addressed "Glasgow" (and not "Post Office," or "Poste Restante, Glasgow,") are not delivered from the Poste Restante, but are sent to the Returned Letter Office.

13. A letter addressed to a Post Office to be called for is retained one month; and if not called for by the end of that time, it is sent to the Returned Letter Office to be sent back to the writer. But if the letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

14. Letters or other postal packets addressed to initials or to fictitious names at Post Offices are not retained, but are at once sent to the Returned Letter Office, and thence returned to the senders.

15. All letters addressed to club houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it has become evident that they will not be called for.

16. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if undelivered.

17. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house-door.

18. Circulars, before being posted, should be tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction. Correspondence posted early in the day not only obtains in many cases the advantage of an earlier delivery, but frequently avoids the risk of delay from irregularity in the working of the trains.

19. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to the Post Office to be weighed, and if then it does not turn the scale, it should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged; though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a packet weighs more then than when it is delivered; and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge.

20. When complaint is made of a letter or other postal packet being lost, missent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter, &c., was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps.

21. Neither money nor any other article of considerable value ought to be sent through the post, except by means of a money or postal order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes.

22. Whenever Bank Notes are sent by post, even in registered letters, they should be cut in halves, and the second halves should not be posted till it has

* "Late Letters" are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

Penalties for sending Letters otherwise than through the Post.

28. Any person conveying otherwise than by the Post a letter (which by law includes a packet) not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General, or who performs, otherwise than by post, any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, or by taking up, or by collecting, or by ordering, or by despatching, or by carrying or re-carrying, or by delivering a letter not exempted from such privilege incurs, by law, a penalty of £5 for every letter, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. A person sending, or causing to be sent otherwise than by post, a letter not exempted from such privilege, is also liable to similar penalties.

29. Exceptions.—The exclusive privilege is confined strictly to letters, and does not therefore extend to newspapers, books, or money; any of which may be legally conveyed by other means. The following kinds of letters also need not be sent through the post:—

1st. Letters sent by a private friend to be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed.

2nd. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof; commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a court of justice.

3rd. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet boat).

4th. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or of the cargo or loading therein, sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise.

5th. Letters concerning goods or merchandise sent by common known carriers, to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without hire or other advantage for receiving or delivering such letters.

30. No person, however, is authorized to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner above described.

31. The following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or collect or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive hire or reward for the same:—

1st. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage coaches.

2nd. Owners, masters, or commanders of ships, vessels, steam-boats, or boats called or being passage or packet boats, sailing or passing coastwise, or otherwise between places within Great Britain or

3rd. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam-boats, passage or packet boat.

4th. The owners of or sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other Her Majesty's dominions.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL MAILS.

Foreign and Colonial Letters.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all places abroad (except to certain British Possessions and Protectorates, which is now reduced to 1d., see page 13) is 2½d. per half ounce, but it does not follow that the same rate of postage is in force from foreign countries to this country.

Letters posted unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, for any country to which prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers.

Unpaid letters to or from places abroad are charged double the prepaid rate, and those partially prepaid are charged with double the deficiency.

Routes.—Letters not specially directed to go by a particular route are forwarded by the first mail despatched.

No letter for a Colony or Foreign Country may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town, and of the province in which it is situated, should also be added in English, French, or German.

Foreign and Colonial Book and Newspaper Post.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

1st. Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

2nd. Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, lithographed, or autographed and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press and the typewriter, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter. On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials such as "p.p.c." may be written; and on printed circulars manuscript corrections and insertions may be made as to names of commercial travellers, dates of their journey, and the place, date, and object of meetings. Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, &c. Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed. Stamps for prepayment, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries of the Postal Union.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that the minimum charge for a packet of commercial papers, however small the weight, is 2½d. in every case. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet the whole packet is treated as commercial papers.

Commercial papers and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, the packets may be tied at the ends with string, but the string must be easy to unfasten.

Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the typewriter, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from type-written originals, will be admitted to the privilege of the book rate, provided that they are posted by being handed in at the counter of some Head Post Office or District or Branch Post Office, that special attention is called to their nature, and that at least twenty copies precisely identical are posted at the same time.

Dimensions.—The limits of size for a packet addressed to countries of the Postal Union are 18 inches in length and one foot in width or depth, unless they are in the form of a roll, in which case the limits of size will be 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter, and for packets addressed to other places abroad 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth. Limits of weight are, 4 lbs. to countries of the Postal Union, and 5 lbs. for other countries.

Rates of Postage.—The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, on packets to places abroad, are given at page 13.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value. The undermentioned articles are still exempt from Customs duties:—1st. Newspapers and periodicals already exempt from duty; 2nd. Photographs and printed papers, other than books, received in the United States in such small quantities as to suggest that they are intended for personal use and not for sale; 3rd. Books which have been printed more than 20 years, publications devoted to original scientific research, or printed for private circulation, and works printed exclusively in any other than the English language.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Colombia are liable to Customs duties unless intended for the personal use of the addressees. Books for Uruguay, whether bound or sewn, are liable to Customs duties, except when the whole value of those sent to any one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4).

Bound books sent to Portugal or Portuguese colonies by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrappers should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and also the words—"A soumettre à la douane." Unless these conditions are complied with the books will be liable, on delivery, to a fine in addition to the duty.

Although books sent to Italy, whether bound or unbound, are in strictness liable to Customs duties, they are admitted by book post provided they are not sent in considerable numbers to any one person.

In Belgium books, newspapers, periodicals, maps, charts, printed music, prints, and artistic engravings and lithographs are allowed to be imported by post; but other printed papers are subject to Customs duty; and their transmission by post is prohibited, unless they are sent singly or in small quantities, as specimens.

In Canada and in Victoria advertising pamphlets, circulars, &c., are liable to Customs duty.

Foreign and Colonial Pattern and Sample Post.

1. The Pattern and Sample Post to foreign countries and the colonies generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, cannot be forwarded by Pattern Post.

2. No article liable to custom duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

3. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, will be found at page 13.

4. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination.* But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

5. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any sample packet for non-Union countries, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, the price of the articles, the weight or size, and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A sample packet for a country in the Postal Union may contain, besides these particulars, any Printed Papers; and, if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid, it may also contain Commercial Papers.

* In order to secure the return of Pattern Packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From— of —."

6. Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any of the British Possessions which are comprised in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

7. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Explosives of all kinds are absolutely prohibited.

Under conditions specified in the Post Office Guide, glass, grease, liquids, and colouring powders may now be sent to certain foreign countries and colonies by sample post.

8. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars, see page 13.

9. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place comprised in the Postal Union must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth. If, however, the packet be in the form of a roll the limit of size will be 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter. The size of a packet for a non-Union country or colony is limited to 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

Foreign Post Cards.

Official Post Cards, Single and Reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d., and Reply Cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

Nothing must appear on the front of a Post Card but the stamps required for postage, postal directions such as "Registered," "Acknowledgment of Delivery," &c.), the name and address of the recipient in writing or on a gummed label not exceeding in size 2 inches by $\frac{3}{4}$ inch, and the name and address of the sender indicated in writing, or by means of a stamp, or any typographical process. Nothing whatever may be attached to a post card except adhesive postage stamps, or an address label as described above.

Post cards not in accordance with the regulations are treated as insufficiently paid letters.

Post cards of one country are not available as such if posted in another country. If so posted they are charged as unpaid letters, and the reply halves of double post cards are available only for return to the country of origin.

Private Post Cards.

Private Post Cards bearing adhesive stamps of the value of One Penny, and Private Reply Post Cards with Penny adhesive stamps on each half, may also be sent as Post Cards to places abroad. They must be of the same size and substance as the Official Cards (Inland or Foreign). Such Cards, single and double alike, must have the words "Post Card" printed on them without the Royal Arms. The reply halves must bear in print the words "Post Card—Great Britain and Ireland," and "Reply." Private Post Cards not in accordance with the regulations are treated as insufficiently paid letters.

Letters for Non-Commissioned Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen in Her Majesty's Service.

1. Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in Her Majesty's Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in a British Possession or Foreign Country, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters not exceeding the weight of half an ounce for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. As the ordinary postage to a large number of British Possessions and Protectorates is now only 1d. per half ounce, it follows that the foregoing privilege is only of use in connection with the remaining Colonies and Foreign Countries, see page 13.

When sent by private ship, such letters are in addition liable to the Captain's gratuity.

2. The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy; the privilege not extending to these officers.

3. The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction; and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

Seamen.

(Here the direction of the Letter to be inserted)
C.D., Captain (or other Commanding Officer),
H.M.S. _____

To A.B.,

(Here the direction of the Letter to be finished.)

Soldiers.

From A.B., Sergeant, &c. _____ Regt. _____

C.D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer), Regt. _____

To A.B.,
Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, &c.) _____ Regt. _____
(Here the direction to be finished.)

4. If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Book Packets and Packets of Patterns may be sent by Private Ship for the same postage as by Mail Packets.

Letters intended to be sent by a private ship must be addressed "By Private Ship," and if by a particular vessel the name of the ship must be added.

Registration.

1. The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad will be found in the column headed "Registration fee" in the Table of Foreign and Colonial postage at page 13. To some countries, as shown in that Table, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival; it being left, in those cases, to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. To a few countries, as also shown in the Table, there is no arrangement whatever for registration.

2. Registration is applicable equally to letters, post-cards, newspapers, book-packets, and patterns addressed to places abroad, except in the cases specially mentioned at page 13.

3. The sender of a registered article addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on paying a fee of 2½d., as well as the registration fee, in advance at the time of registration. The name and address of the sender must in this case be left at the post office at which the article is registered.

4. No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered. The prohibition, however, does not extend to articles addressed to the care of a person or firm.

5. Every letter presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong envelope, securely fastened.

6. It is prohibited to send to a country of the Postal Union any registered article marked on the outside with the declared value of the contents; and Postmasters are instructed to refuse to receive articles which are so marked.

7. Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee.

8. Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it; and it should on no account be dropped into a letter box.

9. As it is prohibited to send coin, jewellery, or precious articles through the post to those countries of the Postal Union, the names of which are marked with an asterisk at page 19, no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing any such articles can be accepted for registration.

10. Letters or packets containing coin for any of the British Colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if they are posted without being registered, they are treated in the same manner as inland letters under similar circumstances.

11. Several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of any enclosure in a registered letter, provided the registered letter itself be delivered, or for the damage to anything enclosed in such a letter, or for any expense arising directly or indirectly from delay in transit.

Prohibited articles besides those mentioned at page 12.—The transmission by letter post of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, &c., is prohibited to all countries of the Postal Union marked thus * at page 19.

In Luxemburg the registration of such packets is compulsory, and everything of value, except coin or bullion, is liable to duty.

In the undermentioned Colonies, viz.—Ceylon, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Labuan, Lagos, Malta, Montserrat, Newfoundland, St. Vincent, Sierra Leone, and Straits Settlements, articles of value are transmissible, and, with the exception of jewellery addressed to Ceylon, Newfoundland, and St. Vincent, are exempt from customs duty. Their transmission is also permitted in Bermuda, Cyprus, and Jamaica; but they are liable to customs duty, with the exception of bullion, coin, and diamonds in Bermuda; gold, bullion, and specie in Cyprus; gold, silver, and diamonds in Grenada; and diamonds in Jamaica.

In France engravings, prints, drawings, and chromolithographs are liable to Customs duty, and cannot be sent by post to that country in quantities sufficiently large to have a saleable value, but small quantities can be sent as bona fide specimens.

In the Dutch East Indies articles of value are admissible, except wrought gold and silver, but the packets containing them must be registered.

Special prohibitions in Bulgaria, Cape of Good Hope, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Norway, Queensland, Servia, South African Republic (Transvaal), and United States of America.—Anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In New Zealand.—Cuttings of grape vines.

In Roumania.—Bound books.

In the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, New Zealand, and Queensland.—Jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain.—The transmission by letter post of all dutiable articles is prohibited, and any such articles sent contrary to this prohibition are liable to a fine of from five to ten times the duty.

In Victoria.—Tobacco and cuttings of grape vines, also jewellery, which is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

Russia.—Printed matter in the Russian language is prohibited; and even such trifling articles as photographs and Christmas cards are liable to duty, though a single photograph may be sent to Russia by post. All letters or packets containing prohibited or dutiable articles of any kind, however small the value, are confiscated in that country.

In Belgium.—Bronze, copper, and nickel coins.

In Bermuda.—Jewellery being dutiable.

In Grenada.—Current coin and articles liable to Customs duty.

In Liberia.—Gold and silver articles.

New South Wales.—Opium and tobacco.

South African Republic.—Gold, silver, jewellery, &c. are liable to customs duty.

Letters for Passengers on Board Mail Packets.

1. Letters for passengers on board the packets for America calling at Queenstown, the Royal Mail Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with the mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, &c., and the Orient packets from Naples with the mails for Australia, may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received. They must be registered, the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. —, on board the mail packet —, for —, at Queenstown, Lisbon, Brindisi, or Naples, care of the Commander of the packet."

Re-direction.

1. Letters addressed to this country from places abroad and re-directed here either to a fresh address in this country or to another country, and also Inland Letters re-directed to an address abroad, are sent forward without any charge for re-direction; but, if not prepaid in the first instance a postage which will have sufficed for their transmission from the first to the second address they are charged the deficient postage.

2. Letters re-directed after delivery at the first address, must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery. Any which may appear to have been opened will be liable to charge as freshly posted unpaid letters. Whenever thought necessary a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

3. All re-directed parcels are chargeable with fresh postage, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

4. All registered letters or packets on being re-directed must be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, and must not be dropped into a letter box as ordinary letters or packets. If brought later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not counted) after delivery, a fresh registration fee as well as fresh postage will be required.

5. Letters for commissioned or non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy on actual service are exempt from any charge for re-direction. The regulations respecting letters for non-commissioned officers and private soldiers and seamen will be found at page 22.

6. Letters, &c., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL PARCEL POST.

Dimensions.—The dimensions allowed are the same as for the Inland Parcel Post, with certain few exceptions.

Weight.—Parcels are limited to 11 lbs. in weight, except in the case of one or two countries, where the limit is 7 lbs. Parcels for Spain and Portugal via France, 6½ lbs.

Customs Declaration.—Parcels are liable to Customs regulations, and the sender of each parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form or forms provided for the purpose, which can be obtained at any post office—an accurate statement of the nature and value of the contents, the date of posting, and other particulars. The net weight of the various articles contained in a parcel should, if possible, be stated, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs duty. Some foreign administrations require more than one copy of the Customs declaration form to be made out, and this can be ascertained at the office of posting. The forms should, when possible, be filled up in both English and French. Parcels for foreign countries must in addition be accompanied by a despatch note, which is supplied at any post office, and must be filled up by the sender.

Customs Duty.—All parcels are liable to be opened for Customs examination, and their contents are subject to Customs duty in the country or colony of destination. Such duty can, however, in certain special cases be prepaid by the sender. In most foreign countries and British colonies the articles which are not subject to Customs duty on importation are comparatively few. The post office can give no information as to the Customs tariff or procedure of particular countries, nor does it accept any responsibility for loss, delay, or charges arising from the Customs regulations to which the contents of parcels are liable. In addition to Customs duty, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, &c., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering the Cape of Good Hope and Natal. This charge is increased to 1s. 6d. in the case of parcels for Rhodesia, the Orange Free State, and Transvaal. In most European countries a fee not exceeding 2½d. per parcel is levied for delivery and Customs formalities. For extra charges relating to other countries see Post Office Guide.

