ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 4 oz. 1d., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional 2 oz.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instruction to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered inland newspaper, whether posted singly or with others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight.

2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

3. Any publication fulfilling the subjoined conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

* Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Island

a. The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

b. It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

c. The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title, and the date, at the top of every subsequent page. This regulation applies also to "Tables of Contents" and "Indices."

d. A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspaper, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspaper or not; or it must consist wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the paper, and have its title and date printed at the top of every page, or at the top of every sheet or side on which any such engraving, print, or lithograph appears.

4. Every newspaper should be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to permit the title to be readily inspected.

5. All publications not so registered are treated as book packets, and are subject to the rates and regulations of the Book Post.

6. A newspaper, if posted in a cover, must have such cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the paper being easily withdrawn for examination.

7. No newspaper and no cover of a newspaper may bear anything not being part of the newspaper

besides the title of the newspaper, the names and addresses of the sender and of the addressee, a request for return in case of non-delivery, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. †

8. No unregistered publication, and no article (unless it be a part or supplement of the newspaper) may be posted in the same cover with the newspaper.

9. In case any of the three last mentioned rules is infringed the newspaper packet is either charged as an insufficiently paid letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d., in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

10. A packet of newspapers must not weigh above 5 lbs., or exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width or depth.

Inland Book Post.

1. The book-post rate of $\frac{3}{4}$ d. applies only to packets not weighing more than 2 oz. Above that weight packets are chargeable as letters, and are subject to the same regulations. Book-packets posted unpaid are chargeable with double postage.

2. The following articles are admissible at the book-post rate:—

a. Books and other publications or works of a literary character, and any other written or printed matter (not being in the nature of a letter) on paper or on some substances ordinarily used for writing or printing.

b. Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, and engravings on paper or on some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

c. Maps, plans, and charts on paper or some other substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

d. The binding or mounting of any article hereinbefore described, provided such binding or mounting be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.

The following documents, whether containing matter in the nature of a letter or not, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

e. Invoices, orders for goods, advice notes, way bills, bills of lading, receipts, statements of account, prices current, market reports.

(Provided that nothing shall appear in writing on the document save dates, the names and addresses of the parties, the particulars and prices of any goods, or the particulars of any sums of money to which the document relates, and the mode of consignment of any such goods or money). That any matter (other than aforesaid) which may be in the nature of a letter shall be wholly in print and shall relate exclusively to the subject matter of the document, or the terms on which business is transacted by the person or firm from whom the document issues.

f. Manuscript for press and printed proofs, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not

† In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves as well as on the covers.

forming part of the document itself refer solely to the arrangement or correction of the type or the execution of the work.)

g. Examination papers, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the questions put or the answers thereto.)

h. Circulars, that is, printed notices and letters, whether separate or on the same sheet of paper with any other document transmissible by Book Post.

(That nothing shall appear in writing, except correction of errors in the print; the date of the despatch and the name and address and description of the sender and the name of the addressee; when the circular is a notice of meeting or appointment, the place, date and hour, and, in the case of a notice of meeting, the objects of the meeting; when the circular is a polling card, the name and address of the voter and his number on the register.)

i. Deeds, agreements, proposals and policies of assurance, powers of attorney, proxy papers, voting papers, certificates, licenses.

(Provided that nothing appear in the document in writing or print which does not form part of the document as a legal instrument.)

j. Notices, reports, returns, and certificates issued, made, or given by officers of a Court of Justice, or other public officers in the discharge of their duties, and returns or reports made to such public officers or public bodies.

(Provided that the document consist of a printed form, and that any written matter on such document consist merely of information or statements appropriate to the form and necessary to the completion of the document.)

k. Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission of any of the before-mentioned articles by post when transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is so used.

In the above definition—

Expressions referring to print or printing shall be taken to refer to any species of type-printing easy to recognize, and to include lithography, hand-stamping, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognize; and in relation to circulars shall also be taken to include type-writing after the fashion or in imitation of type-writing, and also the reproduction of type-writing by the mimeograph or any other mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter.

Expressions referring to writing shall be taken to include type-writing or any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

3. Every book packet is subject to examination in the post.

4. Every book packet must be posted either without a cover, or in an unfastened envelope, or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination without breaking any seal or tearing any paper or separating any adhering surfaces. A packet posted without a cover may not be fastened or otherwise treated so as to prevent easy examination.

5. No book packet may contain or bear any communication in the nature of a letter not being matter coming within the definition of such packet or being otherwise expressly allowed.

6. No circular which is reproduced from or produced after the fashion or in imitation of a type-written document may be sent as a book packet unless—

- (a) such circular is posted by being handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office;*
 - (b) special attention is called to its nature, and
 - (c) at least 20 copies of such circular are posted at the same time.

7. (1) No paper money may be posted or conveyed or delivered by post in a book packet.

(2) This rule does not apply to a book packet containing a stamped proxy paper, or a book packet containing a stamped and addressed post card, wrapper, or envelope forwarded by the sender of the packet in order that such card, wrapper or envelope may be returned through the post to such sender, or some person designated by him.

If any of the rules relating to a book packet be infringed, the book packet will be treated as a letter

Post Cards.—Official and Private.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, and official Reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them, can be bought at every Post Office.

2. Nothing whatever may be attached, except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below $3\frac{1}{4}$ by $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Stamps in payment of postage must be affixed to the face of the card (i.e., to the side which bears the address). If any of these rules be infringed, the card is treated as a letter liable on delivery to the usual charges.

3. Private Cards prepaid $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each and private Reply Cards with a halfpenny stamp on each half can also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the Official Post Card. They may not exceed $5\frac{1}{2}$ by $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches in size, or be less than $3\frac{1}{4}$ by $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Neither half of a Private Reply Card may exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum size above stated. The rules in the preceding paragraph also apply to Private Post Cards. A Private Post Card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

4. It will be seen from the foregoing rules that there is no legal way of sending a written letter through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a Post Card. A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened letters may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the minimum postage upon all written letters (which are not written on Post Cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

Delivery.—Parcels for the city (including Crosshill, Hillhead, Parkhead, Partick, Pollokshields, and Springburn) are delivered at 7.45 a.m., 9.0 a.m. (Central Districts only), 10.15 a.m., 12.30 p.m., 3.0 p.m., 5.5 p.m. (suspended on Saturdays), and 7.30 p.m.

Posting.—Parcels must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be taken into a Post Office and handed over the counter, otherwise they are treated as posted out of course and charged accordingly. Care must be taken that every parcel bears a clear address, and is distinctly addressed to a Post Town. It is the sender's duty to affix the stamps necessary for the postage.

Under certain conditions the postage on parcels posted in large numbers may be paid for in money.

Compensation for Loss and Damage of Parcels.—The Postmaster-General is not legally liable to make good any claim arising out of the conveyance of a parcel sent by post, but he will accept liability under certain conditions.

If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage, if posted under the conditions laid down in the rules of the department.

If the parcel is registered the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—For a fee of 2d., £5; 3d., £10; 4d., £20; 5d., £30; 6d., £40; 7d., £50; 8d., £60; 9d., £70; 10d., £80; 11d., £90; 1s., £100; 1s. 1d., £110; 1s. 2d., £120.

In no case will a larger amount of compensation than £120 be paid, nor will it in any case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a parcel containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid, or any article of an exceptionally fragile character.

A receipt, or certificate of posting, will be given for all registered parcels; but to secure compensation for the loss or damage of a parcel which it is not intended to register, the sender should fill in a certificate of posting, which may be obtained at any Post Office, and present it with the parcel, to an officer of the Post Office, who will sign, date, stamp, and return it.

*Such circulars are also accepted provisionally at Town Sub-Offices, and at certain of the more important rural Sub-Offices, subject to their being found to be in order when examined at the Head or District Office, to which they will be sent.

Claims for compensation should be made within seven days after the date of posting.

Parcels addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the adjacent inhabited islets) are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for all other portions of the United Kingdom; but as the Channel Islands, in relation to the customs laws of the United Kingdom, are subject to the same restrictions as foreign countries, such parcels are liable to customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender is required to make a declaration of contents upon a special form provided for the purpose at the office where the parcel may be posted.

Parcels for the Isle of Man are treated in all respects in the same way as parcels for places in the United Kingdom generally. They are, however, liable to examination by the officers of customs; but the sender is not (as in the case of the Channel Islands) called upon to furnish a declaration of contents.

Re-direction.—Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to an additional charge at the full rate of postage originally payable for every re-direction, unless the original and the corrected address are in a delivery from the same Post Office. In such cases no additional charge is made for re-direction. Parcels, like other postal packets, can only be re-directed by the Department upon receipt of an authority duly signed by the person to whom they are addressed.

A request for the re-direction of letters does not include the re-direction of parcels, for which it is necessary to hand in a separate instruction.

Returned Parcels.—In order to facilitate the return of parcels which cannot be delivered, it is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

The prohibitions against the sending by post of anything indecent, or explosive, or of any living creature, or of any enclosure bearing an address different from that borne on the cover in which it is enclosed, are the same in the case of parcels as in the case of letters and other postal packets. Liquids, glass, china, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, &c., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. The edges or points of sharp instruments like axes, razors, needles, forks, &c., must be carefully protected. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked "Eggs," or "Fragile—with care," or "Perishable." Generally, the packing of a parcel must be such as to protect the parcel itself from damage and other postal packets from being damaged in any way by it. Any parcel not so packed will, if tendered for transmission, be refused, and if discovered in transit, will be detained.

EXCEPTIONAL RATES OF POSTAGE.

(1) Petitions and addresses forwarded to the King are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House of Parliament so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, if in covers, are in open covers.

(2) Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, in open covers, having the words "Parliamentary Proceedings" written or printed thereon, are subject to no limits of size and weight; and are liable only to a rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every 2 ozs., whether prepaid or not.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, &c.

Modes of prepayment.

The prepayment of inland letters, newspapers book packets, and parcels can only be effected by means of postage stamps—except that at the Chief Office, Glasgow, inland letters, book packets, and parcels may be prepaid in money, provided the amount paid be not less than £1. The letters and book packets must be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction. The prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly with stamps. The hours during which paid matter can be accepted are from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Registration.

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book-packet passing through the post between any two places in the United Kingdom is twopence.

No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless it be addressed to the care of a person or firm.

Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover, securely fastened.

Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and it should on no account be dropped into a letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, an article marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter box it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a charge of 4d. (less any amount prepaid for registration) instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.

At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered articles on payment of the ordinary fee is shown on the notice exhibited in the Post Office window. Usually this time is fixed at half an hour before the closing of the Letter Box; but at the Head Office articles bearing a late fee of fourpence, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, may be registered until the letter-box is closed.

When several letters are sent by the same person for registration they should be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer.

The loss of a registered article (as it can be traced through its whole course) is a rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if registered, as the machinery of the Department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk.

Consequently inland postal packets which contain coin, watches, or jewellery, and also all inland postal packets, on the cover of which the word "Registered," or any other word, phrase, or mark to the like effect is written or impressed, if posted without registration are subjected to compulsory registration, and are charged on delivery with a fee of fourpence in addition to the ordinary postage. Letters and parcels containing postal orders in which the name of the payee has not been inserted, uncrossed cheques, and dividend warrants, bank notes, and postage stamps to the value of more than a shilling, will, when found open in the post, or when opened in the Returned Letter Branch, be subject to Registration, and be chargeable with a registration fee of 2d. Like treatment is applied to parcels containing articles (other than coin, watches, and jewellery) of considerable value, and to letters containing any article of a value exceeding one shilling. If they cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they are posted such packets are detained for the next despatch.

