ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

Inland Letters.*

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 4 oz. 1d., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional 2 oz.

* Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction Letters;” such an intimation will cause communication to be attended to at once.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered land newspaper, whether posted singly or th others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but packet containing two or more registered wspapers is not chargeable with a higher e than would be chargeable on a book-cket of the same weight.
2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers sted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with ouble postage; if insufficiently paid, with ouble the deficiency.
3. Any publication fulfilling the conditions e registration set forth in the Post Office e can upon payment of an annual fee of ., be registered at the General Post Office r circulation within the United Kingdom as newspaper.

4. No packet of newspapers may exceed 5 lb. weight, 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width depth.

5. A newspaper must be prepaid either by adhesive stamp, or by the use of a stamped paper.

6. (a) A newspaper must be posted either thout a cover, or in a cover entirely open both ends, and so that the same can be sily removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) A newspaper must be so folded as to mit of the title being readily seen.

(c) A newspaper may not contain any closure (except supplements).

(d) A newspaper and the cover of a news- per may not bear anything except the mes, addresses, and descriptions of the nder and the addressee, with index or eference numbers and letters, the words with compliments,” a request for return in se of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, d a reference to its registration for trans- sion by post, and a reference to any page r place in, the newspaper to which the eention of the addressee is directed.

For any infringement of these regulations wspapers are liable to be surcharged.

*Halfpenny Packets.

For a weight not exceeding 2 oz. ½d.

A halfpenny packet posted unpaid is charged delivery with double postage.

No halfpenny packet may exceed 2 feet in gth or 1 foot in width or depth.

Post Cards.—Official and Private.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a lf-penny stamp, and official Reply Post Cards pressed with a halfpenny stamp on each rtion of them, can be bought at every Post fice.

2. Nothing whatever may be attached, cept adhesive stamps in payment of addi- onal postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 3¼ by 2¼ inches. Stamps in payment of postage must be affixed to the face of the card (i.e., to the side which bears the address). If any of these rules be infringed, the card is treated as a letter liable on delivery to the usual charges.

3. Private Cards prepaid ½d. each and Private Reply Cards with a halfpenny stamp on each half can also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the Official Post Card. They may not exceed 5½ by 3½ inches in size, or be less than 3¼ by 2¼ inches. Neither half of a Private Reply Card may exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum size above stated. The rules in the preceding paragraph also apply to Private Post Cards. A Private Post Card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

4. It will be seen from the foregoing rules that there is no legal way of sending a written letter through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a Post Card. A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened letters may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the minimum postage upon all written letters (which are not written on Post Cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. In order that a packet may go by Parce Post, it must be presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen. The words “Parcel Post” should be written or printed on the left-hand side, immediately above the address.

N.B.—The sender’s name and address should appear on the cover, or within the parcel.

2. Any packet or parcel marked “Parcel Post,” and posted contrary to this regulation, will, unless admissible and fully prepaid at the letter rate, be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient postage at the parcel rate.

3. The rates of postage are:—

* The special conditions under which circulars, in- ces, deeds, &c., may be sent as halfpenny packets : given in the Post Office Guide, which may be spected at any Post Office.

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—

Greatest length - - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of the posting of a parcel can be obtained at the time at any Post Office. This certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to an Officer of the Post Office, who will sign and return it to him.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

7. Parcels may be addressed to and obtained at Post Offices under the same regulations, generally, as letters.

8. Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept (unless containing perishable articles) for three weeks. After they have remained in the office one clear day, they are liable to a charge of 1d. a day, called "demurrage." This charge is not made in respect of Sundays, holidays, &c., nor is it levied on parcels addressed to persons residing outside the free delivery, or to persons on board ship.

9. Parcels may be obtained at a Post Office by persons not residing within a free delivery, or by persons residing within the free delivery, provided there is no immediate delivery by the usual means; but when parcels addressed to a Post Office, for persons residing within the free delivery, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, they are not delivered to callers, but are sent out for delivery in the usual way; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

Re-direction.

10. A charge at the full rate of postage originally payable is usually made for every re-direction. But no fresh charge is made if the original and corrected addresses are both in a delivery from the same Post Office, provided that re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction, and the parcel is not at the time of re-direction, lying at a Returned Letter Office. Persons desiring parcels to be re-directed as well as letters, &c., must fill up two re-direction notices, one for parcels, and one for letters and other postal packets. If the notice for letters be alone filled up, parcels will not be forwarded.

Undelivered Parcels.

11. When a parcel bearing on its outside the name and address of the sender cannot be delivered owing to wrong or insufficient address, or from any other cause, it is retained at the Head Post Office of the District, and a notice is forwarded to the sender stating that the parcel will be given up free of charge on application at that office, or that it will be forwarded to a fresh address or returned to him on payment of a fresh postage. If parcel be not applied for, or the proper charge paid for forwarding it, within six days from the date of the notice, the parcel is sent to Returned Letter Office of the District.

12. An undelivered parcel which does not bear the name and address of the sender outside is sent to the District Returned Letter Office, and if on its being opened the sender's name and address are found, it is treated in accordance with the preceding rule. If not the name of the addressee and other particulars are entered on a list exhibited at the Returned Letter Office in question.

13. All undelivered parcels are retained at a Returned Letter Office for three months after which time they are disposed of, if so unclaimed. If, however, the contents of parcel become, or are likely to become, offensive or injurious, or worthless through natural decay, they are liable to be disposed of forthwith.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

14. The Postmaster General is not legally liable to make good any claim arising out of the conveyance of a parcel sent by post.

15. Nevertheless, if the parcel is registered, compensation will be given subject to the exceptions (including money) and conditions specified under the heading of "Registration and Compensation" in the Post Office Guide.

16. If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster General will, subject to certain conditions, accept liability up to £2 without the payment of any fee beyond the postage.

17. To secure compensation for loss, a certificate of posting must be obtained at the time of posting.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the payment of telegrams, of the respective values of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1 [the higher priced stamps are not kept at offices at which no demand for them is likely to arise];—registered letter envelopes;—newspaper wrappers with impressed halfpenny or penny postage stamps;—Inland and Foreign Post Cards, Envelopes with embossed stamps and Letter Cards.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of stamps which have been torn, defaced, cut, or otherwise rendered imperfect or of embossed, or impressed, stamps cut from envelopes, &c., even although the stamps have not been previously used. In the term "defaced postage stamps" is included stamps marked by the purchasers with any written, printed, or stamped characters, but not the bearing initials of firms, &c., defined by perforations.