Letters Enclosed in Parcels.—No letter, or communication of the nature of a letter, may be enclosed in a parcel for any foreign country or for Australia, Cape Colony, and neighbouring parts of South Africa, British Central Africa, Fiji, Jamaica, Mauritius, Natal, New Zealand, Seychelles, Straits Settlements, or Trinidad. The enclosure in a parcel addressed to any of the other British colonies or possessions of a letter bearing the same address as the parcel is not prohibited. An invoice in an open cover simply giving particulars of the goods in the parcel may be enclosed in any parcel. For other prohibited enclosures see Post Office Guide.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—Compensation to an amount not exceeding in some cases 20s. and in other cases 12s. is given for loss or damage of parcels addressed to foreign countries and to certain colonies. For particulars apply at any post office.

Insurance of Foreign Parcels.—Parcels for certain countries and British colonies and dependencies may be insured up to the value of £50, some of which are as follows:—Aden, Antigua, Ascension, Bahamas, Barbadoes, Bermuda, British Guiana, British North Borneo (as far as Sandakan), Ceylon, Cyprus (except watches or jewellery) Dominica, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, Grenada, Hong Kong, India, Labuan, Lagos, Mombasa, Montserrat, Nevis, Newfoundland, Niger Coast Protectorate, St. Helena, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Straits Settlements (Malacca, Penang, Province of Wellesley, and Singapore only), Tobago, Tortola, Trinidad, Zanzibar.

Parcels for Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Cameroons, China (certain places only), Denmark, Egypt (via Gibraltar), Germany, Luxemburg, Norway, Russia, Sweden, and Switzerland (via Belgium), may be insured up to the value of £120; those for Holland, Italy (via Belgium), and Montenegro up to £40; and those for Algeria, Azores, Beyrout, Constantinople, Egypt (via France), Finland (via Sweden), France, Italy (via France), Madeira, Portugal, Roumania, Servia, Smyrna, Switzerland (via France), and Turkey (Austrian Post Offices) up to £20. The scale of fees and respective limits of compensation are—

Compulsory Registration.—When an uninsured parcel in course of transit from those countries (foreign or colonial) is discovered to contain coin, watches, jewellery, or any article of gold or silver, it is compulsorily registered, and a fee of 4d. is charged on delivery. Such parcels posted in this country uninsured are, as a rule, returned to the sender.

No legal liability to give compensation in respect of any parcel for which an insurance fee has been paid attaches to the Postmaster General, either personally or in his official capacity. The final decision upon all questions of compensation rests with the Postal Administration of the country in which the loss or damage has taken place. Any other information as to the condition of insurance of foreign parcels may be obtained at the nearest Post Office.

Packing.—More careful and substantial packing is necessary for all foreign and colonial parcels than for inland parcels, owing to the much greater distance over which, as a rule, the former have to be conveyed, the very different conditions of transit, and the influence of climate. This is a consideration which must necessarily be taken into account in dealing with claims for compensation. Further, a parcel for any foreign country must be so sealed by the sender that the parcel cannot be opened without the seals being broken.

Prohibited Articles.—As in the case of the inland parcel post, certain dangerous and perishable articles and contraband articles must not be sent by means of the foreign and colonial parcel post. Liquids may be accepted if securely packed in proper cases.

General.—Where not repugnant to the foregoing rules, the general regulations of the inland parcel post will apply.

In addition to the countries, &c., given on page 27, parcels may be sent to certain other places, some of which are as follows (full particulars can be obtained at any post office):—Accra, Aden, Adrianople, Annam, Ascension, Azores, *Austrian Agencies in Turkey, Bahamas, Bahrain, Bandar Abbas, Batavia, Bathurst (Gambia), Berbice, Bermuda, Beyrout, Borneo, Bosnia, British Bechnaland, British Central Africa, British East Africa, British Honduras, Busrah, Cameroons, Candia or Crete, Cayenne, Chili, Cochin China, Congo Free State, Congo (French), Corsica, Costa Rica, Demerara, Diego Suarez, Farøe Islands, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Finland, *French Agencies in Turkey, Gaboon, Gambia, *Gold Coast Colony, *Greece, Guadalupe, Guadur, Herzegovina, Iceland, Jamna, Jask, *Japan, Java, Jerusalem, Lagos (Turkey), Lamu, Liberia, Linga, Little Popo, Madagascarr, Martinique, *Madagascarr, Mashonaland, Mauritius, Mayotte, *Mexico, Mombasa, Montenegro, Morocco, Muscat, Mytilene, New Caledonia, New Hebrides, “ above £3 and not exceeding £10, 4d.

3. No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

4. Particulars Required.—The applicant must furnish in full the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address. In the case of Foreign Orders the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India the tribe or caste, and the father's name, must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Inland Order may direct, at the time of issue, that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus & Co., and thus be made payable only through a Bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the Bank need not be furnished. Note.—This provision is not applicable to orders drawn on foreign countries.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm, as well as the ordinary title of any company, corporation, or society, is sufficient either as remitter or payee.

5. The holder of an Inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted.

6. When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be cashed only at the Head Office.

7. An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying Postmaster according to the directions in paragraph 15 of these regulations.

8. Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

9. When an Order is paid through a bank it is sufficient that it be receipted, without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, and that it be crossed with the name of the bank, and presented by some person known to be in the employment of that bank.

10. Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

11. No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

12. After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

13. To guard against fraud the remitter is recommended:—

1st. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.

2nd. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.

3rd. When it is not considered expedient to adopt any of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

14. Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

15. In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order a duplicate will be granted at a fixed charge of 6d. irrespective of the amount of the order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a notice must be sent to the office where the order is payable, and a fee of 4d. in postage stamps must be enclosed. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application, accompanied by the payment of a penny, must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application inclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable; who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the reissue. Proper printed forms for making application in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant.

16. A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused, in consequence of the reply to the question respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order not corresponding with the entries on the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing Postmaster.

17. No Postman or other Servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

18. Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £50 are issued, free of charge, in favour of "The Receiver-General of Inland Revenue," when required for the remittance of Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, or Excise License Duties (where the license^s are not obtainable at money order offices), or Legacy and Succession Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

19. Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Post Offices in the United Kingdom authorised to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those offices which forward but do not deliver telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued, but cannot be paid.

a. The commission is—	s.	d.
For sums not exceeding £3, - - -	0	4
" above £3 and not exceeding £10, - -	0	6

In addition to the commission, a charge is made at the ordinary inland rate for the official telegram authorising payment at the office of payment and for the repetition thereof, the minimum being 6d. The telegraphic charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the Postmaster of the office of payment and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate, the minimum being 6d.

b. The remitter may, however, if he so desires, have the money order delivered at the payee's address on paying the proper portage charges, and he may add a short private message for the payee if desired. He can also direct that the order be paid through a bank on the same condition.

c. No Telegraph Money Order can be issued for a greater amount than £10.

d. Any person expecting a remittance by telegraph must furnish satisfactory evidence that he himself is the person entitled to receive the money. He, or someone on his behalf, must attend at the office to obtain payment.

e. Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, according to whether the order be remitted from an office in England and Wales, Scotland, or Ireland. He must enclose the official receipt with his application. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose. Should transfer of payment from one office to another be required by either remitter or payee, he must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, as the case may be, furnishing particulars of the Order, and stating the name of the office at which payment is desired.

f. In other respects Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary money orders.

(For Telegraph Money Orders to places abroad, see Post Office Guide.)

20. Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on nearly every foreign country, British agency, possession, and colony (a list of places can be seen at any post office where money orders are issued). The rates of commission are as follows:—For sums not exceeding £2, 6d.; £6, 1s.; £10, 1s. 6d.

For other Countries to which Parcels can be sent see Post Office Guide.

21. In the case of some countries, a list of which can be seen at any Post Office, the orders should be retained by the remitters as receipts for the money. In such cases a new order, in the currency of the country of payment, is issued and sent to the payee.

In like manner orders issued in certain Foreign Countries should be retained by the remitters, fresh orders being prepared in this country and sent to the payees.

22. The issue of a duplicate Order, or the stoppage of payment of an Order issued by a Colony or Foreign Country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission be enclosed as follows:—1. For duplicates of Orders, 6d. 2. For stoppage of payment, 4d.