By law the Postmaster General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered articles, but subject to certain rules, which may be ascertained at any Post Office, he will (voluntarily and as an act of grace) give compensation for the loss and damage of Inland registered letters and other registered postal packets. The amount of compensation varies according to the fee paid, but in no case can it exceed £120.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen will take postal packets for registration on their outward and inward walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

Re-direction.

Letters, post cards, book packets, or newspapers are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that the postal packet is reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that it does not appear to have been opened or tampered with.

Re-directed postal packets which are reposted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the p paid rate. Any which appear to have been opened or tampered with will be chargeable as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

Registered letters or packets, on being re-directed, may not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. No additional postage or registration fee will be charged upon them if they are presented for re-registration not later than the day after delivery; but if they are presented after that time they will be treated as freshly posted, and fresh postage and registration fees will be payable in respect of them.

If any registered letter or packet when re-directed, instead of being given back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into a letter box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to surcharge on delivery.

Notices of removal, and applications for letters to be re-directed should, in all cases, be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. Printed forms of notice can be obtained at the Head Office on application. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, book packets, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. Letters, &c., cannot be re-directed for a longer period than three years after the change of address.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters for a person temporarily leaving his home, and not having a private bag or box, unless the house be left uninhabited. Nor does the Department, as a rule, re-direct letters, &c., addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings.

Collection.

Arrangements are made for the collection by postmen of ordinary letters, &c. (not registered letters or articles intended for transmission by parcel post) from private letter boxes of approved pattern at hotels, business premises, offices, &c.

The charge for this accommodation is as follows:—
For one collection daily from a box on the ground floor, £3 a year.

For each daily collection above one an additional £1 a year.

For boxes above or below the ground floor an additional £1 a year in respect of every floor the collector has to ascend or descend to make the collections.

Pursuant to the terms of section 19 of the Post Office (Protection) Act, 1884, the following notice will be affixed to these boxes, viz:—

"This is a PRIVATE POSTING BOX. Letters and Packets posted in it will be treated in all respects as Post Letters, but proof of such posting will not be accepted in legal proceedings as evidence of receipt by the addressee. By order of the Postmaster-General."

Applications in regard to the collections from private posting boxes should be made to the Postmaster.

Delivery.

1. To facilitate the delivery of Letters, a Letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

2. Postmen are prohibited, whether on duty or not, from distributing any letters, newspapers, parcels, &c., except such as have passed through the Post.

3. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can have his letters, &c., or parcels delivered at the office if a delivery by postman or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters, &c., or parcels which arrive by a mail after which there is no immediate delivery by postman, may be obtained by any person on application at the office, so long as the office is open for delivery; and by paying a fee of 5s. a year any person, even although he does not rent a private box, may obtain at the Post Office registered letters addressed to him, which in the ordinary course would fall into the first delivery, and also those which would fall into the second delivery when that delivery follows immediately upon the first.

4. When letters, &c, or parcels, directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within an official delivery, but who have no private box at a Post Office, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, a Postmaster may refuse to deliver them at the office, and may send them out by the postmen, except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

5. It is the rule to deliver all letters, &c., as addressed, but by payment of a fee of £1 1s. a year Firms or persons can have letters addressed to their offices delivered at their private address, and vice versa, provided that both addresses are served from the same delivery office.

6. No person can have a private box unless he is willing to pay the appointed fee. The fee is at the rate of £3 per annum, payable in advance. Special arrangements are made for locked bags to and from the renters of private boxes and the Post Office.

A RETURNED LETTER OFFICE

Is established in Glasgow, and all undeliverable letters, &c., addressed to Glasgow, its sub-offices, and certain other Head Offices in the West of Scotland are disposed of there.

On reaching the Returned Letter Office a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once opened, and if found to contain the writer's address is returned to him. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an article of value the letter is finally destroyed. Any letter or packet which on being opened is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered and, unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. or 4d., according to value, is charged to the sender. Letters bearing the sender's name and address impressed or printed on the envelopes are returned unopened.

After being retained for periods varying from one week to one month, foreign and colonial letters are, with few exceptions, returned unopened to the countries from which they were received.

The following regulations govern the disposal of undelivered post cards, newspapers, book packets, (including circulars) under 2 oz. in weight:—(1) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside the sender's name and address, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, the packets will be sent back to the sender direct from the office of delivery, and will be delivered on payment of a second postage. (2) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside no request for their return in case of non-delivery, they will be disposed of at the Head Office of delivery, unless the contents appear to be of considerable importance or of value, in which case the packets will be offered to the sender (if known), and delivered to him on payment of a second postage. These regulations do not apply to letter packets, which are in every case, where practicable, returned free to the senders.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF MESSAGES, LETTERS, AND PARCELS.

Messages, letters, and parcels are delivered under the following services, by special messenger, from the undermentioned offices in the Glasgow district:—

Chief Office—George Square; Branch Offices at Anderston, Bridgeton, Candleriggs, Charing Cross, Crosshill, Duke Street, Eglinton Street, Fish Market, Stock Exchange, Govan, Hillhead, Hope Street, Waterloo Street, Kingston, Maryhill, Partick, St. Enoch Square, Sandyford; Town Sub-Offices at Crossmyloof, Crown Street, Garscube Cross, St. Rollox, Ibrox, Springburn, Jordanhill, Mount Florida, Whiteinch, Nithsdale Road, Parkhead, Polmadie, Port-Dundas, Possilpark, Pollokshields; and at all Sub-Offices at which telegraph business is transacted.

Local Service.—Under this Service any Postal Packet (letters, parcels, &c., except articles of a dangerous or offensive nature), will be conveyed the entire distance by Express Messenger. The fees for the express conveyance and delivery of a packet are as follows:—For any article not exceeding 20 lb. in weight, for every mile or part of a mile, 3d. When the packet or packets to be delivered exceed 20 lb. in weight (or 15 lb. if a public conveyance, such as an omnibus, tramcar, or train, &c, be not available), the actual cost of a cab or other special conveyance must continue to be paid, in addition to the express fee of 3d. a mile. For further particulars apply at any of the offices mentioned.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in Advance of the Ordinary Deliveries, at the Request of Addressee.—Persons or firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, book packets, newspapers, and circulars), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz.:—The full express fee of 3d a mile as for one packet, and 1d. for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person to whom, or firm to which, the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters or parcels are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Post Offices.

Supplementary Service—Express after First Stage.—Express Packets may be handed in at any Post Office in Glasgow, but as those posted at Town Sub-Offices which are not Express Delivery Offices, take the ordinary course of post from the office at which they are handed in until they reach the Head Office, there may be some delay before the packet reaches the hands of the Express Messenger, and the sender of a packet intended for local delivery is recommended, where there is an Express Delivery Office within easy reach, to take his packet to that office.

Reply or Further Service.—On the delivery of an Express Packet, the delivering messenger may take a reply or perform a further Express Delivery Service within the authorised hours. The Express Fee must be prepaid either by the sender of the first service or by the sender of the reply or further service. The messenger is allowed to wait for the reply ten minutes free of charge, but after that time 2d. is charged for every $\frac{1}{4}$ hour or part of $\frac{1}{4}$ hour during which he is required to wait. When a packet or a reply or further service is taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route, or to an address within a radius of half a mile of the Post Office from which the messenger started on the original service, half only of the mileage rate is charged. If more than one packet be sent on a reply or further service, and the charges are prepaid by the sender of the original service, a fixed charge of 1d. is made for each article beyond one.

Acceptance of Express Packets by Telegraph Messenger.—A Telegraph Messenger, on delivering a telegram, may, if desired, take back to the Post Office where he is employed a Postal Packet for Express Delivery. The charges must be prepaid by the sender. The Express fee for such service will be charged as from the residence of the sender and not from the Office where the Messenger is employed.

Hours of Business.—Head Post Office, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Branch Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sub-Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. No business is transacted on Sundays, Good Friday, or Christmas Day.

Express Delivery after Transmission by Ordinary Post.—Letters intended for Express Delivery from the Post Office of destination only can be posted like ordinary letters, but they must be clearly marked "Express Delivery," and have a thick perpendicular line drawn on each side of the envelope. The Express Fee, in addition to the full ordinary postage, is at the rate of 3d. per mile from the office of delivery; the fee is in no case less than 3d., and this and the postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps affixed to the letter or parcel. If a special conveyance be used or if the distance exceeds 3 miles and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost must be paid in addition to the express fee and postage. When the distance exceeds 2 miles, at least one-half of the amount payable in respect of Fee and Charge for special conveyance must be prepaid, and the deficiency (if any) will be demanded from the Addressee; if this be not done, the letter cannot be delivered by Special Messenger, but will be treated as an Ordinary Mail Letter. Hours of Delivery.—Head Post Office, 4.30 a.m. to 12 midnight on week days. To callers, 6 a.m. to 11.45 p.m. Sunday, 6 a.m. to 9 a.m., 4.45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Express Services Obtainable by Telephone or Private Wire.—Subscribers to the Telephone Exchanges of the Post Office or its Licensees, and Renters of private wires terminating at a Post Office, can use their wires for the purpose of summoning a Messenger for the Express Delivery of Letters or Parcels. The fees for such express service are charged to deposit account, and are calculated on the whole distance traversed by the Messenger from the Office from which he is summoned to the place of call and thence to the place of delivery.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTERS BY RAILWAY.

Railway letters, not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, for transmission by ordinary train or steamship, may be handed in at any Post Office at which the Express Service is in operation, for immediate conveyance to the Railway Stations by Special Messenger on payment of the Express Fee of 3d. a mile, which may be prepaid in stamps affixed to a Post Office form. The train by which the letter is to be transmitted must be specified by the sender.

Such letters, after transmission by train, can, on reaching the Office of Delivery in the ordinary course of post, be sent at once to destination by Special Messenger, or, if desired, they can be delivered by Special Messenger either from the first Express Office which they reach or direct from the Station. In the latter case the sender must telegraph to the Postmaster of the nearest Postal Telegraph Office to the Station of Address requesting him to send a Special Messenger to meet the train. The sender is responsible for the time of arrival of the train being correctly stated in the telegram, which must be written by him. The letter must in all cases be marked "Express Delivery" and with a perpendicular line, both on front and back. If it is to be delivered from the first Express Office which it reaches after being posted at the station, it must be marked "Express Delivery from the first Express Office," and, if direct from the station, with the words "Express Delivery. To be handed to Post Office Express Messenger at Station." The postage, the Express Fee, and any charge for special conveyance, except that for conveyance by Railway as a single Post Letter, must be prepaid on the letter in stamps by the sender.

In all cases the Railway Company's fee of 2d. must be prepaid in money.

INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS SERVICE.

The Express Service is in force also between this country and certain foreign countries. For particulars apply at any Post Office.

At Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, sub-postmasters are required to keep $\frac{1}{2}$ d. and 1d. stamps, post cards, and registered letter envelopes only; but they are bound, on application, to procure postage stamps of other values, embossed postage envelopes, and newspaper wrappers.

Inland Bill Stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d., and 1s., are for sale at the Chief Office, Branches, &c.

Dog, Gun, and private Brewers' Licenses are issued at all Money Order Offices.

Licenses for Gamekeepers, Game, Carriage and Civil Service Fee Stamps, Patent, Design, and Trade Mark Stamps and Forms, can be obtained at the Head Office.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps and registered letter envelopes, or (if he have no stamps in his possession) he must receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office affix stamps carefully to the letters. This privilege does not extend to town postmen.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps, or of embossed or impressed stamps cut out from the envelopes, cards, wrappers, or telegraph message forms (even although the stamps have not been before used).

Applications for allowance on spoilt or unused postage stamps, embossed envelopes, post cards, or newspaper wrappers, which have not passed through the post, should be made to the Distributor of Stamps, Inland Revenue. Such applications, however, can only be entertained if the stamps or other articles have been spoilt or become useless within the period of two years preceding the date of application. In all cases the applications must be accompanied by the articles on which stamps have either been affixed or impressed intact, as no allowance can be granted on stamps if cut therefrom.