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any Post Office, stating the value of the stamps and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. It form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the payment of the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. omission, will be sent by post from the Chief Office of Account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. Stamps offered for sale must not be less than a total value of £1.

Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House, London, V.C., can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office. Application should also be made there, or to District Stamp Distributors, for allowance on spoilt stamps, &c.

Prepayment in Money.

The prepayment of Inland letters, private post cards, newspapers, halfpenny packets, and parcels can, as a rule, only be effected by means of postage stamps.

In London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and Glasgow, however, and a few large provincial towns, repayment can be made in money under certain conditions, which can be learnt on application at the offices, or from the Post Office Guide. Newspapers cannot be prepaid in money.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

(Inland).

Nothing may be written or printed on the address side of any postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarrass the officers of the Department in dealing with the packet. Any packet which is posted in contravention of this regulation will be liable to be withheld from delivery. Any packet of such a form as to be made up for transmission by post as to be likely to embarrass the officers of the Department is also liable to be withheld from delivery.

Registration and Compensation.

The Postmaster General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules laid down, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £120 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon repayment of a fee in addition to the postage. The scale of fees and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

Fee.	Limit of Compensation.	Fee.	Limit of Compensation.
2d.	£5	9d.	£70
3d.	£10	10d.	£80
4d.	£20	11d.	£90
5d.	£30	1s.	£100
6d.	£40	1s. 1d.	£110
7d.	£50	1s. 2d.	£120
8d.	£60

Acknowledgment of Delivery of Registered Postal Packets.

The sender of an inland registered letter, parcel, or other registered postal packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery to the addressee by paying in advance, at the time of posting, a fee of 2d. in addition to the postage and registration fee. He can also obtain an acknowledgment if he applies after posting and pays 2d. The sender must enter in the form provided for the purpose both his own name and address and the name and address of the person to whom the packet is sent, and he must also affix to the form a stamp of the value of 2d. in payment of the fee. Every inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet should be accompanied by this fee, and should, if possible, be made upon the acknowledgment of delivery form. If it is found that the Department is in fault the inquiry fee will be refunded.

Conveyance of Single Post Letters by Railway.

By an agreement with the Postmaster General certain Railway Companies are permitted to accept and convey by the next available train or steamship Single Inland Post Letters, not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office Letter Box for delivery by postman. In addition to the postage of 1d., which must be prepaid by means of adhesive stamps, the Companies are authorised to charge a fee of 2d. per letter. For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current edition of the Post Office Guide.

N.B.—Save in the case of a letter exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster General (see Post Office Guide), no letter can legally be sent by Railway otherwise than in His Majesty's Mails, or in the manner above described. Any person who sends or conveys or causes to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by the Post a letter not so exempted, or any person who performs, otherwise than by the Post, any services incidental to the conveying of letters from place to place, is liable by statute to heavy penalties.

Re-direction.

1. No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, post cards, newspapers, and half-penny packets, whether registered or not, and whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that they are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, or tampered with.

2. Re-directed letters, &c., which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate; any which appear to have been opened will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets.

3. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

¶ 4. If any registered letter or packet, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter or packet which is marked registered and found in the letter box; and must be surcharged with a registration fee of 4d., minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

5. Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster or to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

6. The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, &c., for a person temporarily leaving home, unless the house be left uninhabited, nor does it undertake to re-direct letters addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings.

Delivery of Letters, &c.

1. All Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, parcels, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office; and from receiving any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of letters, &c.

2. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can have his letters, &c., or parcels delivered at the office if a delivery by Postman is about to take place; but if no delivery is about to take place, any person, on proof of identity, may obtain at the Post Office, without payment, any letters or parcels, registered or not, that may be in the office addressed to him. By payment of a fee of a guinea, delivery at the office of registered letters and parcels which could not be delivered in the ordinary course at the first delivery may be secured even if a delivery is about to take place.

Poste Restante.

1. Letters, &c., addressed to a Poste Restante to be called for are retained for one month, not called for by the end of that time, they are sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal. But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship expected to arrive at that port, it is kept there until the ship's arrival.

In London there is a Poste Restante at the General Post Office, E.C., and at all Branch Post Offices.

¶ In the Provinces the Poste Restante is at the Head Post Offices.

Undelivered Correspondence.

1. On reaching the Returned Letter Office a letter originating in the United Kingdom, at once returned, if possible, to the writer. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an enclosure of importance, the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which, being opened, is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered, unless registered at the time of posting, in which case a registration fee of 2d. is charged on the sender. Letters from abroad are returned unopened to the country of origin, after a brief detention in the Returned Letter Office.

Undelivered halfpenny packets, inland post cards, and newspapers are returned or destroyed when they bear the sender's name and address, with a request for return in case of non-delivery, and they are liable to a second postage for return. The name and address of the sender, with the request for return, should be placed on the outside of such packets before posting, if it is desired to recover them in case of non-delivery. Fuller information will be found in the Post Office Guide.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous, or any living Creature forbidden altogether.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book, card, or article having thereon or on the cover there any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character, may be sent by Post at all, nor any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, nor any living creature (live bees alone excepted), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the Mail or any officer of the Post Office. If any such postal packet be tendered for transmission it is refused, or, if detected in transit, is detained. The contents of any such packet are liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender of it is liable to prosecution by the Department.

For every mile or part of a mile, - 3d.

(Ordinary postage is not charged.)

In the Provinces they are accepted at all Post Offices from which there is a delivery of Telegrams, and are delivered in any part of the Town or Rural District, or in any neighbouring town or village, provided such place can be easily reached by messenger by means of public conveyance or otherwise.

SERVICE II.Express Delivery of Letters, &c., after Transmission by Post.

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery, are sent out by Express Messenger.

Fees.

In addition to the full ordinary postage, the Express fee is :—

For every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery, - 3d.

SERVICE III.Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in advance of the ordinary Deliveries by Postmen.

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, halfpenny packets, and newspapers), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees :—

The full Express fee of 3d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters, &c., are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Offices.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or Chief Officer on duty at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a penny stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by Postmen commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no letters, &c., for the address given are found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the letters.