23. Orders for the British Colonies and other possessions abroad, excepting Canada and India, are drawn in sterling, but the regulations provide that in those colonies where the local currency is other than sterling, payments for Money Orders may be made to the nearest equivalent in the legal currency of the place in which the Orders are payable.

24. As the advices of Orders drawn on the British Colonies, &c., have to circulate through the London Office, and also the Chief Office of the paying country, such Orders should be taken out in sufficient time to allow of the despatch of the relative Advices, so that the presentation of the Orders and the arrival of the Advices may be simultaneous.

POSTAL ORDERS.

1. Postal Orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. up to £1, are now issued to the public at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, at the British Post-office at Constantinople, and in Malta, Gibraltar, India, Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and Newfoundland.

Such Postal Orders are paid at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and at the British Post Office, Constantinople. Payment is also made in Malta and Gibraltar provided the Orders were issued in the United Kingdom or at the British Post Office, Constantinople.

2. The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

3. The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the Poundage payable in respect of each Order:—

Amount of Order.	Poundage.	Amount of Order.	Poundage.
s. d.	d.	s. d.	d.
1 0	$\frac{1}{2}$	4 6	1
1 6	$\frac{1}{2}$.5 0	1
2 0	1	7 6	1
2 6	1	10 0	1
3 0	1	10 6	1
3 6	1	15 0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$
4 0	1	20 0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$

Broken amounts, not being fractions of a penny, may be made up by the use of British Postage Stamps not exceeding fivepence in value affixed to the face of any one Postal Order. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for this purpose.

4. Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue to facilitate enquiry if the order should be lost.

5. In case of the miscarriage or loss of any Postal Order, unless proof can be given to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the name of the payee was inserted in such Order before the holder parted with the same, and unless the number of such Order can be furnished, the Postmaster-General cannot undertake to trace such Order with a view to accounting for the miscarriage or loss thereof.

6. If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a Banker, and if the name of a Banker is added, payment will only be made through that Banker.

7. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

8. The holder of a Postal Order may, in writing, on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding 10 days; but in such case the name of some Money Order Office at which the Order shall be paid must be inserted in the body. Payment of the Order will then not be made until the period specified by the holder has elapsed.

9. A Postal Order presented by, or through, a Banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such Banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such Order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

10. After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

11. If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the Order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

12. The regulations under which Postal Orders are issued allow the Postmaster to delay or refuse the payment of an Order, but he must at once report his reasons for so doing to the Postmaster-General. He may also require the person presenting the Order to sign his name on the Order before its payment, although the receipt has been already signed.

13. After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a Commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition (if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration) of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

14. The Commission thus paid must be affixed in Postage Stamps to the back of the Order.

15. No postman, or other servant of the Post Office, is bound to procure a Postal Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

1. Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and are open for the receipt of deposits on week days during the hours appointed for the sale of stamps. Every such Office is also open for the payment of withdrawals on week days during certain hours, which are mentioned in a notice exhibited at the Office.

2. At these Offices ordinary deposits of one shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received, subject to the limits of £50 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, exclusive of interest. Deposits will also be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuities.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny postage stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office. Instructions as to this form are printed thereon.

3. Interest.—Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum (which is at the rate of 6d. in the pound for each year, or at the rate of one halfpenny on each complete pound for each calendar month), is allowed until the sum due to a depositor amounts to £200, when interest ceases. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound has been deposited or completed, up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued. The interest due to each depositor is added to the principal due to him on the 31st December in each year.

4. Transfers of Deposits.—A person may transfer his deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to the Post Office Savings Bank, or vice versa, by obtaining a certificate of transfer, which will be accepted as a deposit of the amount therein set forth. Forms of application for certificates of transfer to a Trustee Savings Bank can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

5. Withdrawal of Deposits.—Any depositor wishing to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited by him, must make application for the same to the General Post Office in London, in a form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

6. Repayments.—Repayments will be made only to the depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the minister of the parish in which the depositor resides, of a justice of the peace, or in case of sickness, of the medical attendant.

7. Withdrawals by Telegraph.—A depositor who wishes to obtain immediate payment of any amount not exceeding £10 standing to his credit, can apply at any savings bank office at which payment by telegraph is made, when upon production of the deposit book showing that the sum required is standing to his credit, and on his filling up the usual notice of withdrawal and paying the cost of the telegram to the chief office and of the reply, the Postmaster will ascertain by telegraph whether the amount applied for on the notice may be paid. Not more than £10 can be paid to a depositor in one day under this arrangement. Withdrawals of not more than £20 may, however, be obtained by return of post on notice being similarly sent by telegraph to the chief office, London.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK UNDER THE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1880.

1. A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Consolidated, $2\frac{3}{4}$, $2\frac{1}{2}$ (1905), $2\frac{1}{2}$, or in Local Loans 3 per Cent. Stock.

2. The minimum amount of Stock which may be purchased or sold is 1s., and not more than £200 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending the 31st December, or £500.

3. The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is as follows:—

GOVERNMENT INSURANCES AND ANNUITIES.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

If the amount of the Annuity or Insurance purchased is less than £100, further Annuities and Insurances may be purchased from time to time until the total amount of annuities depending on the life is £100, and the total sum insured is £100.

The persons whose lives are insured or to whom annuities are granted by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

Proposals for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities; and forms of proposal, with full instructions for filling up and delivering the same, as well as every other necessary information, may be obtained on application at the Post Office, Glasgow.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for the first 12 words, and 3d. for every additional word. Addresses are charged for.

2. Postage stamps are used for the payment of telegrams, and the public are required to affix them to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters.

3. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2d. each.

4. The telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the “A 1” form, embossed with a stamp, and the “A” form (given gratis), with no stamp. The “A 1” forms may be purchased singly. They may also be had in books of 20 forms, interleaved, and with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 10s. 2d. per book.

5. When the terminal office, i.e., the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within three miles, or within the town postal delivery of that office when the delivery extends more than three miles. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only. In Glasgow and other large towns the district covered by the maximum number of postal deliveries is regarded as the town postal delivery.

6. When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile, or part thereof, the charge being calculated from the office door.

7. The sender is responsible for the portage; and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid. Should the sender undercalculate the charge the deficiency is charged on delivery. If the sender pays too much, the excess is refunded.

8. If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words “by post” or “by train” (these words being charged for) at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost or deposit 1s. if the exact cost is not known.

9. If the telegram is to be posted to a place abroad, he must write “post——” (which will be charged for) at the end of the address; and must prepay the postage. Thus a telegram of 25 words, to be posted from London to Calcutta, via Brindisi, should be marked “post London” and be prepaid 1s. 3d., viz., 1s. 0½d. for telegraphing, and 2½d. for postage.

Any other information regarding telegraph business can be obtained at the nearest postal telegraph office.

PRIVATE WIRES.

1. The Department undertakes to construct and afterwards maintain, upon the payment of an annual rental, a line of private wire between the place of business or residence of a firm or private individual and a Postal Telegraph Office, or between two or more places of business or residences. The advantage of having a private wire led into a Postal Telegraph Office is that the renter is placed in direct communication with the public wires to all parts of the kingdom or abroad, messages being received from and sent to the Postal Telegraph Office by wire instead of by hand. The renter has also the privilege of sending messages over his private wire to be forwarded from the Post Office as ordinary letters, or of calling a messenger for the express delivery of a letter or parcel.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to “The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C.”

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

(Regulations founded upon the International Telegraph Convention.)

1. Foreign telegrams are of two kinds, telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes: (1) preconcerted language or code, (2) cypher.

2. Telegrams in preconcerted language, or code, are composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names (other than those appearing in the "Official Vocabulary for Telegrams in Preconcerted Language," published by the International Telegraph Office at Berno) are not allowed in the text of such telegrams, except in their natural sense. Words of more than ten letters are not allowed in either the European or the Extra-European system. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages are allowed in the same telegram.

3. Cypher telegrams are those containing groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting trade marks are allowed in the midst of plain or preconcerted language, and are then charged for as figures.