Postage Stamps purchased from the Public.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the payments are as follows:—

	The full price minus
For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value,	$\frac{1}{2}$ d.
Above 1s. 8d., and not exceeding 3s. 4d.,	1d.
“ 3s. 4d., “ “ 5s. -	$1\frac{1}{2}$ d.
“ 5s., “ “ 6s. 8d.,	2d.
“ 6s. 8d., “ “ 8s. 4d.,	$2\frac{1}{2}$ d.

and so on.

To prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, single stamps cannot be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips of not less than two.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended that the initials of firms, &c., be perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, and Postmasters have been instructed not to purchase such stamps. The perforation of the stamps on post cards, newspaper wrappers, and embossed envelopes with initials is also not objected to.

Paper and cardboard taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be ascertained on application at that office.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book or card, or any article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character can be sent by post, nor can any explosive, dangerous, noxious, or deleterious substance, nor any filth, nor any sharp instrument not properly protected, nor any living creature (except live bees, in suitable closed cases), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the mails or any officer of the Post Office. Eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., may not be sent except by Parcel Post, and if so sent must be packed with special care.

2. No postal packet may contain another packet, whether of the same or of a different description, addressed to a different person at a different address, unless a separate postage is paid for each packet.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Post Office is not liable, by law, for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter, book, or other postal packet; but liability for actual loss or damage is accepted on certain conditions in the case of parcels and registered packets.

2. Postal packets which are likely to suffer from great pressure should be placed in strong covers.

3. No information can be given respecting letters or any other postal packets except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

4. Provision having been made, by means of the Post Office Guide and the Glasgow Local Guide, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to the officers of the department. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Department does not hold itself responsible.

5. Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination, according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets except parcels for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

8. If any postal packet be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster, with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the postal packet, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words “posted at _____, under cover to the Postmaster of _____.”

9. Every address should be legible and complete, and the last word in it should be the name of the Post Town, except when the Post Town is but little known, or when there are two Post Towns of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with or very like the name of some foreign town or country. In such cases the name of the County should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Newport in Monmouthshire should be—

"Newport, Monmouthshire."

Any writing or printing on the address side of a postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, is likely to embarrass the officers dealing with the packet, will be liable to be withheld from delivery.

10. When a letter is sent to a place where there is only a Sub-Office, the name of the Head Office should be given, unless the office is a Railway Sub-Office, in which case the name of the County should be added. Abbreviated addresses registered for telegrams cannot be used for letters.

COMPRISED IN THE POSTAL UNION.

The transmission by letter post of coin, gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, &c., is prohibited in those countries marked thus (*). Uncut diamonds may, however, be sent by post to Canada and the United States.

11. In the case of letters or other postal packets for places abroad, the name of the country as well as the town should be given in full, and should be the last word in the address.

12. Letters for well-known firms and persons in Glasgow are sometimes addressed "Glasgow" only; but this practice often causes delay in their delivery. Letters for strangers or for persons whose address is not known at the Chief Office, simply addressed "Glasgow" (and not "Post Office," or "Poste Restante, Glasgow,") are not delivered from the Poste Restante, but are sent to the Returned Letter Office.

13. A letter addressed to a Post Office to be called for is retained one month; and if not called for by the end of that time, it is sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal. But if the letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

14. Letters or other postal packets addressed to initials or to fictitious names at Post Offices are not retained, but are at once sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal.

15. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if undelivered.

16. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house-door.

17. Circulars, before being posted, should be tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction. Correspondence posted early in the day not only obtains in many cases the advantage of an earlier delivery, but frequently avoids the risk of delay from irregularity in the working of the trains.

18. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to the Post Office to be weighed, and if then it does not turn the scale, it should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged; though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a packet weighs more than when it is delivered; and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge.

19. When complaint is made of a letter or other postal packet being lost, missent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter, &c., was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps.

20. Neither money nor any other article of considerable value ought to be sent through the post, except by means of a money or postal order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes.

21. Whenever Bank Notes are sent by post, even in registered letters, they should be cut in halves, and the second halves should not be posted till it has been ascertained that the first halves have been received; and further, in order to afford the means of identification, a memorandum should always be made of the number of each bank note.

22. As a general rule late letters,* &c., are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mail; although no office is kept open merely for this purpose after 10 o'clock at night. Such letters, when posted at the General Post Office, should be handed over the public counter, and not put into the letter box.

23. No late letters, &c. (except Government letters) are forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that by stamps, including both the ordinary postage and the late letter fee.

24. Letter boxes for the receipt of late letters bearing the extra stamp of $\frac{3}{4}$ d. are affixed to all Mail trains in which travelling post offices or sorting carriages are run.

25. Sunday.—During the time the head office, Glasgow, is open on Sunday the public are allowed to purchase postage stamps and to have letters registered (viz.) from eight to nine in the morning; but no Money Order, Savings Bank, Insurance, Annuity, Postal Order, or Parcel Post business is transacted on Sunday. (The Telegraph office, however, is always open.)

26. At no provincial town in England or Ireland is there more than one delivery on Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday; nor in Scotland on Sunday or the Spring and Autumn holidays.

Penalties for sending Letters otherwise than through the Post.

27. Any person conveying otherwise than by the Post a letter (which by law includes a packet) not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General, or who performs, otherwise than by post, any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, or by taking up, or by collecting, or by ordering, or by despatching, or by carrying or recarrying, or by delivering a letter not exempted from such privilege incurs, by law, a penalty of £5 for every letter, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. A person sending, or causing to be sent otherwise than by post, a letter not exempted from such privilege, is also liable to similar penalties.

28. Exceptions.—The following letters are exempt from the Postmaster General's exclusive privilege:—

1st. Letters sent by a private friend to be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed.

2nd. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof; commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a court of justice.

3rd. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet boat).

4th. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or of the cargo or loading therein, sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving hire or reward, advantage or profit for the same in anywise.

* "Late Letters" are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

5th. Letters concerning goods or merchandise sent by common known carriers, to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without hire or other advantage for receiving or delivering such letters.

29. No person, however, is authorized to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner above described.

30. The following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or collect or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive hire or reward for the same:—

1st. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage coaches.

2nd. Owners, masters, or commanders of ships, vessels, steam-boats, or boats called or being passage or packet boats, sailing or passing coastwise, or otherwise between places within Great Britain or Ireland, or between, to, or from ports within His Majesty's dominions or territories out of the United Kingdom, or their servants or agents, except in respect of letters of merchants, owners of ships, or goods on board.

3rd. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam-boats, passage or packet boat.

4th. The owners of or sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other His Majesty's dominions.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL MAILS.

Foreign and Colonial Letters.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all foreign countries and some British Possessions is 2½d per half ounce, but there are many British Possessions (see page 13) to which the letter rate is 1d. per half ounce.

Letters posted unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, for any country to which prepayment is compulsory, are sent to the Returned Letter Office. Letters so posted for other countries are forwarded, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency.

Unpaid letters from British Possessions to which penny postage applies are charged 2d. per half ounce, and partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. per half ounce. Unpaid letters from all other places are charged 5d. per half ounce, and partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per half ounce.

Routes.—Letters not specially directed to go by a particular route are forwarded by the first mail despatched.

No letter for a Colony or Foreign Country may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town, and of the province in which it is situated, should also be added in English, French, or German.

Foreign and Colonial Book and Newspaper Post.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

1st. Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (written on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and pupils' exercises with corrections, but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

2nd. Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing, engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, lithographed, or autographed and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press and the typewriter, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter. On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials such as "p.p.c." may be written, and also good wishes, congratulations, thanks, condolences, or other formulas of courtesy expressed in not more than five words; and on printed circulars, manuscript corrections, and insertions may be made as to names of commercial travellers, dates of their journey, and the place, date, and object of meetings. Printers proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, &c. Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed. Stamps for prepayment, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries of the Postal Union.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that the minimum charge for a packet of commercial papers, however small the weight, is 2½d. in every case. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet the whole packet is treated as commercial papers. If not fully prepaid double the deficiency will be charged on delivery. Unpaid packets will be stopped.

Blank paper, note paper, or envelopes (with or without printed address), and all other articles of stationery, pure and simple, are inadmissible at the rate applicable to printed papers.

Commercial papers and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, the packets may be tied at the ends with string, but the string must be easy to unfasten.

Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the typewriter, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from type-written originals, will be admitted to the privilege of the book rate, provided that they are posted by being handed in at the counter of some Head Post Office or District or Branch Post Office, that special attention is called to their nature, and that at least twenty copies are posted at the same time.

Dimensions.—The limits of size for packets addressed to British Colonies or Possessions or to non-Union countries or colonies are 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth; but to foreign countries in the Postal Union the length is limited to 18 inches. If in the form of a roll the limits of size in either case are 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter. The limits of weight are 5 lb. for British Colonies or Possessions, and for non-Union countries or colonies; and 4 lb. for foreign countries in the Postal Union.

Rates of Postage.—The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, on packets to places abroad, are given at page 13.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value. The undermentioned articles are still exempt from Customs duties:—1st. Newspapers and periodicals already exempt from duty; 2nd. Photographs and printed papers, other than books, received in the United States in such small quantities as to suggest that they are intended for personal use and not for sale; 3rd. Books, engravings, photographs, etchings, maps, charts, and music which have been printed more than 20 years, publications printed for private circulation, or issued for subscribers, or exchanges by scientific and literary associations or academies, books and music in raised point for the use of the blind, and works printed exclusively in any other than the English language.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Colombia are liable to Customs duties unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books for Uruguay, whether bound or sewn, are liable to Customs duties, except when the whole value of those sent to any one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4). All books for Venezuela are prohibited save unbound books relating to science, arts, or crafts.

Bound books sent to Portugal or Portuguese colonies by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrappers should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and also the words—"A soumettre à la douane." Unless these conditions are complied with the books will be liable, on delivery, to a fine in addition to the duty.

Although books sent to Italy, whether bound or unbound, are in strictness liable to Customs duties, they are admitted by book post provided they are not sent in considerable numbers to any one person.

In Belgium books, newspapers, periodicals, maps, charts, printed music, prints, and artistic engravings and lithographs are allowed to be imported by post; but other printed papers are subject to Customs duty and their transmission by post is prohibited, unless they are sent singly or in small quantities, as specimens.

In Canada advertising pamphlets, circulars, and catalogues are liable to customs duty. In Victoria these articles, as well as diaries and cut paper patterns, are also dutiable; and they can only be sent thither by Parcel Post.

In Queensland, advertising matter other than catalogues and prices current is liable to Customs duty.

In Spain all books, printed or manuscript music, chromo-lithographs, engravings of all kinds, and industrial products (if bonâ fide samples) received by post are liable to the ordinary Customs duties only.

In India works of art (including photographs), ruled and printed forms, account and manuscript books, labels, advertising circulars, sheet or card almanacks and calendars, Christmas, Easter, and other cards, and toy books, are liable to Customs duties, unless sent in small quantities by private individuals for private use; any such articles considered by the Indian Post Office to be merchandise will be delivered only on payment of Customs charges.

A Customs duty of 8 per cent. ad valorem is charged on the delivery in Egypt of all packets of books containing more than a single copy (in one or more volumes) of the same work, and the same duty is levied even on single copies when these are addressed to anyone in the book trade.

Foreign and Colonial Pattern and Sample Post.

1. The Sample Post to foreign countries and the colonies generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise without saleable value. Packets containing goods for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, cannot be forwarded by Pattern Post.

2. No article liable to custom duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

3. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, will be found at page 13.

4. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination.* But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

5. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any sample packet for non-Union countries, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, the price of the articles, the weight or size, and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A sample packet for a country in the Postal Union may contain, besides these particulars, any Printed Papers; and, if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid, it may also contain Commercial Papers.

6. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Explosives of all kinds are absolutely prohibited.

* In order to secure the return of Pattern Packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From _____ of _____."

Under conditions specified in the Post Office Guide, glass, grease, liquids, and colouring powders may now be sent to certain foreign countries and colonies by sample post.

7. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars, see page 13.

8. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place comprised in the Postal Union must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth. If, however, the packet be in the form of a roll the limit of size will be 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter. The size of a packet for a non-Union country or colony is limited to 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

Foreign Post Cards.

Official Post Cards, Single and Reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d., and Reply Cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

Engravings or advertisements, provided they do not interfere in any way with the clear indication of the address or with the stamping or marking of the Postal Service, may appear on the front of a Post Card in addition to the stamps required for postage, postal directions (such as "Registered," "Acknowledgment of Delivery," &c.), the name and address of the recipient in writing or on a gummed label not exceeding in size 2 inches by $\frac{3}{4}$ inch, and the name and address of the sender indicated in writing, or by means of a hand stamp, stamping machine, or any typographical process. Nothing whatever may be attached to a Post Card except adhesive postage stamps, or an address label as described above.

A Post Card must not be folded, cut, or otherwise altered.

Post Cards not in accordance with the regulations as to indications, size, &c., are treated as insufficiently paid letters.

The sender of a Post Card with reply paid may indicate his name and address on the address side of the reply half.

The reply halves of double Post Cards, whether official or private, are available only when they have been received attached to the corresponding halves for transmission to the country of origin, and to that country alone. If addressed to other countries they are treated as unpaid Post Cards. Ordinary international Post Cards of one country posted in another are treated as unpaid Post Cards.

Private Post Cards.

Private Post Cards bearing on the address side adhesive stamps of the value of one penny, and private reply cards with adhesive stamps on the address side of the value of one penny on each half, may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided that they are in conformity with the official post cards. They must be of the same size and substance as the official cards, and must have the words "Post Card" printed or written on the address side.

The reply halves of private double cards must bear the words "Post Card—Great Britain and Ireland" and "Reply."

Plain Cards without any inscription cannot be sent abroad as Single or Reply Post Cards.

Unpaid Post Cards from places abroad are charged 2d. each.

Partially paid cards are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d.

Letters for Non-Commissioned Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen in Her Majesty's Service.

1. Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in His Majesty's Navy, whether serving on sea or land, at home or abroad, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters not exceeding the weight of half an ounce for a postage of 1d., on condition that the name of the seaman or soldier, with his class or description, appears in the direction, and that the ship or regiment, corps or detachment to which the seaman or soldier belongs is specified, the name of the ship or the regiment being stated in full. It is further necessary, in the case of letters sent by a soldier or seaman under these conditions, that the covers should bear the signature of the officer having the command.

Specimens of the form of address are given below:—

From A.B., Sergeant, &c.——Regt.———

(Here the direction of the Letter to be inserted)

C.D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer), Regt.———

To A.B.,

Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, &c.)——Regt.——
(Here the direction to be finished.)

2. If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by a private ship must be addressed "By Private Ship," and if by a particular vessel the name of the ship must be added. The postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a private ship are the same as by mail packet.

Registration.

1. The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad will be found in the column headed "Registration fee" in the Table of Foreign and Colonial postage at page 13. To some countries, as shown in that Table, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival; it being left, in those cases, to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. To a few countries, as also shown in the Table, there is no arrangement whatever for registration.

2. Registration is applicable equally to letters, post-cards, newspapers, book-packets, and patterns addressed to places abroad, except in the cases specially mentioned at page 13.

3. The sender of a registered article addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on paying a fee of 2½d., as well as the registration fee, in advance. He can also obtain an acknowledgment if he applies after posting and pays 2½d. The name and address of the sender must in this case be left at the post office at which the article is registered. For enquiries as to the delivery of registered articles a fee of 2½d. must be paid, unless it can be shown that there is reason to suppose the article has been lost.

4. No article addressed to initials or in pencil is admitted to registration.

5. Every letter presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong envelope, securely fastened.

6. It is prohibited to send to a country of the Postal Union any registered article marked on the outside with the declared value of the contents, unless it is insured; and Postmasters are instructed to refuse to receive articles which are so marked.

7. Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee.

8. Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it; and it should on no account be dropped into a letter box.

9. As it is prohibited to send coin, jewellery, or precious articles through the post to those countries of the Postal Union, the names of which are marked with an asterisk at page 19, no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing any such articles can be accepted for registration.

10. Letters or packets containing coin for any of the British Colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if they are posted without being registered, they are treated in the same manner as inland letters under similar circumstances.

11. Several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of any enclosure in a registered letter, provided the registered letter itself be delivered, or for the damage to anything enclosed in such a letter, or for any expense arising directly or indirectly from delay in transit.

Prohibited articles besides those mentioned at page 12.—The transmission by letter post of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, &c., is prohibited to all countries of the Postal Union marked thus * at page 19.

In Luxemburg the registration of such packets is compulsory, and everything of value, except coin or bullion, is liable to duty.

In the undermentioned Colonies, viz.:—Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Labuan, Lagos, Malta, Montserrat, Newfoundland, St. Vincent, Sierra Leone, and Straits Settlements, articles of value are transmissible, and, with the exception of jewellery addressed to Ceylon, Newfoundland, and St. Vincent, are exempt from customs duty. Their transmission is also permitted in Bermuda and Cyprus; but they are liable to customs duty, with the exception of bullion, coin, and diamonds in Bermuda; gold, bullion, and specie in Cyprus; gold, silver, and diamonds in Grenada.

In France engravings, prints, drawings, and chromolithographs are liable to Customs duty, and cannot be sent by post to that country in quantities sufficiently large to have a saleable value, but small quantities can be sent as bonâ fide specimens.

In the Dutch East Indies articles of value are admissible, except wrought gold and silver, but the packets containing them must be registered.

Special prohibitions in Bulgaria, Cape of Good Hope, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Norway, Queensland, Servia, Transvaal, and United States of America.—Anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In New Zealand.—Cuttings of grape vines.

In Roumania.—Bound books.

In the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, New Zealand, and Queensland.—Jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain.—The transmission by letter post of all dutiable articles is prohibited, and any such articles sent contrary to this prohibition are liable to a fine of from five to ten times the duty.

In Victoria.—Tobacco and cuttings of grape vines, also jewellery, which is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

Russia.—Printed matter in the Russian language is prohibited; and even such trifling articles as photographs and Christmas cards are liable to duty, though a single photograph may be sent to Russia by post. All letters or packets containing prohibited or dutiable articles of any kind, however small the value, are confiscated in that country.

In Belgium.—Bronze, copper, and nickel coins.

In Bermuda.—Jewellery being dutiable.

In Ceylon.—Current coin and jewellery.

In Grenada.—Current coin and articles liable to Customs duty.

In Italy.—Growing plants.

In Liberia.—Gold and silver articles.

New South Wales.—Opium and tobacco.

Transvaal.—Gold, silver, jewellery, &c. are liable to customs duty.

In Western Australia.—Coin.

Letters for Passengers on Board Mail Packets.

1. Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the packets for the United States calling at Queenstown, the Canadian packets calling at Londonderry, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, connecting at Port-Said with the packet for India, Australia, China, &c., and the Orient packets from Naples with mails for Australia. Such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received, but they must be registered, the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. —, on board the mail packet —, for —, at Queenstown, Lisbon, Brindisi, or Naples, care of the Commander of the packet."

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free redirection, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, postcards, newspapers, book packets, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are redirected to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards redirected to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and redirected to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad, and redirected under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for redirection unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently redirected, though not chargeable for redirection, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

2. Letters re-directed after delivery at the first address, must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery; otherwise they will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets, and the same course will be followed in the case of any letters, &c., which may appear to have been opened. Whenever thought necessary a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

3. All parcels sent by parcel post are chargeable with fresh postage if redirected.

4. All registered letters or packets on being redirected must be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, and must not be dropped into a letter box as ordinary letters or packets. If brought later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not counted) after delivery, a fresh registration fee as well as fresh postage will be required.

5. Letters for commissioned or non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy on actual service are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and are not subject to the usual restriction as to time for reposting. The regulations respecting letters for non-commissioned officers and private soldiers and seamen will be found at page 23.

6. Letters, &c., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL PARCEL POST.

Dimensions.—The dimensions allowed are the same as for the Inland Parcel Post, with certain few exceptions.

Weight.—Parcels are limited to 11 lbs. in weight, except in the case of one or two countries, where the limit is 7 lbs. Parcels for Spain and Portugal via France, 6½ lbs.

Customs Declaration.—Parcels are subject to Customs regulations, and the sender of each parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form or forms provided for the purpose, which can be obtained at any post office—an accurate statement of the nature and value of the contents, the date of posting, and other particulars. The net weight of the various articles contained in a parcel should, if possible, be stated, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs duty. Some foreign administrations require more than one copy of the Customs declaration form to be made out, and this can be ascertained at the office of posting. The forms should, when possible, be filled up in both English and French. Parcels for foreign countries must in addition be accompanied by a despatch note, which is supplied at any post office, and must be filled up by the sender.

Customs Duty.—All parcels are liable to be opened for Customs examination, and their contents are subject to Customs duty in the country or colony of destination. Such duty can, however, in certain special cases be prepaid by the sender. In most foreign countries and British colonies the articles which are not subject to Customs duty on importation are comparatively few. The post office can give no information as to the Customs tariff or procedure of particular countries, nor does it accept any responsibility for loss, delay, or charges arising from the Customs regulations to which the contents of parcels are liable. In addition to Customs duty, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, &c., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering Cape Colony, Natal, and the Transvaal. This charge is increased to 1s. 6d. in the case of parcels for Rhodesia and the Orange River Colony. In most European countries a fee not exceeding 2½d. per parcel is levied for delivery and Customs formalities. For extra charges relating to other countries see Post Office Guide.

Letters Enclosed in Parcels.—No letter, even if addressed in the same way as the parcel in which it is enclosed, may be sent in a parcel for any foreign country or for Australia, Cape Colony, and neighbouring parts of South Africa, British Central Africa, Fiji, Jamaica, Mauritius, Natal, New Zealand, Rhodesia (Northern) Seychelles, Straits Settlements, or Trinidad. Parcels for other British Possessions may contain a letter for the addressee; but packets of letters must not be sent by parcel post to any place abroad. An invoice in an open cover simply giving particulars of the goods in the parcel may be enclosed in any parcel. For other prohibited enclosures see Post Office Guide.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—Compensation to an amount not exceeding in some cases 20s. and in other cases 12s. is given for loss or damage of parcels addressed to foreign countries and to certain colonies. For particulars apply at any post office.

Insurance of Foreign Parcels.—Parcels for certain countries and British colonies and dependencies may be insured up to the value of £50, some of which are as follows:—Ascension, Bahamas, Cyprus (except watches or jewellery), Falkland Islands, Gibraltar, Grenada, Lagos, New South Wales, New Zealand, St. Helena, St. Vincent, Sierra Leone, South Australia, Tasmania, Straits Settlements (Malacca, Penang, Province of Wellesley, and Singapore only), Victoria.