Unpaid letters from other places are charged 5d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., and partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.

On unpaid and partially paid letters for places abroad double the deficiency is chargeable on delivery.

3. No letter for a Colony or Foreign Country may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

4. The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town and of the province in which it is situated should also be added in English, French, or German.

5. To a few countries exceptional condition apply, such as compulsory prepayment of postage, the collection of an additional charge on delivery, or the absence of arrangement for the complete or even partial registration of letters.

Post Cards.

6. Official Post Cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single Cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d. and Reply Cards with impressed stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

7. Private Post Cards, bearing adhesive stamps of the value of one penny, and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of one penny on each half, may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided that they are in conformity with the official post cards. They must be of the same size and substance as the official cards, and must have the words "Post Card" printed or written on the address side.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) natural history specimens, dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens and scientific specimens generally, when sent for no commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or articles sent by one private individual to another, which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The limit of weight for samples for British colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 ounces.

A packet of samples sent to any British colony or Possession or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

Letters for Passengers on board Mail Packets.

1. Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the Union-Castle Company's packets for the Cape, &c., sailing from Southampton, the packets for United States calling at Queenstown, the packets for Canada calling at Londonderry, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, &c., and the Orient packets from Naples with mails for Australia. Such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received, but they must be registered, the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus :
Mr. _____, on board the mail packet _____, for _____, at Southampton, Queenstown, Londonderry, Lisbon, Brindisi, or Naples, care of the Commander of the packet."

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post.

For particulars of this service see Post Office Guide, which may be inspected at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad, and re-directed under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this Country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

2. Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

*These Postal Orders are of the new pattern, provided with counterfoils. As soon as possible, counterfoil Orders will also be issued for all the values not starred.

By the use of not more than five penny stamps affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount may be made up. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Money Order Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Chief Office.

The holder of a Postal Order may, in writing, on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding 10 days; but in such case the name of some Money Order Office at which the Order shall be paid must be inserted in the body. Payment of the Order will then not be made until the period specified by the holder has elapsed.

Every person before parting with an Order should preserve a note of the number and cypher. If the Order is of the new pattern, the counterfoil should be torn off and retained.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of any Postal Order, unless proof can be given to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that the name of the Payee was inserted in such Order before the holder parted with the same, and unless the number of such Order can be furnished, the Postmaster General cannot undertake to trace such Order with a view to accounting for the miscarriage or loss thereof.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

Deposits of one shilling or more (excluding pence) will be received to the extent of £50 in one year ending 31st December and £200 in all. A person may also replace the amount of one withdrawal during the year. The limits mentioned are irrespective of any sums deposited for immediate investment in Government Stock or for the purchase of Annuities or Life Insurances. Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed on deposits.

Full directions as to the opening of accounts the making of deposits, &c., can be obtained at any of the 14,000 Post Office Savings Banks. Persons desiring to save by means of penny postage stamps may obtain the necessary forms at any Post Office.

Government Stock.

Investments in Government Stock may be made by depositors through the agency of the Post Office in "Two and a half per cent. Consolidated" Stock (1903), "Two and three-quarters per cent." Annuities (1905), "Two and a half per cent." Annuities, and Local Loans "Three per cent." Stock. Printed forms of application and other information may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who may send his reply from any Telegraph Office or use the form to prepay any message within two months, and if the form be not used, the value of it will at any time within the same period be refunded to the sender of the original telegram, i.e., the person who prepaid the reply, on application being made to the Secretary, General Post Office, London. The form must accompany the application for the return of the amount.

Corrected Addresses.

Should the sender of a telegram, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown, furnish a correct address or require the telegram to be presented a second time at the original address, he must pay a further fee of 6d. If, however, the new address is in another town, or, in the case of London, in another postal district, the cost of a fresh telegram must be paid.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should be found that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The sender may also have a telegram repeated back from office to office on payment of an additional half rate at the time of handing in, but in this case no copy of the repetition is given to sender or addressee.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the terminal telegraph office.

Multiple Addresses.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at an additional charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy. Each London Postal District is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London contains one or more registered addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and be paid for.

Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a fee of one guinea per annum. Applications for such addresses should be made to the Chief Office.

FOREIGN.

Foreign telegrams may be written in plain language or in secret language. Secret language comprises code words and figures.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Code words must not contain more than ten letters, and must be drawn from one of the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word. Groups of secret letters are not allowed.

A reply not exceeding thirty words may be prepaid to a foreign telegram. The amount paid for a reply is refunded to the sender of the original telegram if no reply is sent, provided that application is made within three months. Foreign reply forms are only available for six weeks.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying an additional quarter rate plus the charge for an additional word, the expression "TC" being inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

The receiver of a telegram can, by applying within 72 hours after its delivery (Sundays not included), obtain the correction of passages which are doubtful, by paying for two separate telegrams, viz., one requesting the repetition and the other consisting of the reply, plus one word for the name of the addressee. The amount is refunded on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, if the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

If the repetition shows that the repeated words were not all inaccurately transmitted in the first instance, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be refunded.

PRIVATE WIRES.

1. The Department undertakes the construction and maintenance on rental terms, of private telegraph and telephone wires between the offices or houses of firms or private individuals; as well as of telegraph and telephone wires between such offices or houses and Postal Telegraph Offices by means of which the renter can receive telegrams, forward messages for delivery as express or ordinary letters, or obtain the services of express messengers.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C."

The Postmaster-General is not liable for any losses sustained or expenses incurred in consequence of the inaccurate transmission, delay, or non-delivery of a telegram.

SCOTLAND.

LIST OF POST TOWNS.

The hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and therefore cannot be given here. The Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed a Railway Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Travelling Post Office instead of through a Post Town; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1885, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

	Duty per cent.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors,	£1 0
This duty not payable where inventory duty or account stamp duty under 44 Vict. c. 12, or estate duty under 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, paid.

Brother or sister, or their descendants, -	£3	0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	5	0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	6	0
All other relations or strangers, -	10	0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Where a full and true account containing all material facts has been rendered, liability for duty to cease after six years from settlement of account (52 Vict. c. 7, § 14).