4. Special forms are provided for Foreign Telegrams: the A_N^N form for telegrams to be transmitted by North American Cables, and the A_M^S form for other Foreign and Colonial Telegrams. Telegrams written on forms supplied by the Cable Companies are also accepted at Post Offices.

Books containing twenty-five forms, each bearing an embossed 10d. stamp, interleaved, can be obtained, price £1 1s. each.

5. The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than the name of the person and the name of the town. Example—Hercules, Bombay.

6. The address of the sender is charged for if transmitted; it in any case must be written at the foot of the form.

7. In telegrams written in plain language, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters. Any additional letters are charged for at the rate of 15 letters respectively to the word.

8. The charge for a foreign telegram depends on the country to which the message is addressed, and is calculated at so much per word (with a minimum charge of 10d.) including the address.

For any other information see Post Office Guide, or apply at the nearest postal telegraph office.

LIST OF POST TOWNS AND SUB-OFFICES IN SCOTLAND.

The hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and therefore cannot be given here. The Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed a Railway Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Travelling Post Office instead of through a Post Town; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

For the recovery of debts not exceeding £12. Court sits every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at Glasgow, on Tuesday at Lanark, Tuesday at Airdrie, and Friday at Hamilton, and there is a Circuit Court at Wishaw every third Thursday. The defenders are cited before this court on an inducia of six days; warrants to arrest on the dependence are issued; the decree may be extracted and arrestments used upon it immediately after decree is granted; and it may be enforced in all cases by pointing and sale of the debtor's effects. Decrees may be enforced over the whole county, and in case of the debtor removing to a different county, the decree can be enforced against him there, on being endorsed by the Sheriff-Clerk of that county. Judges—Sheriff and Sheriff-Substitutes of the county.

An Act was passed in 1870 abolishing arrestment of wages, unless the same exceed 20s. per week, but excepting claims for alimony, crown taxes, poor rates, &c., from the operation of the Act.

The "Debtors (Scotland) Act, 1880," abolished imprisonment for debt, with the following exceptions:—(1) Taxes, fines, and penalties due to Her Majesty, and rates and assessments lawfully imposed; (2) sums decreed for alimony; (3) debtors under warrants granted in meditatione fugae; (4) Persons against whom decrees ad factum praestandum are pronounced.

By the "Civil Imprisonment (Scotland) Act, 1882," the power to imprison for alimony and expenses of process was restricted to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six weeks against debtors who wilfully fail to pay sums due for alimony, and the expenses of process for which decree has been granted; but a new warrant of imprisonment may be issued against the same person at intervals of not less than six months for the same sums of alimony and expenses if not paid, or for any part remaining due. Persons who fail to pay taxes cannot be imprisoned for a longer period than six weeks in respect of the rates of any one year.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

(2.) Commissioners to be furnished with an abstract of instrument, and such evidence as they deem necessary to show whether facts and circumstances affecting liability to duty are fully and truly set forth.

(4.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when instrument is duly stamped in accordance with assessment of the Commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(5.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(6.) Provided as follows:—

If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the Commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous assessment, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the court may determine.

(5.) If the assessment of the Commissioners is con-

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Brother or sister, or their descendants, -	£3 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - - - - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, etc. (institute of heir of entail not to be deemed competent to dispose unless entitled to disentail without consent or having consent valued) and, where not competent to dispose, is on the annual value after allowance of the necessary outgoings as an annuity for the life of the successor, to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty on the capital value, and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Owner's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Owner of each Carriage shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door,

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of the License for each Carriage shall be painted on the Carriage, to be affixed on the back, and to be distinctly visible from the outside, and in figures not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Owner, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, provided the repairs are not finished within twenty-one days. Whenever a Licensed Carriage is sold by the Proprietor in whose name the License has been granted, or otherwise ceases to be his property, the License will lapse and become null and void.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

It is entirely dependant on voluntary contributions, and requires £1000 per annum to maintain its work. In addition to the Evangelistic, Medical Mission, Benevolent, and Temperance work, it has departments for fathers, mothers, working-lads, young women, and children—its agencies thus reaching whole families. It has been in operation for thirty-nine years as an auxiliary to the churches of all denominations, with results which prove the soundness of its principles of mission work, and the great value of organization.

Forty members, being a majority of the Scottish parliamentary representation, are pledged to support the Liquor Traffic Local Veto (Scotland) Bill, which gives the ratepayers of Scotland power to abolish all traffic in intoxicating liquors in their respective burghs, wards of burghs, parishes, and districts when so minded, and the Executive have resolved to give this measure a vigorous and sustained support. To enable them to bring the influence of the Scottish electorate to bear successfully upon the government of the day, and in favour of this Bill now under the charge of Mr. Wilson, M.P., liberal subscriptions to the funds are urgently required, and will be gratefully received at the offices or by the district agents. Subscribers to the Association of 10s. and upwards yearly receive a copy of The Scottish Reformer weekly, free, and of 5s. yearly, a copy, post free, monthly. THE EAST-END GOSPEL MISSION

(Church—Suffolk Street. Hall—Risk Street)

AND CHILDREN'S SEA-SIDE HOME AND RETREAT, MOUNT PLEASANT, DUNOON.

This Mission has for its object the elevation, religiously and socially, of the masses of the city slums, principally aiming at those who know no church or other place of worship. In addition to preaching the Gospel, whereby outcasts and fallen are brought to a knowledge of the truth, their temporal wants are cared for. During periods of distress, the Mission has been the means of saving many poor families from utter want and ruin, and to-day numbers are hard-working respectable members of society, who, if solely left to themselves, would be on the downward path of sin and misery. The accounts of the Mission are made up and vouched for periodically.

The Children's Home and Retreat at Dunoon has proved a great boon to the little ones. As a provision against infection the children are examined by a medical man in Glasgow before leaving, and again on their arrival at the Home, where the local medical officer attends periodically.

The Mission is supported by voluntary subscriptions and donations, and a copy of the Report with certified abstracts of accounts is sent to each subscriber. T. G. A. Scott, superintendent; P. E. Fitzpatrick, secretary.

About 150 have gone forth from Scotland alone, many of whom have been pioneers to far inland districts not previously visited by Europeans, and stations have been established in all the unoccupied provinces of China. No appeal for funds is made by the mission, and its workers are dependent on the freewill offerings of those who are led to contribute to their support. In 1897 the income of the mission was £45,000.

THE HOUSES OF SHELTER.

THE HOUSE OF SHELTER, 114 HILL STREET, GARNETHILL.

"The Shelter" was instituted in 1850. Its object is to provide a home for females who, on their liberation from prison, are desirous to reform and to support themselves by honest industry. The number of inmates in "the Shelter" is generally 50. They are employed in needlework, the institution receiving the proceeds of their labour, in return for which the inmates are lodged, fed, and clothed. In addition to this, a suitable outfit is given to those who remain a full year, and go out with the approval of the committee; and an effort is made to find suitable employment for the women when they leave the Home.

MISSION SHELTER, 15 WHITEVALE STREET (Prison Gate Mission).

This Home was begun in 1878, and its object also is to provide for females who have been in prison, and desire to lead a better life. The two homes are worked much on the same lines as to the length of stay required and the food and outfit given; also as to the effort made to find occupation for the women when they leave, after remaining their full time—i.e., a year. The special feature of the Mission Shelter is its large washing-house and laundry, in which the greater number of the 70 women are employed, the rest being engaged in sewing, with the exception of a few, who are occupied in knitting or housework.

Both Homes are equally dependent on the public for employment. Our Bible Woman meets the female prisoners daily at the Prison Gate on their liberation from Prison.

DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY, Cathedral Square.

The Hon. the Lord Provost, Sir David Richmond, chairman; Jas. Nicol, City Chamberlain, hon. treas.; A. A. Fergusson, hon. secretary; John Lawson, superintendent; Mrs. Elder, bible woman for female prisoners.