Parcels for Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Cameroons, China (certain places only), Denmark, Egypt (via Gibraltar), Germany, Luxemburg, Norway, Russia, Sweden, and Switzerland (via Belgium), may be insured up to the value of £120; those for Holland, Italy (via Belgium), and Montenegro up to £40; and those for Algeria, Azores, Beyrout, Egypt (via France), France, Italy (via France), Madeira, Portugal, Roumania, Servia, Smyrna, Switzerland (via France), and Turkey (Austrian Post Offices) up to £20. The scale of fees and respective limits of compensation are:—

Parcels for the following countries can be insured up to the value of £120:—Aden, Antigua, Barbadoes, Bermuda, British East Africa (Kilindini, Mombasa, and Lamu only), British Guiana, British North Borneo, Ceylon, Dominica, Gambia, Hong Kong, India, Labuan, Mauritius, Montserrat, Nevis, Newfoundland, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, Sarawak, Southern Nigeria, Tobago, Tortola, Trinidad, Zanzibar.

Compulsory Registration.—When an uninsured parcel in course of transit from those countries (foreign or colonial) is discovered to contain coin, watches, jewellery, or any article of gold or silver, it is compulsorily registered, and a fee of 4d. is charged on delivery. Such parcels posted in this country uninsured are, as a rule, returned to the sender.

No legal liability to give compensation in respect of any parcel for which an insurance fee has been paid attaches to the Postmaster General, either personally or in his official capacity. The final decision upon all questions of compensation rests with the Postal Administration of the country in which the loss or damage has taken place. Any other information as to the condition of insurance of foreign parcels may be obtained at the nearest Post Office.

Packing.—More careful and substantial packing is necessary for all foreign and colonial parcels than for inland parcels, owing to the much greater distance over which, as a rule, the former have to be conveyed, the very different conditions of transit, and the influence of climate. This is a consideration which must necessarily be taken into account in dealing with claims for compensation. Further, a parcel for any foreign country must be so sealed by the sender that the parcel cannot be opened without the seals being broken.

Prohibited Articles.—As in the case of the inland parcel post, certain dangerous and perishable articles and contraband articles must not be sent by means of the foreign and colonial parcel post. Liquids may be accepted if securely packed in proper cases.

General.—Where not repugnant to the foregoing rules, the general regulations of the inland parcel post will apply.

In addition to the countries, &c., given on p. 27, parcels may be sent to certain other places (full lists and particulars can be obtained at any post office).

MONEY ORDERS.

1. When applying for Money Orders, whether Inland, Foreign, or Colonial, the public should use the prepared printed “Application Forms,” which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

2. Commission.—The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums not exceeding £1, - - - 2d.
“ exceeding £1 but not exceeding £3, 3d.
“ above £3 and not exceeding £10, 4d.

3. No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

4. Particulars Required.—The applicant must furnish in full the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address. In the case of Foreign Orders the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India the tribe or caste, and the father's name, must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Order to be paid in the United Kingdom may direct, at the time of issue, that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus & Co., and thus be made payable only through a Bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee.

2nd. If the Order is to be made payable to a person by name, the applicant should furnish his Surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name. If the Christian name of the payee be not known, an Order can be issued at the remitter's risk.

3rd. If the Order is to be made payable to a person in his official capacity, the applicant should state his official rank, title, or description.

5. If the Order is to be made payable to a firm or business undertaking or Corporation or Society or Joint Stock Company (or to the Proprietor, Secretary, or Manager thereof), the applicant must furnish the proper designation of such firm or business undertaking, &c.

6. In all cases the remitter's name must be given, and it is desirable that his address should also be given.

7. Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

8. When an Order is presented through a bank, duly crossed with the name of such bank, by a person known to be in its employment, the formalities observed on presentation in the ordinary way will be dispensed with.

9. At the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a deduction of a 6d., is entertained.

10. No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

11. After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

12. Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

13. In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order a duplicate will be granted at a fixed charge of 6d. irrespective of the amount of the order. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a notice must be sent to the office where the order is payable, and a fee of 4d. in postage stamps must be enclosed. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application, accompanied by the payment of a penny, must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application inclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable; who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making application in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant.

14. If, when an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it is properly receipted, and the name of the remitter, as furnished by the applicant, is in agreement with the advice, it will be paid, unless the Postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. In the case of a Money Order payable to any company, corporation, or society, the Money Order must be stamped in the receipt space with the name of the company mentioned in the advice as the payee. In cases where no stamp is used the person presenting the Order must receipt the Money Order by writing the name of the company in the receipt space, and also signing his own name and designating his official position in the company.

15. If the remitter of a Money Order, issued and payable in the United Kingdom, is desirous of delaying payment for any period not exceeding ten days, he must, at the time of the issue of the Order, fill up and sign the request printed at the foot of the Money Order, and inform the Postmaster, in order that a note may be made on the advice for the information of the office of payment. An Order deferred for ten days and issued (say) on the first day of a month would become payable on the 11th.

16. Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £50 are issued, free of charge, in favour of "The Receiver-General of Inland Revenue," when required for the remittance of Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, or Excise License Duties (where the licenses are not obtainable at money order offices), or Legacy and Succession Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

17. Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order from any Money Order Office in the United Kingdom which is also a despatching office for telegrams, and may be made payable at any Money Order Office which is also an office for the delivery of telegrams. At those offices which forward but do not deliver telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued, but cannot be paid.

a. The commission is—	s. d.
For sums not exceeding £3,	0 4
" above £3 and not exceeding £10,	0 6

In addition to the commission, a charge is made at the ordinary inland rate for the official telegram authorising payment at the office of payment, the minimum being 6d. The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the Postmaster of the office of payment and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate, the minimum being 6d.

b. The remitter may, however, if he so desires, have the money order delivered at the payee's address on paying the proper portage charges, and he may add a short private message for the payee if desired. He can also direct that the order be paid through a bank on the same condition.

c. No Telegraph Money Order can be issued for a greater amount than £10.

d. Any person expecting a remittance by telegraph must furnish satisfactory evidence that he himself is the person entitled to receive the money. He, or someone on his behalf, must attend at the office to obtain payment.

e. Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, according to whether the order be remitted from an office in England and Wales, Scotland, or Ireland. He must enclose the official receipt with his application. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose. Should transfer of payment from one office to another be required by either remitter or payee, he must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, as the case may be, furnishing particulars of the Order, and stating the name of the office at which payment is desired.

f. In other respects Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary money orders.

(For Telegraph Money Orders to places abroad, see Post Office Guide.)

18. Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on nearly every foreign country, British agency, possession, and colony (a list of places can be seen at any post office where money orders are issued). The rates of commission are as follows:—For sums not exceeding £2, 6d.; £6, 1s.; £10, 1s. 6d.

19. In the case of some countries, a list of which can be seen at any Post Office. A Certificate of Issue only will be given to the remitter as a receipt for the amount paid in, an order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the chief office of that country and sent to the payee. In the case of all other countries an order will be handed to the remitter to be transmitted by him to the payee.

20. The issue of a duplicate Order, or the stoppage of payment of an Order issued by a Colony or Foreign Country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission be enclosed as follows:—1. For duplicates of Orders, 6d. 2. For stoppage of payment, 4d.

21. Orders for the British Colonies and other possessions abroad, excepting Canada and India, are drawn in sterling, but the regulations provide that in those colonies where the local currency is other than sterling, payments for Money Orders may be made to the nearest equivalent in the legal currency of the place in which the Orders are payable.

22. As the advices of Orders drawn on places abroad have to be examined in the London Office before the particulars are advised to the paying country, such Orders should be taken out a day or two before the dates fixed for the despatch of the Mails.

POSTAL ORDERS.

1. Postal Orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. up to £1, are now issued to the public at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, at the British Post-office at Constantinople, and in Malta, Gibraltar, India, Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and Newfoundland.

Such Postal Orders are paid at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and at the British Post Office, Constantinople. Payment is also made in Malta and Gibraltar provided the Orders were issued in the United Kingdom or at the British Post Office, Constantinople.

2. The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

3. The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the Poundage payable in respect of each Order:—

Amount of Order.		Poundage.	Amount of Order.		Poundage.
s.	d.	d.	s.	d.	d.
1	0	$\frac{1}{2}$	4	6	1
1	6	$\frac{1}{2}$	5	0	1
2	0	1	7	6	1
2	6	1	10	0	1
3	0	1	10	6	1
3	6	1	15	0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$
4	0	1	20	0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$

Broken amounts, not being fractions of a penny, may be made up by the use of British Postage Stamps not exceeding fivepence in value affixed to the face of any one Postal Order. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for this purpose.

4. Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue to facilitate enquiry if the order should be lost.

5. In case of the miscarriage or loss of any Postal Order, unless proof can be given to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the name of the payee was inserted in such Order before the holder parted with the same, and unless the number of such Order can be furnished, the Postmaster-General cannot undertake to trace such Order with a view to accounting for the miscarriage or loss thereof.

6. If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a Banker, and if the name of a Banker is added, payment will only be made through that Banker.

7. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

8. The holder of a Postal Order may, in writing, on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding 10 days; but in such case the name of some Money Order Office at which the Order shall be paid must be inserted in the body. Payment of the Order will then not be made until the period specified by the holder has elapsed.

9. A Postal Order presented by, or through, a Banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such Banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such Order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

10. After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

11. If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the Order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

12. The regulations under which Postal Orders are issued allow the Postmaster to delay or refuse the payment of an Order, but he must at once report his reasons for so doing to the Postmaster-General. He may also require the person presenting the Order to sign his name on the Order before its payment, although the receipt has been already signed.

13. After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a Commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition (if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration) of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

14. The Commission thus paid must be affixed in Postage Stamps to the back of the Order.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

1. Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and are open for the receipt of deposits on week days during the hours appointed for the sale of stamps. Every such Office is also open for the payment of withdrawals on week days during certain hours, which are mentioned in a notice exhibited at the Office.

2. At these Offices ordinary deposits of one shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received, subject to the limits of £50 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, exclusive of interest. Deposits will also be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuities.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny postage stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office. Instructions as to this form are printed thereon.

3. Interest.—Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum (which is at the rate of 6d. a year, or one halfpenny a calendar month, for each complete pound) is allowed on ordinary deposits, and also on any interest or dividends already credited to a depositor's account. The interest is calculated from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a pound has been deposited, or completed, up to the last day of the calendar month preceding that in which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after each 31st December it is added to the principal (so long as the account remains open); but when, by the addition of interest or dividends, or by transfer from the account of a deceased person, the sum due in a deposit account is raised above £200, interest is allowed on £200 only, and the excess over that sum, when it amounts to £5, is applied to the purchase of Stock for the depositor unless he otherwise directs. This restriction as to interest has reference only to those accounts to which the limit of £200 is applicable.

4. Transfers of Deposits.—A person may transfer his deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to the Post Office Savings Bank, or vice versa, by obtaining a certificate of transfer, which will be accepted as a deposit of the amount therein set forth. Forms of application for certificates of transfer to a Trustee Savings Bank can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

5. Withdrawal of Deposits.—Any depositor wishing to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited by him, must make application for the same to the General Post Office in London, in a form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

6. Repayments.—Repayments will be made only to the depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the minister of the parish in which the depositor resides, of a justice of the peace, or in case of sickness, of the medical attendant.

7. Withdrawals by Telegraph.—A depositor who wishes to obtain immediate payment of any amount not exceeding £10 standing to his credit, can apply at any savings bank office at which payment by telegraph is made, when upon production of the deposit book showing that the sum required is standing to his credit, and on his filling up the usual notice of withdrawal and paying the cost of the telegram to the chief office and of the reply, the Postmaster will ascertain by telegraph whether the amount applied for on the notice may be paid. Not more than £10 can be paid to a depositor in one day under this arrangement. Withdrawals of not more than £20 may, however, be obtained by return of post on notice being similarly sent by telegraph to the chief office, London.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK UNDER THE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1880.

1. A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. Consolidated Stock (1903), 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. Annuities (1905), 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Annuities, and Local Loans 3 per cent. Stock; and they can be made either by means of moneys deposited specially for the purpose, or by means of ordinary deposits made previously; or partly from the one and partly from the other.