Estates not exceeding £300 and deceased dying on or after 1st June, 1881. Payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51; 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22; 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10-12, 14, and 15; 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 18; and 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28; § 23.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, &c. (institute of heir of entail not to be deemed competent to dispose unless entitled to disinherit without consent or having consent valued) and, where not competent to dispose, is on the annual value after allowance of the necessary outgoings as an annuity for the life of the successor, to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty on the capital value, and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personally.

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £6 10s. per cent.

Brothers and sisters of a grandfather or grandmother of predecessor and their descendants, £7 10s. per cent.

Any other person, £11 10s. per cent. See 51 Vict. c. 8, § 21 (1).

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100. 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition.

The duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment.

Duty on successions in arrear, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Liability of purchasers and mortgagees for duty limited to certain specified periods. Where full and true account containing all material facts rendered, liability in certain cases, &c., to cease in six years from settlement of account. Limitation of liability for duty where attested copy of document lodged (52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 12, 13, 14, and 15.)

Note.—Forms of the accounts for Legacy and Succession Duties may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

Where the annual value of each dwelling amounts to £20 but does not exceed £40, assessment will be confined to annual value exclusive of dwellings of annual value below £20 each, and rate will be reduced to 3d.

The defenders are cited before this court on an inducia of six days; warrants to arrest on the dependence are issued; the decree may be extracted and arrestments used upon it immediately after decree is granted; and it may be enforced in all cases by pointing and sale of the debtor's effects. By the "Civil Imprisonment (Scotland) Act, 1882," the power to imprison for aliment and expenses of process was restricted to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six weeks against debtors who wilfully fail to pay sums due for aliment, and the expenses of process for which decree has been granted; but a new warrant of imprisonment may be issued against the same person at intervals of not less than six months for the same sums of aliment and expenses if not paid, or for any part remaining due. Persons who fail to pay taxes cannot be imprisoned for a longer period than six weeks in respect of the rates of any one year.

RELIGIOUS AND MORAL INSTITUTIONS.

GROVE STREET (HOME MISSION) INSTITUTE.

Instituted 1859. Halls erected 1865; extension 1895.

Trustees, The Right Hon. Jas. A. Campbell, Esq.,
 LL.D., M.P., Stracathro; Robt. Boyd, Esq., Sir
 James Bell, Bart., W. A. Campbell, Esq., Sir James King, Bart., John A. Roxburgh, Esq.; hon. president, Ex-Bailie Wm. Bilsland, D.L.; hon. treasurer, John S. Galbraith, Esq., writer, 69 St. Vincent St.

Grove Street Institute is an unsectarian home mission organization, having halls built by public subscription at a cost of over £10,000, and situated on the margin of one of the most densely populated districts of the city. It is entirely dependent on voluntary contributions, and requires £1000 per annum to maintain its work. In addition to the Evangelistic, Medical Mission, Benevolent, and Temperance work, it has departments for fathers, mothers, working-lads, young women, and children—its agencies thus reaching whole families. It has been in operation for forty-five years as an auxiliary to the churches of all denominations, with results which prove the soundness of its principles of mission work, and the great value of organization.

EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY (LONDON),
SCOTTISH BRANCH.

Offices, Grove Street Institute, Glasgow.

Hon. secretary, T. A. Boyd, Esq., Shettleston
 Iron Works; secretary, Mr. E. J. Mitchell, Grove Street Institute. Number of meetings taken annually in Great Britain, over 20,000. Income, £11,000 per year.

The Evangelization Society is a company of preachers associated to preach the Gospel. As individuals they belong to various denominations of the Christian Church, but as Evangelists they belong to none. They go out through the Evangelization Society not as members of any particular Church, but only as Evangelists, to preach Jesus to the unconverted. The Society was established in 1868. Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

GLASGOW JEWISH EVANGELICAL MISSION.

Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place, S.S.

The object of the mission is to bring the gospel home to the minds and hearts of the thousands of Jews who are living in Glasgow. The workers visit from house to house and from shop to shop, and invite the Jews to attend the various meetings, such as bible classes, night schools, and gospel services, &c., held at the Hebrew Christian house, secure medical aid for the sick, and, when necessary, admission to the hospitals. The Jewish poor and refugees are assisted in many ways, amongst others, by finding them employment, and by giving pecuniary aid towards enabling them to earn their own living. The superintendent will gladly supply reports and any information to anyone desiring such.

The committee of the Glasgow Jewish Evangelical Mission desires to call attention to the work carried on by the Rev. Aaron Matthews and his assistants at the Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place, in the hope that if it were more widely known it would receive a more adequate support. For many years past it has been conducted with marked ability, and with many happy results. Numbers of Jews visit the mission. From 50 to 60 regularly attend the Saturday afternoon service, the room being often uncomfortably full. There have been several cases of genuine conversion. A great deal of work of a purely philanthropic nature is also done in helping Jews who come to the city in search of employment, and in relieving families in sickness. The Jewish colony in Glasgow does not number less than 7000, and this number is being increased continually by refugees fleeing from political and religious disabilities on the continent to the toleration and freedom which this country affords. Mr. Matthews has had a long and varied experience in preaching the gospel to his brethren, and does his best to meet, in a discriminating way, really needful cases; but the resources available for the whole work have not, for several years past, been adequate to meet the necessary demand. It is a good and deserving cause, and if a cup of cold water given to another, in the name of a disciple, shall not lose its reward, an additional blessing will belong to those who remember the nation and the people in whose midst the Redeemer of mankind appeared.

President, Rev. Jas. Black, D.D.; honorary treasurer, Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq.; superintendent and secretary, Rev. Aaron Matthews, 12 Abbotsford place (private address, 22 Abbotsford place); committee—Rev. Alex. Brown, Rev. Jervis Coats, D.D., Rev. Robert S. Duff, D.D., Rev. Fergus Ferguson, D.D., Rev. Jas. Kidd, D.D., Rev. Alex. Kirkland, Rev. T. H. Martin, Rev. Jas. Ross; Sir John Neilson Cuthbertson, T. Bost, Esq., Walter Dow, Esq., and John Muir, Esq.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to John Muir, Esq., Laurieston Branch, Bank of Scotland, 1 Bridge Street, Glasgow, or any of the other members of the Finance Committee, viz.:—Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq. (co-avener), Ulverston, Terregles avenue, Pollokshields; Timothy Bost, Esq., 34 Lynedoch street; and Walter Dow, Esq., 6 Dalziel drive, Pollokshields; or to Mr. Matthews, at 22

Abbotsford place, will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged, both by receipt and in the annual report of the mission.