67,167 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our new building for the reception of male and female discharged prisoners is now occupied by the society. It is situated in a prominent position in Cathedral Square, within a few yards from the exit gate of Duke Street Prison, from whence, with those from Barlinnie Prison, the prisoners are daily discharged. There they are met every morning at half past eight by two of our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is to cease, the Society being now prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the nine and a half years of its prosecution 9732 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1898 work was found for 2121 men. Such a record of rescue work speaks for itself, and suggests the inquiry—"What would have been the state of matters among these men had no such helping hand as ours been held out to them?"

Admission to the Houses of Shelter in Garnethill and Whitevale Street is procured for those women who desire to break with the old courses.

Boys' Home, Mount Blow House, Dalmuir.

New Homes in course of erection at Kilmalcolm.

The object of the society is to feed, clothe, educate, or otherwise provide for the orphans or fatherless children of seafaring men (including engineers, firemen, stewards, &c.) who have been left in destitute circumstances. About 4000 seamen are annually lost from, or die on board British ships, and there is great need for such work as this society is doing. There is no collector, but the society is carried on in dependence upon God, and is supported by the free-will offerings of friends who are interested in the work. Over 500 orphan children are under the Society's care. The trustees are George Smith, 75 Bothwell Street, Richard H. Hunter, 2 Park Circus, Robt. S. Allan, 163 West George Street, and James Cuthbert, 21 Carlton Place, Glasgow. Donations will be placed to maintenance or endowment fund as the donors may wish. THE DORCAS SOCIETY FOR THE CITY OF GLASGOW, BELVIDERE, KNIGHTSWOOD, AND GOVAN COMBINATION FEVER AND SMALL POX HOSPITALS.

Pres., Mrs. Ure, Cairndhu, Helensburgh; secretary, Miss Telford; treasurer, Mrs. Barclay, 6 Colebrook Terrace.

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND, AND DESERTED CHILDREN'S EMIGRATION HOMES, GLASGOW.

Since the work began, thirty-four years ago, over 10,000 children have passed through these homes, of which number over 4750 have gone to Canada, and about the same number have been settled in this country. In addition to these, thousands of other needy ones have been temporarily helped and advised in connection with the mission.

The Canadian Distributing Home in connection with above is at Brockville, Ontario. There are now over 1200 children and young people from one year old and upwards, from all parts of Scotland, under Mr. Quarrier's care in the Homes at Bridge of Weir and Glasgow, which, with 80 workers, makes a total of nearly 1300. It takes about £50 a day to meet current expenses. No destitute, fatherless, or orphan child from any part of the country is ever refused admission. No one is called on for subscriptions. Donations and all correspondence should be sent to Mr. Wm. Quarrier, City Home, James Morrison Street, Glasgow; or Orphan Homes of Scotland, Bridge of Weir.

THE WESTERN FRIENDLY SOCIETY,

Founded at Glasgow in the reign of King William IV., grants to Professional and Business Men Insurances at Prime Cost, and guarantees independence at all stages of life. The Membership is larger than that of any similar Provident Institution, and it has done a large amount of good during a continuously successful career of nearly 70 years. During the last 10 years about 3,000 Death, Sickness, and Accident Claims have been paid, individual claims running frequently into the four figures. The Society has never failed to add yearly large sums to the Reserves, which belong entirely to the Members. The Accumulation of Surplus is shown as follows:—1855, £2253; 1885, £24,485; 1895, £33,582; 1896, £34,673; 1897, £35,247; 1898, £36,274. The Directors and the Auditors give their services gratuitously. The Society is purely Mutual (having no Shareholders to withdraw portion of the profits), and deals directly with the public, and does not incur Commission, Agency, Advertising, and Canvassing Expenses. There is accordingly a very large saving to the Members, as the Premiums do not require to be "loaded-up" to meet these sources of expenditure. The Premiums, which vary with Benefits selected and age-at-entry, are exceptionally moderate, being the lowest possible consistent with Absolute Security. They are based on the most modern and reliable data, and have the approval of the highest actuarial authorities. The cost of Membership (for Minimum Benefits) is, e.g., at age 19, £1 4s. 8d. a year; at age 30, £1 14s. An investor aged 45, by payment of £175, or if aged 19, by payment of £94, can secure for himself (1) £54 15s. a year in Illness (Physical or Mental), non-reducible no matter how protracted the disability may turn out to be; (2) £48 a year in Old Age; and (3) £50 at Death. These benefits can be varied to suit all circumstances. Parents (or Guardians) by such unique investments, may ensure that their Sons (or Wards) will never cease to have a living wage either in times of Sickness or in Old Age. Allowances are not reduced in protracted illness. List of Members, Accounts, Directors' Reports, Press Opinions, and Prints explaining Investment Schemes, &c., may be had at the Registered Office, 137 West George Street, Glasgow. John Mann, C.A., manager.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFEBOAT INSTITUTION.
GLASGOW BRANCH.

Local Committee—Wm. Cairney, Esq., chairman; J. P. Maclay, Esq., Lord Inverclyde, David M'Cowan, Esq., William Burrell, Esq., James Lilburn, Esq., G. Munro Kerr, Esq., J. A. Roxburgh, Esq.; hon. treasurer, Leonard Gow, jun., Esq., 45 Renfield Street; secretary, William Martin, 116 St. Vincent Street.

During the past year the institution continued to use its best endeavours to improve the lifeboat service, and a large sum was expended by it in the maintenance in an efficient state of the 295 lifeboats on the coast. This being so, the Glasgow committee would again earnestly urge upon the public the necessity of supporting this most deserving institution, especially as the city is so intimately connected with ships and shipping. They feel that many of the present subscribers might increase their subscriptions, and new firms might add their names to the list. The annual subscriptions to this branch in 1898 amounted to £500 11s. 2d.

During the past year (1898) the institution expended £67,719 on the various lifeboat establishments on our coasts. The total expenditure was largely in excess of the ordinary income of the year. Last year the institution granted rewards amounting to £10,141, in addition to 83 medals or other honorary testimonials for the saving of 756 lives and 22 vessels, including grants to relatives of men lost on service and to injured men. There are 295 lifeboats on our shores, and during the society's existence the lives saved either by its boats or by special exertions, for which it has granted rewards (to 31st Decr., 1898), is 41,233. Surely this is a work that calls for every support from all classes of the community.

Form of Bequest of money, stock, or other personal estate.

I give and bequeath to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck, founded in 1824, London, the sum of £ _____, for the use of the said Institution; and I declare that the said legacy shall be paid free from Legacy Duty, and that the receipt of the Treasurer of the said Institution shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Real or leasehold property may also now be left by will to the Institution.

Annual subscriptions, donations, or legacies will be thankfully received by the secretary or treasurer.

RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

The Scottish Branch is under the special patronage of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, who has sent a donation of £50 to the fund in Scotland. Scotch branch office, 302 Buchanan st., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, John Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway; Wm. Brown, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, John Conacher, Esq., North British Railway, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, George Cunningham, Esq., North British Railway, D. Deuchars, Esq., North British Railway, Henry Evans, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, W. Garrow, Esq., Highland Railway, A. Hillhouse, Esq., Caledonian Railway, Irvine Kempt, Esq., Caledonian Railway, William Moffatt, Esq., Gt. North of Scotland Railway, A. Rutherford, Esq., North British Railway, J. S. Stuart, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, Sir James Thomson, Caledonian Railway, George Thomson, Esq., Highland Railway; bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Square branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Robert Gibb, Caledonian Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow.

THE GLASGOW CANCER AND SKIN INSTITUTION.

409 St. Vincent Street (near Charing Cross).

(Established in 1886 under Royal and Distinguished patronage:—for the treatment of Cancer and Diseases of the Skin.)

Telegraphic address—"Cancer," Glasgow.

Telephone number—"224"

Receiving Hour, 1 to 2 p.m.

Consulting Hours, 2 and 7 p.m.