The deposit book is also required in the Savings Bank Department, but where a deposit is made for the purpose of immediate investment, the book need not be sent with the application to invest, but can be held over until the acknowledgment of the deposit is received.

2. A depositor who desires to sell the stock standing to his credit or part of the stock (not being less than a shilling) must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

3. The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is as follows:—

	s.	d.
On Stock not exceeding £25, - - -	0	9
“ exceeding £25 and not above £50, 1 3	1	3
“ “ 50 “ “ 75, 1 9	1	9
“ “ 75 “ “ 100, 2 3	2	3
“ “ 100 “ “ 200, 2 9	2	9

Transfer of Stock to the Bank of England.

4. A depositor of full age can transfer the whole or a portion of his stock into his own name in the books of the Bank of England on making application on the proper form, which can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, the commission being the same as for a sale of stock.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCES AND ANNUITIES.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

If the amount of the Annuity or Insurance purchased is less than £100, further Annuities and Insurances may be purchased from time to time until the total amount of annuities depending on the life is £100, and the total sum insured is £100.

The persons whose lives are insured or to whom annuities are granted by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

Proposals for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities; and forms of proposal, with full instructions for filling up and delivering the same, as well as every other necessary information, may be obtained on application at the Post Office, Glasgow.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for the first 12 words, and ½d. for every additional word. Addresses are charged for.

2. Postage stamps are used for the payment of telegrams, and the public are required to affix them to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters.

3. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2d. each.

4. The telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the “A 1” form, embossed with a stamp, and the “A” form (given gratis), with no stamp. The “A 1” forms may be purchased singly. They may also be had in books of 20 forms, interleaved, and with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 10s. 2d. per book.

5. When the terminal office, i.e., the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within three miles, or within the town postal delivery of that office when the delivery extends more than three miles. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only.

6. When the address is beyond the free delivery, portorage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile, or part thereof, the charge being calculated from the office door.

7. The sender is responsible for the portorage; and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portorage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid. Should the sender undercalculate the charge the deficiency is charged on delivery. If the sender pays too much, the excess is refunded.

8. If the sender require his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words “post” or “train” at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost or deposit 1s. if the exact cost is not known.

9. Persons desirous of having a communication forwarded by post to a place abroad from a Postal Telegraph Office at which it could be posted later than at their local office, may have it transmitted as an inland telegram to such an office, and posted there. In this case the sender must write “Post from ———” (which will be charged for) at the end of the address, and must prepay the postage. Thus, a telegram of 23 words, to be posted from Queenstown to New York, should be marked “Post from Queenstown” and be prepaid 1s. 3½d., viz.:— 1s. 1d. for telegraphing and 2½d. for postage.

Any other information regarding telegraph business can be obtained at the nearest postal telegraph office.

PRIVATE WIRES.

1. The Department undertakes the construction and maintenance on rental terms, of private telegraph and telephone wires between the offices or houses of firms or private individuals; as well as of telegraph and telephone wires between such offices or houses and Postal Telegraph Offices by means of which the renter can receive telegrams, forward messages for delivery as express or ordinary letters, or obtain the services of express messengers.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to “The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C.”

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL TELEGRAMS.

(Regulations founded upon the International Telegraph Convention.)

1. Foreign and Colonial telegrams are of two kinds, telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes: (1) preconcerted language or code, (2) cypher.

2. Telegrams in preconcerted language, or code, are composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names (other than those appearing in the "Official Vocabulary for Telegrams in Preconcerted Language," published by the International Telegraph Office at Berne) are not allowed in the text of such telegrams, except in their natural sense. Words of more than ten letters are not allowed. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages are allowed in the same telegram.

3. Cypher telegrams are those containing groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting commercial marks are allowed in the midst of plain or preconcerted language, and are then charged for as figures.

4. Special forms are provided for Foreign and Colonial Telegrams: the A^N form for telegrams to be transmitted by North American Cables, and the A^S form for other Foreign and Colonial Telegrams. Telegrams written on forms supplied by the Cable Companies are also accepted at Post Offices.

Books containing twenty-five forms, each bearing an embossed 10d. stamp, interleaved, can be obtained, price £1 1s. each.

5. The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than the name of the person and the name of the town. Example—Hercules, Bombay.

6. The address of the sender is charged for if to be transmitted. It must in any case be written at the foot of the form.

7. In telegrams written in plain language, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters. Any additional letters are charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

For any other information see Post Office Guide or apply at the nearest postal telegraph office.

LIST OF POST TOWNS AND SUB-OFFICES IN SCOTLAND.

The hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and therefore cannot be given here. The Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed a Railway Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Travelling Post Office instead of through a Post Town; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, whosoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883 deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

Commissioners may be required to express their opinion as to duty. Mode and effect of proceeding.—§ 12. (1.) (a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty:

(b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.

(2.) Commissioners to be furnished with an abstract of instrument, and such evidence as they deem necessary to show whether facts and circumstances affecting liability to duty are fully and truly set forth.

(3.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.

(4.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when instrument is duly stamped in accordance with assessment of the Commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(5.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(6.) Provided as follows:—

(a.) Instrument to be stamped according to opinion.
—An instrument upon which the duty has been assessed by the Commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with the assessment.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 13. (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the Commissioners, may, within twenty-one days after the date of the assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against the assessment to His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and may for that purpose require the Commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth the question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of proceeding.—(2.) The Commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and the case may within seven days thereafter be set down by him for hearing.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the Commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous assessment, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the court may determine.

(5.) If the assessment of the Commissioners is confirmed, the court may make an order for payment to the Commissioners of the costs incurred by them in relation to the appeal.

Uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Estates not exceeding £300 and deceased dying on or after 1st June, 1881. Payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, etc. (Institute of heir of entail not to be deemed competent to dispose unless entitled to disentail without consent or having consent valued) and, where not competent to dispose, is on the annual value after allowance of the necessary outgoings as an annuity for the life of the successor, to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty on the capital value, and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100. 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Owner's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Owner of each Carriage shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of the License for each Carriage shall be painted on the Carriage, to be affixed on the back, and to be distinctly visible from the outside, and in figures not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Owner, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, provided the repairs are not finished within twenty-one days. Whenever a Licensed Carriage is sold by the Proprietor in whose name the License has been granted, or otherwise ceases to be his property, the License will lapse and become null and void.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

All Carriages ordered back for a party, at any place of public amusement or assembly, shall have the preference of drawing up nearest to the door or entrance of such place, and shall drive up in the order in which they arrive. When a party is put down the Driver shall immediately pass on and not wait at the door, but take such place as the Police may direct; and all Carriages waiting for hire at any such place shall stand on the opposite side of the street, or at such other place as the Police may on such occasions direct, for the purpose of preventing confusion.

DRIVERS.

Every Driver shall, when he receives his License, be furnished with a Badge by the Registrar, and shall leave Half-a-Crown as security for the Badge, which sum will be returned when the Badge is given up. In the event of the Badge being injured while in possession of the Driver, the expenses of any necessary repairs will be deducted from the sum deposited.

MISSION TO LASCARS IN GLASGOW.

(Instituted November 2, 1897.)

Indian Christian House, 36 Bank Street, Hillhead.
Auditor, R. Ferguson, Esq., 129 Hope Street.

Auditor's Statement.—Total income for 12 months, Nov. 2, 1900, to Nov. 1, 1901, £179 4s 1½d; total expenditure, £179 4s. 1½d. Missionaries' salaries, house rent, taxes, hospitality to Lascars, £142 7s. 9d; evangelical and educational literature, travelling, and advertising, £36 16s. 4½d. Average income for four years, £153 9s. 3d; missionaries' average salary for 4 years, £103 17s. 6½d.

It is the only mission doing work among the Lascar sailors in Scotland. There is only one collecting-book in connection with this mission, which is possessed by Mr. Aziz Ahmad, the authorised collector, who will be pleased to receive subscriptions from parties interested in the work. The Auditor will also be glad to receive and acknowledge subscriptions for the mission.

Reference.—Many thousand Lascars visit Glasgow every year. The barriers of race, religion, customs, and language make them extremely difficult of access by European missionaries.

Mr. Aziz Ahmad, assisted by his wife and family, devotes his whole time to the work of preaching the Gospel to these Lascars and teaching them to read the Holy Scriptures, helping them and brightening their lives by entertaining them as far as the means at disposal will permit.

The modest sum of £200 per annum is required for carrying on this good work, and the Christian public are invited to assist by contributing towards defraying the expenses of the mission, which absolutely derives no benefit from the schemes of the churches or from the grant of any society.

The greatest majority of the Lascars are British Indians. Left to themselves, they can only take home unfavourable impressions. This mission, by introducing them to beautiful sights and kind friends, aims to foster friendliness between Indians and Britons. The Right Hon. Lord George Hamilton, M.P., Principal Secretary of State for India, says:—"There was no country in the world where the European was treated with greater respect and regard than in India, and that condition of things necessitated reciprocity."

"I have every confidence in the integrity and trustworthiness of Mr. Aziz Ahmad, and I believe his work carried on with the assistance of his family is productive of much good." The foregoing credential is signed by the following Referees and by many other friends of India:—

Referees.—Glasgow—Rev. R. W. Dobbie, Robt. J. Anderson, Esq., Rev. John Stewart, M.A., Rev. Henry Dickie, M.A., Robert Ferguson, Esq., R. M. Craig, Esq., D. Grant, Esq., Rev. Geo. Allan, Rev. James D. McCulloch, Rev. John Buchan, Rev. David Orr, B.D., Union-Councillor Robert Falconer, Rev. John G. Duncan. Edinburgh—Rev. P. Wilson Paterson, Rev. Robt. Burnett, B.D., John K. Macrae, Esq., Rev. John Glass, D.D., Rev. John Smith, D.D., Serg. Hugh Simpson. Dundee—Inspector J. Dryden. Greenock—Rev. C. Jerden, M.A., LL.B. Grangemouth—Rev. Henry J. S. Glover.

Missionaries thank Mr. Ferguson for auditing accounts free.

Sir Wm. Muir, K.C.S.I., D.C.L., LL.D., Ph.D. certifies:—"Mr. Aziz Ahmad is doing a good work among the thousands of Lascars, and deserves support and encouragement from us in his truly Christian endeavour."

Missionary's address—Mr Aziz Ahmad, 36 Bank Street, Hillhead, Glasgow.

As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

THE EAST-END GOSPEL MISSION

(Church and hall—Suffolk Street and South St.
Mungo Street, Calton.)

AND CHILDREN'S SEA-SIDE HOME AND RETREAT, MOUNT PLEASANT, DUNOON.

This Mission has for its object the elevation, religiously and socially, of the masses of the city slums, principally aiming at those who know no church or other place of worship. In addition to preaching the Gospel, whereby outcasts and fallen are brought to a knowledge of the truth, their temporal wants are cared for. During periods of distress, the Mission has been the means of saving many poor families from utter want and ruin, and to-day numbers are hard-working respectable members of society, who, if solely left to themselves, would be on the downward path of sin and misery. The accounts of the Mission are made up and vouched for periodically.

The Children's Home and Retreat at Dnnoon has proved a great boon to the little ones. The greatest care is taken of them. Moral instruction, medical attendance during illness, &c.

The Mission is supported by voluntary subscriptions and donations, and a copy of the Report with certified abstracts of accounts is sent to each subscriber. T. G. A. Scott, general superintendent and founder; P. E. Fitzpatrick, secretary.

GLASGOW JEWISH EVANGELICAL MISSION.

Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place.