GLASGOW UNITED EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.

Central Offices, 64 Bothwell Street.

This association was formed in 1874, for the purpose of uniting the churches in evangelistic and philanthropic work among the masses. Evangelistic services and open-air preaching are conducted at Tent Hall, Steel Street, off Saltmarket (hall built at a cost of about £17,000); at Bethany Hall, Bernard Street, Bridgeton; at Cranston Hall, Cranstonhill U.F. Church, and at the various branches of Mizpah Band work throughout the city. A Young People's Mission for the city and the country is also conducted. A free breakfast is given every Sabbath in Tent Hall at 8.0 a.m. to about 1500 men and women, gathered from the very poorest; and at 2 o'clock p.m., about 1000 poor children receive a Bible lesson and a dinner, and connected therewith there is the Poor Girls' and Lads' Help, and a Senior and Junior Christian Endeavour Society. There is also the Cripple Children's League of Kindness, in which all the poor invalid children of the city are registered, and in many ways helped and trained. Four Day Refuges are carried on, where children, who are entirely or worse than neglected, receive three meals a day, and are otherwise helped in their education. There are also Homes at Saltoats, in which neglected or abandoned children are entirely supported. In connection with the Free Breakfast, a committee meets in Tent hall every Monday morning at 9.30 to enquire into cases of need. In connection with the children's Sabbath dinner a committee meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m., in the same place, to enquire into the cases of poor children sent from any quarter. Since 1885 107,729 poor children have been sent to the country for a fortnight, in connection with the Fresh-Air Fortnight Scheme. A Bible-Training Institute, of which Mr. J. Anderson is superintendent, is carried on at 64 Bothwell St., to qualify young men and young women for either the Home or Foreign field. There is also the Bonar Memorial Mission to the Jews in Glasgow, at 34 Govan Street. Ordinary income of the association from voluntary contributions, about £20,000 per annum.

MISSION TO LASCARS IN GLASGOW.

(Instituted November 2, 1897.)

Auditor—R. Ferguson, Esq., 212 Bath Street Glasgow.

Missionary and Collector—Mr. Aziz Ahmad, 36 Bank Street, Hillhead

Auditor's Statement—Total Income for 12 months, 2nd November, 1902, to 1st November, 1903, inclusive, £198 19s. 6½d.; Total Expenditure for same period, £198 19s. 6½d

Details of Expenditure—For the support of five missionaries, including hospitality to Lascars, £104 2s. 1½d.; Mission House with half-rent and extra coal and gas, and clothes for Lascars, £26 6s.; Evangelical and Educational Literature, £21 8s. 3d.; Correspondence, Travelling Expenses, and Charities, £47 8s. 1½d.; Total, £198 19s. 6½d.

Average income for six years, £163 8s. 7½d.; Missionary's average salary for six years, £104 14s. 9½d.

This is the only mission doing work among the Lascar sailors in Scotland. There is only one collecting-book in connection with this mission, and it is in the custody of Mr. Aziz Ahmad, the authorised collector, who will be pleased to receive subscriptions from parties interested in the work. The Auditor will also be glad to receive and acknowledge subscriptions for the mission.

Many thousand Lascars visit Glasgow every year. The barriers of race, religion, customs, and language make them extremely difficult of access by European missionaries.

Mr. Aziz Ahmad, assisted by his wife and family, devotes his whole time to the work of preaching the gospel to these Lascars, and teaching them to read the Holy Scriptures, helping them and brightening their lives by entertaining them as far as the means at disposal will permit.

The modest sum of £200 per annum is required for carrying on this good work, and the Christian public are invited to assist by contributing towards defraying the expenses of the mission, which absolutely derives no benefit from the schemes of the churches or from the grant of any society.

The greatest majority of the Lascars are British Indians. Left to themselves, they can only take home unfavourable impressions. This Mission, by introducing them to beautiful sights and kind friends, aims to foster friendliness between Indians and Britons.

R Ferguson, 212 Bath Street, Glasgow.

The mission has homes in Gibraltar and Cairo, where many thousands of soldiers are stationed, and also depôt homes in Inverness and Perth. Office of mission, 45 Hope Street, Glasgow. Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Todd Osborne, Newton-Mearns.

THE EAST-END GOSPEL MISSION

(Church and hall—Suffolk Street and South St.
Mungo Street, Calton.)

AND CHILDREN'S SEA-SIDE HOME AND RETREAT, MOUNT PLEASANT, DUNOON.

This Mission has for its object the elevation, religiously and socially, of the masses of the city slums, principally aiming at those who know no church or other place of worship. In addition to preaching the Gospel, whereby outcasts and fallen are brought to a knowledge of the truth, their temporal wants are cared for. During periods of distress, the Mission has been the means of saving many poor families from utter want and ruin, and to-day numbers are hard-working respectable members of society, who, if solely left to themselves, would be on the downward path of sin and misery. The accounts of the Mission are made up and vouched for periodically.

The Children's Home and Retreat at Dunoon has proved a great boon to the little ones. The greatest care is taken of them. Moral instruction, medical attendance during illness, &c.

The Mission is supported by voluntary subscriptions and donations, and a copy of the Report with certified abstracts of accounts is sent to each subscriber. T. G. A. Scott, general superintendent and founder.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scotch branch office, 302 Buchanan st., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, J. Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway; G. Calthrop, Esq., Caledonian Railway, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, George Cunningham, Esq., North British Railway, D. Deuchars, Esq., North British Railway, Henry Evans, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, F. H. Gillies, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, A. Hillhouse, Esq., Caledonian Railway, W. F. Jackson, Esq., North British Railway, R. Millar, Esq., Caledonian Railway, Wm. Moffatt, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, William Roberts, Esq., Highland Railway, A. Rutherford, Esq., North British Railway, J. S. Stuart, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway; bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Sq. branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s.

(or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Robert Gibb, Caledonian Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow.

DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY, Cathedral Square.

The Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; Jas. Nicol, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; W. S. Peat, hon. secretary; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Cook, bible woman for female prisoners.

103,939 men and 46,888 women, in all 150,827 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us for eight years, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Glasgow Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. There they are met every morning at half past eight by two of our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is not given, the Society being prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the thirteen years of its prosecution 20,704 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1903 work was found for 1248 men.