"The Institution has now entered on its Thirteenth year of usefulness. As indicating the extent to which its benefits have been taken advantage of during the last twelve years, and the results accruing therefrom, it may be stated that 1409 persons afflicted with Cancer (275 males and 1134 females) have had their sufferings relieved and their lives prolonged, while 11,615 persons, with diseases of the skin, were restored to health and usefulness.

There have been but two deaths in the Institution during the last twelve years.

The outstanding features of the Institution continue to be:—(1) The advancement of medical and surgical science in relation to the treatment of Cancer and allied diseases, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use, and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding, the use of the knife. In other words, the Therapeutic treatment of Cancer in contradistinction to the knife treatment of the malady. (2) Affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to women—whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured by them before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless patients that have to be dealt with from day to day."

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances. Ten additional beds, for the exclusive use of women suffering from Cancer and allied diseases, have been recently added to the Institution, the maintenance of which solely depends on the Auxiliary Fund—a fund exclusively devoted to necessitous patients, and for which subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited.

Gordon, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Coutts, junr., Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. MacNiven, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Jas. Gordon, Mrs. Muir, and Mrs. Mitchell.

LIBRARIES, NEWS-ROOMS. AND NEWSPAPER OFFICES

THE MITCHELL LIBRARY.

21 Miller Street.

Founded on a bequest of the late Stephen Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council in July of the same year.

The library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9.30 a.m. till 10 p.m. uninteruptedly. It now contains about 134,000 volumes, and is the largest library in Scotland to which the general public have a right of free admission. The books are not to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose, there being separate accommodation for ladies and for students. There is a magazine room, where may be seen about 400 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly periodicals of all classes—literary, artistic, scientific, trade, technical, and general—and including a number of American, German, and French serials. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required. In the selection of the books to form the library, efforts have been made to give it a thoroughly representative character, so that students in every department of knowledge will derive advantage from its use. Collections of books relating to Scotland, and particularly to Glasgow and the West, are forming. The "Poet's Corner" is believed to contain the largest and most valuable library of Burns and Scottish Poets and Dramatists in existence. Much attention has also been devoted to securing standard works on industrial and technological subjects, from which many persons engaged in manufactures, especially such as include design, derive much advantage.

The number of readers is large—over 2000 daily—the number of volumes consulted being about half-a-million yearly. The total number issued from the commencement to 11th March, 1899, was 8,313,417, exclusive of the reading of the periodicals in the magazine room, the references to which are estimated to be not less in number than the volumes issued. Taking books and periodicals together, the total use of the library amounts to at least a million each year.

The library is administered by the following committee of the Town Council: the Hon. the Lord Provost; Bailie Fife, convener; Treasurer Colquhoun, LL.D., sub-convener; Bailies Dick, Hunter, Battersby, Sinclair, and Cuthbert, Dean of Guild Sir James Bell, Councillors Bilsland, Richd. Browne, Carswell, Ferguson, Gray, Maxwell, M'Cutcheon, Sandilands, D. M. Stevenson, N. M. Thomson. F. T. Barrett, librarian; John Ingram, sub-librarian.

STIRLING'S & GLASGOW PUBLIC LIBRARY.

48 Miller Street.

Stirling's Public Library was founded by Walter Stirling, merchant and ex-bailie of the city, and son of Dr. William Stirling, a well-known Glasgow surgeon of the last century. The bequest came into effect at the death of Mr. Stirling on 18th January, 1791. It consisted of the founder's own library (802 volumes), his house in Miller Street (where the library now stands), a share in the Tontine Society, and the sum of £1000. Mr. Stirling directed that the library was to be free to any one, and was to exist in perpetuity. In 1825 Mr. William Jameson, jun., bequeathed his books to the library. In 1871 Dr. Scouler, professor of mineralogy in the Royal Society of Dublin, bequeathed his collection of books; and in the same year the Glasgow Public Library, a subscription lending library started in 1804, amalgamated with Stirling's Library, and the title then became Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library.

The library contains over 50,000 volumes and pamphlets, including many rare, valuable, and useful works. It possesses several manuscripts (two on vellum), and nearly thirty examples of fifteenth century printing, the earliest being 1469, or fourteen years after the issue of the first printed book. It is the depository of the only complete set in the West of Scotland of the publications of Her Majesty's Patent Office, which consist of over 150,000 separate publications. They date from 1617 when the first British patent was enrolled, and come up to the latest patents issued. The Board of Trade recently presented a complete set of the Trade Marks Journal to the library, and supply the current numbers as issued. The Government of the United States have also presented their Specifications of Patents from the 28th March, 1893, and continue to supply the current numbers as issued.

The foundation being inadequate for the proper maintenance of the library the directors organized a system of lending of books. This has been immensely developed in recent years, and a large supply of new books and magazines—over 2000 copies annually of the latter—render it one of the best, as it is by far the most extensive and most moderately rated lending library in the city and district. The terms are—For two works and one magazine at a time, one year, 10s. 6d.; six months, 7s. 6d.; life, £5 5s.; for one work (no magazine) at a time, one year, 5s. 3d. Members may join at any time (no entry money), and may change their books and magazines singly or together as often as they choose. The library is open every lawful day from 10 a.m. till 10 p.m.

Board of Directors—President, Sir David Richmond, the Hon. the Lord Provost; vice-president, J. Barclay Murdoch; elected by the Town Council, Treasurer Colquhoun, LL.D., Bailie Fife, and Councillor Walter Paton; elected by the Merchants' House, William L. Brown, George A. Burns, and Matthew Arthur; elected by the Presbytery of Glasgow, Rev. David Millar, M.A., Rev. G. Gibson Gunn, M.A., and Rev. W. G. Buchanan, Peter Johnstone, J. O. Mitchell, LL.D., John Wilson, J. B. Murdoch, and G. Neilson.

Committee—Rev. Jas. Black, D.D., T. Bost, Esq., Rev. Alex. Brown, Rev. Jervis Coats, M.A., Rev. Robert S. Duff, D.D., Rev. Fergus Ferguson, D.D., Rev. George Gladstone, Rev. Jas. Kidd, D.D., Rev. Alex. Kirkland, Rev. T. H. Martin, Rev. John Riddell, M.A., Rev. Jas. Ross; Rev. Aaron Matthews, 12 Abbotsford place, superintendent and treasurer.

The object of the mission is to bring the gospel home to the minds and hearts of the thousands of Jews who are living in Glasgow. The missionaries visit from house to house and from shop to shop, and invite the Jews to attend the various meetings, such as bible classes, night schools, and gospel services, &c., held at the Hebrew Christian house. A lady missionary visits amongst the Jewish women and children, secures medical aid for the sick, and, when necessary, admission to the hospitals. The Jewish poor and refugees are assisted in many ways, amongst others, by finding them employment, and by giving pecuniary aid towards enabling them to earn their own living. The superintendent will gladly supply reports and any information to anyone desiring such.

Donations and subscriptions for the Jewish Evangelical Mission to be sent to Rev. Aaron Matthews, 12 Abbotsford place, Glasgow, to whom cheques or postal orders should be made payable. The same will be acknowledged by printed receipts. All kinds of clothing for men, women, and children will be gratefully received. The testimony of the Rev. Fergus Ferguson, D.D., Queen's Park U.P. Church:—"I heartily commend to your thoughtful attention and generous help the Jewish evangelical mission of my friend Mr. Matthews, who has laboured so long and so effectively in the interest of the Jews. I have had opportunities of looking into the work and arrangements, and I feel persuaded that they are well adapted to the end in view. As may be expected, Mr. Matthews knows better than most, how to conciliate and attract his own people. He knows their spirit, their nature, their prejudices, as no Gentile can know them. He has the fairest of all claims for liberal support on the part of Christian people in Glasgow."

PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE CO., LIM.

Chief Office—HOLBORN BARS, LONDON, E.C.

Summary of the Report presented at the Fiftieth Annual Meeting held on 2nd March, 1899.

ORDINARY BRANCH.—The number of Policies issued during the Year was 64,708, assuring the sum of £6,420,580, and producing a New Annual Premium Income of £353,113.