The object of the mission is to bring the gospel home to the minds and hearts of the thousands of Jews who are living in Glasgow. The missionaries visit from house to house and from shop to shop, and invite the Jews to attend the various meetings, such as bible classes, night schools, and gospel services, &c., held at the Hebrew Christian house, secure medical aid for the sick, and, when necessary, admission to the hospitals. The Jewish poor and refugees are assisted in many ways, amongst others, by finding them employment, and by giving pecuniary aid towards enabling them to earn their own living. The superintendent will gladly supply reports and any information to anyone desiring such.

The committee of the Glasgow Jewish Evangelical Mission desires to call attention to the work carried on by the Rev. Aaron Matthews and his assistants at the Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place, in the hope that if it were more widely known it would receive a more adequate support. For many years past it has been conducted with marked ability, and with many happy results. Numbers of Jews visit the mission. From 50 to 60 regularly attend the Sunday evening service, the room being often uncomfortably full. There have been several cases of genuine conversion. A great deal of work of a purely philanthropic nature is also done in helping Jews who come to the city in search of employment, and in relieving families in sickness. The Jewish colony in Glasgow does not number less than 5000, and this number is being increased continually by refugees fleeing from political and religious disabilities on the continent to the toleration and freedom which this country affords. Mr. Matthews has had a long and varied experience in preaching the gospel to his brethren, and does his best to meet, in a discriminating way, really needful cases; but the resources available for the whole work have not, for several years past, been adequate to meet the necessary demand. It is a good and deserving cause, and if a cup of cold water given to another, in the name of a disciple, shall not lose its reward, an additional blessing will belong to those who remember the nation and the people in whose midst the Redeemer of mankind appeared.

President, Rev. Jas. Black, D.D.; honorary treasurer, Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq.; superintendent and secretary, Rev. Aaron Matthews, 12 Abbotsford place (private address, 22 Abbotsford place); committee—Rev. Alex. Brown, Rev. Jervis Coats, D.D., Rev. Robert S. Duff, D.D., Rev. Fergus Ferguson, D.D., Rev. Jas. Kidd, D.D., Rev. Alex. Kirkland, Rev. T. H. Martin, Rev. Jas. Ross; Sir John Neilson Cuthbertson, T. Bost, Esq., Walter Dow, Esq., and John Muir, Esq.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to John Muir, Esq., Laurieston Branch, Bank of Scotland, 1 Bridge Street, Glasgow, or any of the other members of the Finance Committee, viz.:—Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq. (convener), Ulverston, Terregles avenue, Pollokshields; Timothy Bost, Esq., 34 Lynedoch street; and Walter Dow, Esq., 64 Dalziel drive, Pollokshields; or to Mr. Matthews, at 22 Abbotsford place, will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged, both by receipt and in the annual report of the mission.

THE HOUSES OF SHELTER.

THE HOUSE OF SHELTER, 114 HILL STREET,
GARNETHILL.

"The Shelter" was instituted in 1850. Its object is to provide a home for females who, on their liberation from prison, are desirous to reform and to support themselves by honest industry. The number of inmates in "the Shelter" is generally 50. They are employed in needlework, the institution receiving the proceeds of their labour, in return for which the inmates are lodged, fed, and clothed. In addition to this, a suitable outfit is given to those who remain a full year, and go out with the approval of the committee; and an effort is made to find suitable employment for the women when they leave the Home.

WHITEVALE SHELTER, 15 WHITEVALE STREET (Prison Gate Mission).

This Home was begun in 1878, and its object also is to provide for females who have been in prison, and desire to lead a better life. The two homes are worked much on the same lines as to the length of stay required and the food and outfit given; also as to the effort made to find occupation for the women when they leave, after remaining their full time—i.e., a year. The special feature of the Whitevale Shelter is its large washing-house and laundry, in which the greater number of the 70 women are employed, the rest being engaged in sewing, with the exception of a few, who are occupied in knitting or housework.

Both Homes are equally dependent on the public for employment. Our Bible Woman meets the female prisoners daily at the Prison Gate on their liberation from Prison.

DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY,

Cathedral Square.

The Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; Jas. Nicol, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; D. M. Crerar-Gilbert, hon. secretary; John Lawson, superintendent; Miss Cook, bible woman for female prisoners.

82,075 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us for six years, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Glasgow Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. There they are met every morning at half past eight by two of our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is not given, the Society being prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the twelve years of its prosecution 16,912 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1901 work was found for 2612 men.

Admission to the Houses of Shelter in Garnethill, Whitevale Street, and Magdalen Institution, Stirling Road, is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

THE WESTERN FRIENDLY SOCIETY,

Founded at Glasgow in the reign of King William IV., grants to Professional and Business Men Insurances at Prime Cost, and guarantees independence at all stages of life. It has done a large amount of good during a continuously successful career of seventy years. During the last 10 years about 3,000 Death, Sickness, and Accident Claims have been paid, individual claims running frequently into the four figures. The Society has never failed to add yearly large sums to the Reserves, which belong entirely to the Members. The Accumulation of Surplus is shown as follows:—1855, £2253; 1885, £24,485; 1895, £33,582; 1898, £36,274; 1899, £37,777; 1900, £39,411; 1901, £40,658. The directors and the auditors give their services gratuitously. The Society is purely Mutual (having no Shareholders to withdraw portion of the profits), and deals directly with the public, and does not incur Commission, Agency, Advertising, and Canvassing Expenses. There is accordingly a very large saving to the Members, as the Premiums do not require to be "loaded-up" to meet these sources of expenditure. The Premiums, which vary with Benefits selected and age-at-entry, are exceptionally moderate, being the lowest possible consistent with Absolute Security. They are based on the most modern and reliable data, and have the approval of the highest actuarial authorities. The cost of Membership (for Minimum Benefits) is, e.g., at age 19, £1 4s. 8d. a year; at age 30, £1 14s. An investor aged 45, by payment of £141, or if aged 19, by payment of £80, can secure for himself (1) £54 15s. a year in Illness (Physical or Mental), non-reducible no matter how protracted the disability may turn out to be; (2) £30 a year in Old Age; and (3) £50 at Death. These benefits can be varied to suit all circumstances. Parents (or Guardians) by such unique investments, may ensure that their Sons (or Waifs) will never cease to have a living wage either in times of Sickness or in Old Age. List of Members, Accounts, Directors' Reports, Press Opinions, and Prints explaining Investment Schemes, &c., may be had at the Registered Office, 142 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow. John Mann, C.A., manager; Ludovic M'L. Mann, assistant manager.

RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scotch branch office, 302 Buchanan st., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, J. Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway; D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, Geo. Cunningham, Esq., North British Railway, D. Deuchars, Esq., North British Railway, Henry Evans, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, F. H. Gillies, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, A. Hillhouse, Esq., Caledonian Railway, W. F. Jackson, Esq., North British Railway, Irvine Kempt, Esq., Caledonian Railway, Robt. Millar, Esq., Caledonian Railway, Wm. Moffatt, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, A. Rutherford, Esq., North British Railway, J. S. Stuart, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway; bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Sq. branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Robert Gibb, Caledonian Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFEBOAT INSTITUTION GLASGOW BRANCH.

Local Committee—Wm. Cairney, Esq., chairman; W. F. G. Anderson, Hon. J. C. Burns, Fred. Gardiner, Councillor J. P. Maclay, David M'Cowan, Esq., Councillor William Burrell, John A. Galbraith, Esq., James Lilburn, Esq., G. Munro Kerr, Esq., J. A. Roxburgh, Esq.; hon. treasurer, Leonard Gow, jun., Esq., 45 Renfield Street; secretary, William Martin, 116 St. Vincent Street.

During the past year the institution continued to use its best endeavours to improve the lifeboat service, and a large sum was expended by it in the maintenance in an efficient state of the 288 lifeboats on the coast. This being so, the Glasgow committee would again earnestly urge upon the public the necessity of supporting this most deserving institution, especially as the city is so intimately connected with ships and shipping. They feel that many of the present subscribers might increase their subscriptions, and new firms might add their names to the list. The annual subscriptions to this branch in 1901 amounted to £480.

During the past year (1901) the institution expended £93,390 on the various lifeboat establishments on our coasts. The total expenditure was largely in excess of the ordinary income of the year. Last year the institution granted rewards amounting to £11,911, in addition to 104 medals or other honorary testimonials for the saving of 490 lives and 15 vessels, including pensions and grants to relatives of men lost on service and to injured men. There are 288 lifeboats on our shores, and during the society's existence the lives saved either by its boats or by special exertions, for which it has granted rewards (to 31st Decr., 1901), is 43,197. Surely this is a work that calls for every support from all classes of the community.

Form of Bequest of money, stock, or other personal estate.

I give and bequeath to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck, founded in 1824, London, the sum of £ , for the use of the said Institution; and I declare that the said legacy shall be paid free from Legacy Duty, and that the receipt of the Treasurer of the said Institution shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Real or leasehold property may also now be left by will to the Institution.

Annual subscriptions, donations, or legacies will be thankfully received by the secretary or treasurer.

The institution is wholly dependent on the support of the public, and since its foundation has received and provided for nearly 3000 children.

THE GLASGOW AGED SEAMEN RELIEF FUND.

Hon. vice-presidents, The Lord Provost, Sir Jas. King, Bart., and others; chairman of committee, James Lilburn (of Aitken, Lilburn & Co.); vice-chairman, George Munro Kerr (of Kerr, Newton & Co.); G. W. Service, Mercantile Chambers, 53 Bothwell Street, hon. secretary and treasurer.

This society has been formed for the relief of old and infirm seamen, of whom there are large numbers in the city of Glasgow and district, whose means of support are extremely limited, and many of whom are practically destitute. The society gives assistance, by pensions or otherwise, to seamen connected with Glasgow and district, who have served for at least twenty-five years at sea, and are in want, and whose service has, at least in part, been in Glasgow-owned ships. The committee feel that this society should commend itself generally to the citizens of Glasgow, the great wealth and advancement of the city being very much dependent on its connection with the sea. The committee therefore make an urgent appeal for contributions, and while hopeful of receiving large sums from those able to give largely, they cordially invite the assistance of those willing to share in this good work. Subscriptions, donations, and legacies may be sent to the honorary secretary and treasurer.

SCOTTISH LABOUR COLONY ASSOCIATION.

Mid-Locharwoods, Ruthwell, R.S.O.

This charitable institution was established in 1897 for the purpose of providing work for unemployed able-bodied men, under the healthy and desirable conditions of farm labour, in exchange for food and shelter, with a small cash bonus in cases of merit. The men are first tested in the Kyle Street Shelter of the Charity Organization Society, and, if deserving, drafted to the Colony, where they stay for three or four months. Thereafter, suitable situations are obtained for them. The farm is situated about eight miles from Dumfries, and borders the Lochar Moss, which extends inland for over ten miles, affording abundance of work in its reclamation for many years to come. The scheme is a practical Christian social and successful work for reclaiming unfortunates and social breakdowns, and forms one of the best solutions to the difficult problem of how to provide work for the mass of the unemployed.

Nearly 300 men have been dealt with, and the majority report "Doing well."

The farm has just been purchased in order to secure the benefits of all improvements, but there is a debt of £3500 over it, and the directors are anxious to see this cleared off. About £300 to £600 per annum is also required to maintain the work.

Contributions thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. treasurer, John W. Gourlay, C.A., 180 Hope Street, Glasgow.

Pres., Mrs. Ure, Cairndhu, Helensburgh; secy., Miss Telford; treasurer, Mrs. Barclay, 8 Windsor cir

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

GLASGOW PUBLIC DISPENSARY.

54 Dundas Street, City.

The Glasgow Public Dispensary was established in 1876 for the purpose of giving gratuitous medical advice to persons in necessitous circumstances, and is conducted by various medical officers each giving advice in a special department of disease to which he has devoted himself. The Institution is supported by voluntary contributions, but advice being gratuitous, it is expected that those of the patients who are able will contribute something towards the payment of medicine supplied.