Admission to the Houses of Shelter in Garnethill, Whitevale Street, and Magdalene Institution, Stirling Road, is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

DOG AND CAT HOME FOR GLASGOW AND WEST OF SCOTLAND,

Craigton, Ibrox; office, 28 Bath Street.
Established in 1894.

Chairman, Rev. John Brown, B.D., Bellahouston; secretary, Henry F. Lowndes, Esq., writer; superintendent, Mr. Jas. Watson.

The objects of the Home are:—(1) To clear the streets of stray dogs, with the co-operation of the police, and rescue lost dogs and cats from starvation and ill treatment, and, when necessary, to destroy them mercifully; (2) to find homes for useful and valuable animals; (3) to lodge dogs and cats at a reasonable charge. Dogs and cats are painlessly destroyed by request of their owners by means of a Lethal chamber at nominal charges. These can either be received at the home, or sent for as may be arranged. Note.—No animals suffering from contagious or infectious diseases are admitted. The home may be visited daily from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Closed on Sundays unless on special business.

To maintain the Home sufficiently involves the expenditure of a considerable sum annually, and the committee, while gratefully acknowledging the generous aid they have already received, earnestly hope that a widespread support will be given for this very necessary purpose.

SCOTTISH LABOUR COLONY ASSOCIATION Mid-Locharwoods, Ruthwell, R.S.O.

This charitable institution was established in 1897 for the purpose of providing work for unemployed able-bodied men, under the healthy and desirable conditions of farm labour, in exchange for food and shelter, with a small cash bonus in cases of merit. The men are first tested in the Kyle Street Shelter of the Charity Organization Society, and, if deserving, drafted to the Colony, where they stay for three or four months. Thereafter, suitable situations are obtained for them. The farm is situated about eight miles from Dumfries, and borders the Lochar Moss, which extends inland for over ten miles, affording abundance of work in its reclamation for many years to come. The scheme is a practical Christian social and successful work for reclaiming unfortunates and social breakdowns, and forms one of the best solutions to the difficult problem of how to provide work for the mass of the unemployed.

Nearly 300 men have been dealt with, and the majority report "Doing well."

The farm has just been purchased in order to secure the benefits of all improvements, but there is a debt of £3500 over it, and the directors are anxious to see this cleared off. About £300 to £600 per annum is also required to maintain the work.

Contributions thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. treasurer, John W. Gourlay, C.A., 180 Hope Street, Glasgow.

The Society has also established a News Boys' Night Shelter, where a number of the most necessitous of these poor children are received. The total expenditure of the society for the past year was £5845 12s. 0½d. The work is carried on gratuitously by 793 active members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the archdiocese of Glasgow. Pres., Mrs. Ure, Cairndhu, Helensburgh; secy., Miss Telford; treasurer, Mrs. Barclay, 8 Windsor cir.

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

THE GLASGOW AGED SEAMEN RELIEF FUND.

Hon. vice-presidents, The Lord Provost, Sir Jas. King, Bart., and others; chairman of committee, W. G. Gardiner (of James Gardiner & Co.); G. W. Service, 175 West George Street, hon. secretary and treasurer.

This society has been formed for the relief of old and infirm seamen, of whom there are large numbers in the city of Glasgow and district, whose means of support are extremely limited, and many of whom are practically destitute. The society gives assistance, by pensions or otherwise, to seamen connected with Glasgow and district, who have served for at least twenty-five years at sea, and are in want, and whose service has, at least in part, been in Glasgow-owned ships. The committee feel that this society should commend itself generally to the citizens of Glasgow, the great wealth and advancement of the city being very much dependent on its connection with the sea. The committee therefore make an urgent appeal for contributions, as there are at present many deserving cases being declined on account of insufficiency of funds. Subscriptions, donations, and legacies may be sent to the honorary secretary and treasurer, G. W. Service, 175 West George Street.

THE HOUSES OF SHELTER.

THE HOUSE OF SHELTER, 114 HILL STREET, GARNETHILL.

"The Shelter" was instituted in 1850. Its object is to provide a home for females who, on their liberation from prison, are desirous to reform and to support themselves by honest industry. The number of inmates in "the Shelter" is generally 50. They are employed in needlework, the institution receiving the proceeds of their labour, in return for which the inmates are lodged, fed, and clothed. In addition to this, a suitable outfit is given to those who remain a full year, and go out with the approval of the committee; and an effort is made to find suitable employment for the women when they leave the Home.

WHITEVALE SHELTER, 15 WHITEVALE STREET (Prison Gate Mission).

This Home was begun in 1878, and its object also is to provide for females who have been in prison, and desire to lead a better life. The two homes are worked much on the same lines as to the length of stay required and the food and outfit given; also as to the effort made to find occupation for the women when they leave, after remaining their full time—i.e., a year. The special feature of the Whitevale Shelter is its large washing-house and laundry, in which the greater number of the 70 women are employed, the rest being engaged in sewing, with the exception of a few, who are occupied in knitting or housework.

Both Homes are equally dependent on the public for employment. Our Bible Woman meets the female prisoners daily at the Prison Gate on their liberation from Prison.

The Institute was established to promote a taste for art generally, and more especially to encourage contemporary art, and to further the diffusion of artistic and æsthetic knowledge, and to aid the study, advancement, and development of art in its applications. This it has done in various ways, but chiefly by means of exhibitions, which have been held annually since 1861, the average number of works shown during recent years being about 800. South Avenue, Copland Road, Govan.

The Home was instituted in the year 1901 with the object of bringing within the reach of the rural population of Scotland the Holt-Ockley system of nursing, which has proved very successful in England. The objects of the home as now developed are the following:—(1) To provide nursing in their own homes in maternity and other cases for the working classes and the poor of Govan and surrounding district, without distinction of creed. (2) To train women in district nursing to fit them for work as village nurses in rural districts. (3) To train women as rural certificated midwives for the Highlands, or other country districts, where these may be required. During 1903 the cases and visits were as follows:—Maternity cases attended, 304; general cases nursed, 187; visits paid by the nurses, 12,788. The Elder Cottage Hospital, which owes its origin to Mrs. John Elder's generosity, is worked in connection with the Training Home. Small fees are charged for the nurses' services to the working classes of Govan and district (the necessitous being nursed free of charge), and fees are also paid by District Associations for the training of nurses; but the Home requires an income of at least £250 per annum from voluntary subscriptions. Receiving Hour, 1 to 2 p.m.