The Premiums received during the Year were £2,967,501, being an increase of £193,237 over the year 1897.

The Claims of the year amounted to £975,012. The number of Deaths was 5191, and 2535 Endowment Assurances matured. The number of Policies in force at the end of the year was 534,138.

INDUSTRIAL BRANCH.—The Premiums received during the year were £4,960,756, being an increase of £167,165. The Claims of the year amounted to £1,891,039. The number of Deaths was 198,308, and 2181 Assurances matured.

The number of Free Policies granted during the year to those Policyholders of five years' standing who desired to discontinue their payments, was 66,379, the number in force being 604,564. The number of Free Policies which became Claims during the year was 12,231.

The total number of Policies in force at the end of the year was 12,949,679; their average duration exceeds eight and a half years. The Assets of the Company, in both branches, as shown in the Balance Sheet, are £33,599,708, being an increase of £3,161,371 over those of 1897.

Public attention having been for some time past directed to questions of thrift and provision for old age, the Directors have had under consideration how they can further assist those Policyholders who from age and diminished earnings find some difficulty in maintaining the payment of Premiums on their Policies, and they have therefore made provision for all Policyholders in the Industrial Branch who have been assured for twenty-five years to be free from the payment of further Premiums as they attain the age of 75. This alteration takes effect at once, and has of course necessitated a considerable addition to the Reserves.

The Shareholders will be glad to learn that the Staff Provident Fund, which was established last year on the occasion of the celebration of the Company's Jubilee, has been heartily appreciated by the outdoor Staff for whose benefit it was founded, and a large proportion have become contributors. The total amount standing to the credit of the Fund at the end of the year was £58,212 18s.; number of contributors, 7160.

WESTERN INFIRMARY

OF

(For list of Managers, Medical Officers, and other particulars, see page 192 in the Appendix).

STATEMENT AND APPEAL.

I. The Western Infirmary has 400 beds, and a Dispensary for the treatment of out-door patients.

II. During the year (ending 31st October, 1898) 52,437 visits were made to the Dispensary by out-door patients. The number of patients treated in the wards was 4718.

The cost for maintenance during the past year was £23,288 16s. 11d.; and as the ordinary income from all sources during the same period was only £18,830 1s. 6d. the necessity for new and increased support will readily be seen. The liberal spirit, however, in which all classes of the community have hitherto supported the Institution gives the Managers confidence in believeing that the appeal which they now make will meet with a prompt and generous response.

III. The Managers take the liberty of drawing attention to the subjoined Form of Bequest, in the hope that from this source they may be enabled gradually to accumulate a special fund from the investment of which, in so far as it is not required for contingencies, a considerable supplementary revenue may in time be derived.

NOTE.—There are already 20 beds endowed in perpetuity, most of them in name of deceased relatives whose names the donors desire to associate with the relief of suffering. The sum required for endowment of a bed is the capital sum necessary to produce £50 per annum.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE WESTERN INFIRMARY.

I _____ of _____ do hereby leave to the WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW, free of legacy duty and charges, a Legacy of * _____ pounds sterling, which I authorise and direct my Executors to pay to the Treasurer or Secretary thereof for the time being, upon his receipt, which shall be a sufficient discharge.

Dated at Glasgow, this * _____ day of _____ Eighteen Hundred and _____ Ninety _____ years.

(Testator's Signature).

* Sum and Date to be expressed in words, not in figures.

Funds are required and earnestly solicited for the upkeep of the Infirmary; all Annual Contributions and Donations sent to the Subscribers will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and most sudden changes of temperature.

The use of these Bricks is found to be economical in districts where Fire Bricks are made and sold at half the price of the "Glenboig" brand, but how much more economical must they be when shipped abroad and where both qualities bear the same charge for carriage?

The Glenboig Company purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers who require a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Mark—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the brand purchased is really stamped on the goods.

GAS RETORTS.—The great number of Glenboig Retorts now in use in the principal Gas Works at Home and Abroad is the best evidence of the high estimation in which this brand is held by Gas Engineers, who know the importance of using "Retorts that can be depended upon."

SEWAGE PIPES, TRAPS, &c.—The Company are also manufacturers of Glazed Fire Clay Pipes, and all descriptions of Junctions, Traps, &c. Makers of the "Waverley" Combination Traps and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the best yet before the Public; a sure preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.

GOUIN'S METHOD LANGUAGE CLASSES

(THIRD YEAR, 1899-1900)

Are conducted at the CHRISTIAN INSTITUTE, BOTHWELL ST., GLASGOW.
PRINCIPAL, MONSIEUR LOUIS LATOUR.

THE above Classes, held in connection with the Edinburgh School of Foreign Tongues, have now been established for two years, and proved very successful, over 100 students having attended them during the first two years.

N.B.—Over 400 students have been attending, during the same length of time, the classes of the Edinburgh School of Foreign Tongues.

Gouin's Series Method, introduced in England in 1892, has been enjoying the public favour from the very first moment, and was called by Mr. Stead, the well-known Editor of the "Review of Reviews," May, 1892—"The Royal Road to Languages."

On Gouin's Series Method, made by MONSIEUR LOUIS LATOUR Etymological and Grammatical, as well as Descriptive and Conversational, Foreign Languages are taught by nature to any one as rationally and easily as mother tongues, without any book drudgery or any tiresome homework, and is a most interesting and altogether scientific way. Highest Testimonials and References.

A Free Specimen Lesson is given on application to intending Students, and occasional Free Demonstrations (duly advertised in Glasgow Herald) are given of the system.

Prospectus and all information sent free on application.

French, German, Italian, and Spanish Classes daily (Morning, Afternoon, and Evening).

TRANSLATIONS FROM AND INTO THESE LANGUAGES ARE ALSO UNDERTAKEN.

CAUSES HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, GIDDINESS, SLEEPLESSNESS, &c. It may be produced by excessive use of the Eyes and undue exercise of the accommodation, or through ASTIGMATISM, HYPERMETROPIA, or MYOPIA.

The early period of School life is the usual time when such defects present themselves, and many children are called stupid and slow of understanding by Teachers when they should have their Eyes tested and assisted.

Mr. Brown has for many years given this matter his special attention. Constant practice and experience in dealing with a great variety of requirements enables him to deal successfully with many cases which would defeat one unaccustomed to such work.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

AS the Partnership between my son, Dr. William Wallace, and myself was dissolved on the 15th May, I beg to intimate that I continue to give my personal attendance at 36 DUNDAS STREET, where I have practised for nearly forty years.

Lately I gave £100 to the Glasgow Dental College to be distributed as a prize of £20 for five years, to the student who would be most successful in the making and inseting Artificial Teeth according to my methods, and on the principle that I have practised for twenty years. That principle is to dispense with springs and catches, which destroy the natural teeth and inflame the tissue of the cheek

I regret to state that the primitive method of using springs and catches is still followed by many leading Dentists.

NATIONAL PROVIDENT INSTITUTION,

ESTD.] FOR MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE. [1835.

Accumulated Fund exceeds £5,250,000. Claims Paid, nearly £10,500,000.

PROFITS. The WHOLE are divided every Five Years amongst the Members without any deduction for Dividends to Shareholders. Already divided, £5,400,000. The amount thus divided has for many years averaged more than £130,000 per annum.

At the last (1897) Division there were then nearly 1000 Policies in respect of which not only were the Premiums ENTIRELY EXTINGUISHED, but Cash Bonuses were also paid, whilst in the case of many Policies the original sums assured are now MORE THAN DOUBLED by the Bonus Additions.

Endowment Assurances, combining LIFE ASSURANCE AT MINIMUM COST WITH PROVISION FOR OLD AGE, granted on exceptionally favourable terms. The practical effect of these Policies in the National Provident Institution is that the Member's life is assured until he reaches the age agreed upon, and on his reaching that age the whole of the Premiums paid are returned to him, and a considerable sum in addition, representing a by no means insignificant rate of interest on his payments.

Before assuring elsewhere, read the Prospectus of this old and wealthy institution, which may be obtained from—
