P R E F A C E.

IN issuing the Glasgow Post-Office Directory for 1904-1905, the Publishers beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of Seventy-Six years, and desire to state that as formerly no effort has been spared to render it as accurate and complete as possible. They, however, do not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

A Map of the Environs of Glasgow will be found at the beginning of the book. The Almanac, Tide Tables, Banks, &c., Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1902-1903, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1903, with a description of the revised Municipal Wards, will be found in their former positions. To these have been added a list of the Conveners and Secretaries of the various Ward Committees. In the Streets Directory (pages 689 to 1000) the number affixed to the name of each street indicates the Municipal Ward in which such street is situated for electoral purposes. The numbers have been corrected in accordance with the new arrangement of the city wards. At pages 1 to 31 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number affixed its registration district. The large Map, revised and brought up to date by J. Bartholomew & Co., Edinburgh, is placed at the end of the Directory.

The various Suburban Districts around the City are given, as formerly, revised and corrected. The Burghs of Govan, Kinning Park, and Partick are incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding various Institutions and Public Offices in the City and Suburbs.

The printing has been done by Messrs. Aird & Coghill, 24 Douglas Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ltd. 58 Cadogan Street.

All communications on Directory business should be addressed to the Editor, Post Office Directory, Glasgow.

Note.—In the above valuations, standard gold is estimated at 77s. 10½d., and silver at 5s. 6d per ounce, an overvaluation at present, but in countries with a silver standard, such as India, the relative sterling value of money changes with the current price of silver, which, in November, 1892, was 3s. 3d. per oz., the rupee being at that date about 1s. 3d. of sterling value. No account is here taken of the value of paper notes having a forced currency and only convertible from the nominal value to gold at a greater or less discount.

Opportunity

Opportunity knocks at every man's door. On some men's doors it hammers till it breaks down the door and then it goes and wakens him up if he's asleep, and afterwards it works for him as a night watchman. On other men's doors it knocks and runs away, and on the doors of some men it knocks and when they come out it hits them over the head with an ax. But every man has an opportunity.—Mr. Dooley.

We offer everyone an opportunity to get