Consulting Hour, 2 p.m.

"The Institution has now entered on its eighteenth year of usefulness. During the last Seventeen years 2019 patients were treated for Cancer (488 males and 1531 females), and 16,208 patients suffering from Diseases of the Skin."

The outstanding features of the Institution continue to be:—(1) The advancement of medical and surgical science in relation to the treatment of Cancer and allied diseases, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use, and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding, the use of the knife. In other words, the Therapeutic treatment of Cancer as distinguished from operative. (2) Affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to women—whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured by them before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless patients that have to be dealt with from day to day.

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances.

LIBRARIES, NEWS-ROOMS, AND NEWSPAPER OFFICES.

STIRLING'S & GLASGOW PUBLIC LIBRARY.

48 Miller Street.

Stirling's Public Library was founded by Walter Stirling, merchant and ex-bailie of the city, and son of Dr. William Stirling, a well-known Glasgow surgeon of the last century. The bequest came into effect at the death of Mr. Stirling on 18th January, 1791. It consisted of the founder's own library (802 volumes), his house in Miller Street (where the library now stands), a share in the Tontine Society, and the sum of £1000. Mr. Stirling directed that the library was to be free to any one, and was to exist in perpetuity. In 1825 Mr. William Jameson, jun., bequeathed his books to the library. In 1871 Dr. Scouler, professor of mineralogy in the Royal Society of Dublin, bequeathed his collection of books; and in the same year the Glasgow Public Library, a subscription lending library started in 1804, amalgamated with Stirling's Library, and the title then became Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library.

The library contains over 50,000 volumes and pamphlets, including many rare, valuable, and useful works. It possesses several manuscripts (two on vellum), and nearly thirty examples of fifteenth century printing, the earliest being 1469, or fourteen years after the issue of the first printed book. It is the depository of the only complete set in the West of Scotland of the publications of His Majesty's Patent Office, which consist of over 150,000 separate publications. They date from 1617 when the first British patent was enrolled, and come up to the latest patents issued. The Board of Trade recently presented a complete set of the Trade Marks Journal to the library, and supply the current numbers as issued. The Government of the United States have also presented their Specifications of Patents from the 28th March, 1893, and continue to supply the current numbers as issued.

The foundation being inadequate for the proper maintenance of the library the directors organized a system of lending of books. This has been immensely developed in recent years, and a large supply of new books and magazines—over 2000 copies annually of the latter—render it one of the best, as it is by far the most extensive and most moderately rated lending library in the city and district. The terms are—For two books and one magazine at a time, one year, 10s. 6d.; six months, 7s. 6d.; life, £5 5s.; for one book (no magazine) at a time, one year, 5s. 3d. Members may join at any time (no entry money), and may change their books and magazines singly or together as often as they choose. The library is open every lawful day from 10 a.m. till 10 p.m.

Board of Directors—President, Sir J. Ure Primrose, Bart., the Hon. the Lord Provost; vice-president, J. B. Murdoch; elected by the Town Council, Councillor Joseph Burgess, Councillor Walter Paton, Councillor Andrew Scott Gibson; elected by the Merchants' House, John A. Galbraith, John Gibb Ure, and Wm. Robertson; elected by the Presbytery of Glasgow, Rev. D. Millar, M.A., Rev. G. Gibson Gunn, M.A., and Rev. John Maclean, D.D.; elected by the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. Wm. NATIONAL THRIFT SOCIETY OF SCOTLAND.

Office: 81 St. George's Place, Glasgow.

(London Office: 1 Finsbury Circus, E.C.)

The National Thrift Society has for its object the encouragement and promotion of thrift in various ways, and especially by holding meetings and thrift chats, publishing and circulating thrift literature, establishing district penny banks in connection with savings banks, and co-operating with other institutions for promoting the welfare and social improvement of the industrial classes and young people throughout the country. The Society is entirely unsectarian and unpolitical, and its operations are carried on amongst all classes of the community. Thrift publications for distribution will be forwarded to donors and subscribers when desired, or to any institution mentioned by them for this purpose.

Clergymen and others who may be desirous of having thrift meetings or a distribution of thrift literature, at schools, institutions, mission halls, &c.; and employers of labour who may be willing to have "thrift chats" at factories, ironworks, shipbuilding yards, &c., are requested to communicate with the Secretary.

The Society is maintained by voluntary contributions from employers and others, and any who may be disposed to accord it their support are invited to send their names to the Secretary. Lectures and meetings on thrift are given free of charge, and the publications issued by the Society are for gratuitous distribution. Thomas Bowden Green, 81 St. George's Place, Glasgow, Secretary.

Large Compound Bonuses. The Society being purely Mutual, all the profits belong to the assured. At the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1900, the large Compound Bonus of £1 15s. per cent. per annum was declared. The profits distributed have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are now more than doubled in amount.

Assurance at Cost Price. Under the Society's popular MINIMUM PREMIUM SYSTEM, introduced upwards of fifty years ago, the premium payable at age 30, for an ordinary "With Profit" Policy for £1000, will assure at once the sum of £1326, thus practically securing from the commencement of the Policy a Bonus of £326.

Examples of Premiums to assure £100 at Death. Minimum System.

Absolute Security. The Funds amount to £4,500,000, being more than 17 years' purchase of the Premium Income. The Valuation of the Society's Liabilities as at 31st December, 1900, made by the most stringent tests applied to any similar institution, shows that the SOCIETY'S RESERVES ARE UNSURPASSED by those of any other Life Assurance Office.

Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Non-Forfeitable Policies, etc.

LIFE ASSURANCE WITH INVESTMENT.

DURING the past fifteen years the Bonuses (when by choice of the Assured appropriated to increase the amount of the policy) have represented an addition of £15 10s. per annum to every £1,000 assured.

At this rate a man assuring at the age of 30 (next birthday) at the beginning of a valuation period, would at the end of 30 years receive £1,000

Bonuses 465

£1,465

And he would have paid to the Company the maximum number (30) annual Premiums of £33 13s. 4d. = £1,010.