THE GLASGOW CANCER AND SKIN INSTITUTION.

409 St. Vincent Street (near Charing Cross).

(Established in 1886 under Royal and Distinguished patronage:—for the treatment of Cancer and Diseases of the Skin.)

Telephone number—"224"

Receiving Hour, 1 to 2 p.m.

Consulting Hours, 2 and 7 p.m.

"The Institution has now entered on its Sixteenth year of usefulness. During the last fifteen years 1708 patients were treated for Cancer (397 males and 1311 females), and 14,233 patients suffering from Diseases of the Skin."

The outstanding features of the Institution continue to be:—(1) The advancement of medical and surgical science in relation to the treatment of Cancer and allied diseases, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use, and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding, the use of the knife. In other words, the Therapeutic treatment of Cancer in contradistinction to the knife treatment of the malady. (2) Affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to women—whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured by them, before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless patients that have to be dealt with from day to day.

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances. Ten additional beds, for the exclusive use of women suffering from Cancer and allied diseases, have been recently added to the Institution, the maintenance of which solely depends on the Auxiliary Fund—a fund exclusively devoted to necessitous patients, and for which subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited.

LIBRARIES NEWS-ROOMS, AND NEWSPAPER OFFICES.GLASGOW CORPORATION PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

The Committee of Town Council in charge of the Public Libraries under the control of the Corporation consists of the Hon. the Lord Provost, Councillor Fife (convener), Councillor Sinclair (sub-convener), Bailies Ferguson, D. M. Stevenson, R. Browne, Treasurer Murray, Councillors Battersby, Bilsland, Campbell, John Carswell, Dick, Forsyth, Gray, A. J. Hunter, Kennedy, M'Cutcheon, and O'Hare. F. T. Barrett, City Librarian.

THE MITCHELL LIBRARY.

21 Miller Street.

Founded on a bequest of the late Stephen Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council in July of the same year.

The library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9.30 a.m. till 10 p.m. uninterruptedly. It now contains about 147,000 volumes, and is the largest library in Scotland to which the general public have a right of free admission. The books are not to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose, there being separate accommodation for ladies and for students. There is a magazine room, where may be seen about 460 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly periodicals of all classes—literary, artistic, scientific, trade, technical, and general—and including a number of American, German, and French serials. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required. In the selection of the books to form the library, efforts have been made to give it a thoroughly representative character, so that students in every department of knowledge will derive advantage from its use. Collections of books relating to Scotland, and particularly to Glasgow and the West, have been formed, and are constantly being enlarged. The "Poet's Corner" is believed to contain the largest and most valuable library of Burns and Scottish Poets and Dramatists in existence. Much attention has also been devoted to securing standard works on industrial and technological subjects, from which many persons engaged in manufactures, especially such as include design, derive much advantage.

The number of readers is large—over 2000 daily—the number of volumes consulted being about half-a-million yearly. The total number issued from the commencement to 25th March, 1902, was 9,707,425, exclusive of the reading of the periodicals in the magazine room, the references to which are estimated to be not less in number than the volumes issued. Taking books and periodicals together, the total use of the library amounts to at least a million each year. F. T. Barrett, librarian; John Ingram, sub-librarian.

Under the provisions of the Glasgow Corporation (Tramways, Libraries, &c.) Act, 1899, a system of District Public Libraries designed to serve the whole city, is now being organised by the Town Council. The scheme generally adopted provides for fourteen district libraries and three reading rooms. Each of the libraries will contain a lending department, from which books may be drawn for home reading, a collection of reference and other works for consultation within the building, a large general news and reading-room, with a liberal supply of newspapers and magazines, a reading-room for ladies, and reading-rooms for boys and girls open after school hours. The localities which have been selected as those which will best serve the inhabitants generally are:—On the North side of the river—Bridgeton, Parkhead, Dennistoun, Townhead, Springburn, Maryhill, Hillhead, Woodside, and Anderston; and on the South side—Kingston, Crosshill and Govanhill, Crossmyloof, Gorbals, and Hutchesontown. Reading-rooms are to be provided for Possilpark and for East Pollokshields, and under the bequest of the late Mr. John Rankin a reading-room in the Baths Buildings in Whitevale Street. Gorbals Library has been opened in halls attached to the Baths Buildings, the library entrance being No. 150 Main Street, S.S. It is open daily from 9 a.m. till 10 p.m. The Rankin Public Reading-Room at 79 Whitevale Street is open during the same hours.

STIRLING'S & GLASGOW PUBLIC LIBRARY. 48 Miller Street.

Stirling's Public Library was founded by Walter Stirling, merchant and ex-bailie of the city, and son of Dr. William Stirling, a well-known Glasgow surgeon of the last century. The bequest came into effect at the death of Mr. Stirling on 18th January, 1791. It consisted of the founder's own library (802 volumes), his house in Miller Street (where the library now stands), a share in the Tontine Society, and the sum of £1000. Mr. Stirling directed that the library was to be free to any one, and was to exist in perpetuity. In 1825 Mr. William Jameson, jun., bequeathed his books to the library. In 1871 Dr. Scouler, professor of mineralogy in the Royal Society of Dublin, bequeathed his collection of books; and in the same year the Glasgow Public Library, a subscription lending library started in 1804, amalgamated with Stirling's Library, and the title then became Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library.

The library contains over 50,000 volumes and pamphlets, including many rare, valuable, and useful works. It possesses several manuscripts (two on vellum), and nearly thirty examples of fifteenth century printing, the earliest being 1469, or fourteen years after the issue of the first printed book. It is the depository of the only complete set in the West of Scotland of the publications of Her Majesty's Patent Office, which consist of over 150,000 separate publications. They date from 1617 when the first British patent was enrolled, and come up to the latest patents issued. The Board of Trade recently presented a complete set of the Trade Marks Journal to the library, and supply the current numbers as issued. The Government of the United States have also presented their Specifications of Patents from the 28th March, 1893, and continue to supply the current numbers as issued.

The foundation being inadequate for the proper maintenance of the library the directors organized a system of lending of books. This has been immensely developed in recent years, and a large supply of new books and magazines—over 2000 copies annually of the latter—render it one of the best, as it is by far the most extensive and most moderately rated lending library in the city and district. The terms are—For two books and one magazine at a time, one year, 10s. 6d.; six months, 7s. 6d.; life, £5 5s.; for one book (no magazine) at a time, one year, 5s. 3d. Members may join at any time (no entry money), and may change their books and magazines singly or together as often as they choose. The library is open every lawful day from 10 a.m. till 10 p.m.

Board of Directors—President, S. Chisholm, LL.D., the Hon. the Lord Provost; vice-president, J. Barclay

Large Compound Bonuses. The Society being purely Mutual, all the profits belong to the assured. At the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1900, the large Compound Bonus of £1 15s. per cent. per annum was declared. The profits distributed have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are now more than doubled in amount.

Assurance at Cost Price. Under the Society's popular MINIMUM PREMIUM SYSTEM, introduced upwards of forty-seven years ago, the premium payable at age 30, for an ordinary "With Profit" Policy for £1000, will assure at once the sum of £1326, thus practically securing from the commencement of the Policy a Bonus of £326.

Examples of Premiums to assure £100 at Death. Minimum System.

Absolute Security. The Funds amount to £4,300,000, being more than 17 years' purchase of the Premium Income. The Valuation of the Society's Liabilities as at 31st December, 1900, made by the most stringent tests applied to any similar institution, shows that the SOCIETY'S RESERVES ARE UNSURPASSED by those of any other Life Assurance Office.

Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Non-Forfeitable Policies, etc.

Claims paid immediately on proof of Death and Title.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and most sudden changes of temperature.

The use of these Bricks is found to be economical in districts of England where Fire Bricks are made and sold at half the price of the "Glenboig" brand, but how much more economical must they be when shipped abroad and where both qualities bear the same charge for carriage?

The Glenboig Company purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers who require a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Mark—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the "brand" purchased is clearly stamped on the goods, as spurious imitations of an inferior kind are regularly offered.

GAS RETORTS.—The great number of Glenboig Retorts now in use in the principal Gas Works at Home and Abroad is the best evidence of the high estimation in which this brand is held by Gas Engineers, who know the importance of using "Retorts that can be depended upon."

SEWAGE PIPES, TRAPS, &c.—The Company are also manufacturers of Glazed Fire Clay Pipes, and all descriptions of Junctions, Traps, &c. Makers of the "Waverley" Combination Traps and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the best yet before the Public; a sure preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.

WESTERN INFIRMARY

OF

(For list of Managers, Medical Officers, and other particulars, see page 195 in the Appendix).

STATEMENT AND APPEAL.

I. The Western Infirmary has between 400 and 500 beds, and a Dispensary for the treatment of out-door patients.

II. During the year (ending 31st October, 1901) 59,707 visits were made to the Dispensary by out-door patients. The number of patients treated in the wards was 5329.

The cost for maintenance during the past year was £28,705 14s. 8d.; and as the ordinary income from all sources during the same period was only £20,070 0s. 3d. the necessity for new and increased support will readily be seen. The liberal spirit, however, in which all classes of the community have hitherto supported the Institution gives the Managers confidence in believing that the appeal which they now make will meet with a prompt and generous response.

III. The Managers take the liberty of drawing attention to the subjoined Form of Bequest, in the hope that from this source they may be enabled gradually to accumulate a special fund from the investment of which, in so far as it is not required for contingencies, a considerable supplementary revenue may in time be derived.

NOTE.—There are already 24 beds endowed in perpetuity, most of them in name of deceased relatives whose names the donors desire to associate with the relief of suffering. The sum required for endowment of a bed is the capital sum necessary to produce £50 per annum.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE WESTERN INFIRMARY.

I _____ of _____ do hereby leave to the WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW, free of legacy duty and charges, a Legacy of * _____ pounds sterling, which I authorise and direct my Executors to pay to the Treasurer or Secretary thereof for the time being, upon his receipt, which shall be a sufficient discharge.

Dated at Glasgow, this * _____ day of _____ Nineteen _____ undred an years.

(Testator's Signature).

* Sum and Date to be expressed in words, not in figures.

Funds are required and earnestly solicited for the upkeep of the Infirmary; all Annual Contributions and Donations sent to the Subscribers will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged.

This Filter is cleaned by mechanical means, and has run for over four months without removing the Media or Breaking Joint, and kept the Boilers absolutely clean.

This Evaporator meets all the requirements of Experienced Sea-going Engineers, viz easily and quickly got at for Examination, Testing, and Cleaning—no internal joints, large water-line area, and steam-room capacity to prevent Priming.

THE OUTSTANDING FEATURE OF THE
SCOTTISH WIDOWS' FUND
MUTUAL
LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY

Is the Unusually Profitable Character of its Policies, as clearly shown in the Tables in the Society's Prospectus relating practically to every Policy in force, and also in the recent Declaration of the following

Very Large Compound Bonus

of £1, 14s. per Cent. per Annum, which, computed on Original Sums Assured alone, shows the following remarkable additions to the Policies:—

For the Seven Years to December, 1901,

From £1, 14s. to £5, 4s. 9d. per Cent. per Annum, upon every £100 of Assurance, according to the duration of the Policies.

These Bonuses are of exceptional magnitude, and should decide all who desire to obtain Life Assurance Policies of the most profitable description to effect them with the Society.

CAUTIOUS INVESTORS in Life Assurance should require full and definite information before effecting Assurances.

The OPTIONS enjoyed by members of this great MUTUAL OFFICE are probably the most valuable feature now attached to Life Assurance Policies.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES—

REALISED FUNDS,	-	-	-	£16,000,000.
ANNUAL REVENUE,	-	-	-	£1,650,000.

WHICH ALL BELONG TO THE POLICY-HOLDERS ALONE.