Should he not live to the end of the term, then the £1,000 assurance with Bonuses would be secured to the representatives in the same manner as under the Whole Life Assurance Table. These Policies are Non-Forfeitable; that is to say, they do not become void by non-payment of the Premium, provided that two Premiums have been paid, but remain in force for such proportion of the original sum assured as the number of Premiums paid bears to the whole number originally payable. The Premiums for larger or smaller amounts are pro rata.

WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW.

(For list of Managers, Medical Officers, and other particulars, see page 141 in the Appendix).

STATEMENT AND APPEAL.

I. The Western Infirmary has between 400 and 500 beds, and a Dispensary for the treatment of out-door patients.

II. During the year (ending 31st October, 1903) 84,713 visits were made to the Dispensary by out-door patients. The number of patients treated in the wards was 5984.

The cost for maintenance during the past year was £31,210 3s. 9d.; and as the ordinary income from all sources during the same period was only £20,376 19s. 0d. the necessity for new and increased support will readily be seen. The Managers are making a special appeal for funds to erect a new wing. The number of cases on the books awaiting admission during the past year averaged over 300, the majority of these being surgical cases. There is only cubic capacity for 416 beds, while the average number of beds fully occupied was 44·89. This overcrowding is very much to be regretted, but it is due to circumstances over which the Managers have no control. Accidents and urgent cases require to be admitted at any hour. Accommodation for these must be made when they occur, and the number of such cases is rapidly increasing. Ten years ago only 436 persons suffering from accidents were admitted to the wards during the year, while last year accommodation had to be provided for 1109 cases of serious injury. There is ample room on the present site for an addition to the existing buildings of a wing capable of accommodating 250 beds. The sum required for this extension is about £70,000.

III. The Managers take the liberty of drawing attention to the subjoined Form of Bequest, in the hope that from this source they may be enabled gradually to accumulate a special fund from the investment of which, in so far as it is not required for contingencies, a considerable supplementary revenue may in time be derived.

NOTE.—There are already 27 beds endowed in perpetuity, most of them in name of deceased relatives whose names the donors desire to associate with the relief of suffering. The sum required for endowment of a bed is the capital sum necessary to produce £50 per annum.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE WESTERN INFIRMARY.

I _____ of _____ do hereby leave to the WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW (Incorporated), free of legacy duty and charges, a Legacy of * _____ pounds sterling, which I authorise and direct my Executors to pay to the Treasurer, Secretary, or any two Managers thereof for the time being, upon his or their receipt, which shall be a sufficient discharge.

Dated at _____, this* _____ day of _____ Nineteen Hundred and _____ years.

(Testator's Signature).

* Sum and Date to be expressed in words, not in figures.

Funds are required and earnestly solicited for the upkeep of the Infirmary; all Annual Contributions and Donations sent to the Subscribers will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged.

THE "PROTECTED" POLICY.

To those who depend on their personal labour for income, which ceases at their death, a class that forms the largest part of the community, the Assurance of their lives is a matter of the highest importance. No other means exist by which such workers can at once create a constant capita—at once, because from the moment of the payment of the first premium the amount assured becomes payable at death, however soon it may take place, and constant, because it is continued at every payment of premium.

But the continued paying of this premium is often a cause of anxiety, lest there should come a time when, from accident or bodily or mental disorder, the Assured is incapacitated from making such payment, because of want of ability to pursue his ordinary occupation.

The Star Life Assurance Society, with a view of providing for this contingency, is prepared, on proof of age, to issue Policies upon the lives of males between the ages of 24 and 45 years, whose occupations do not involve undue exposure to risk, and who are found to be assurable at ordinary rates, protecting against this contingency.

All kinds of Life Assurance effected.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the “GLENBOIG” and “STAR GLENBOIG” brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.

The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting “Glenboig” alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

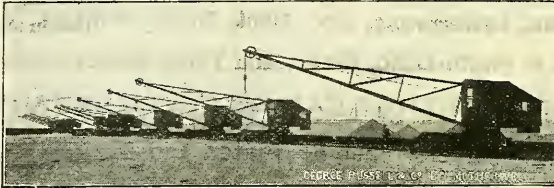

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the “brand” is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word “Glenboig” are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.

Glazed Sewage Pipes, and the Glenboig Junctions, Traps, and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the surest preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.

PICKED PENS FOR PARTICULAR PEOPLE.

NO pen is better known throughout the world than the WAVERLEY PEN, 6d. and 1/- per box, 3/6 per gross.  It glides sweetly over the paper. One of our most influential newspapers has in truth declared that the Waverley Pen is a treasure. PERHAPS the next most popular pen is the J Pen, and this is a specimen of MACNIVEN & CAMERON'S J PEN, 6d. and 1/- per box, 2/- per gross (black). The point will  not be found harsh when the pen is first used, as is too often the case with J pens of various makers. IF the writer writes on the side of the pen, THE LANTERN PEN, 6d. and 1/- per box, 3/6 per gross, is the pen to be used, and  satisfaction will be the result. The Lantern Pen is really a steel quill pen. NEXT we present the Castle Pen, a shoulder pen of a pattern greatly favoured by many writers. It is equally suitable for correspondence or for ledger work. The CASTLE PEN, 6d. and 1/- per box, 3/- per gross,  is made of steel, which is gilt with the gold in order to resist the action of the ink.

PENS made of steel necessarily require more time to wear themselves into the particular manner in which the person holds his pen, and by this time the corrosive action of the ink may have finished off the pen. After study and experiment we have brought out the SUAVITER PEN, 6d. and 1/- per box, 3/- per gross — a pen of special non-corrodible  metal which will be found to be the most quickly adaptable pen to the character of the writer's hand, while at the same time durable and flexible.

All MACNIVEN & CAMERON'S Pens, which are procurable at the Stationers, are made of the finest metals, and every pen is separately examined by experienced hands, and any found defective are discarded.

THE WHOLE SURPLUS goes to the Policyholders, on a system at once safe and equitable—the immediate assurance for the Premium payable being exceptionally large. The Surplus is reserved exclusively for the Policies of those Members who prove to be good lives.

The Surplus at the 1901 Investigation was £1,581,000.

Over 60 per cent. of the Members who died during last Septennium were entitled to Bonuses which, notwithstanding that the Premiums do not as a rule exceed the non-profit rates of other Offices, were, on the average, equal to an addition of over 50 per cent. to the Original Assurances.

Accumulated Funds, £13,000,000
