Offices marked thus (*) are Money Order offices and Savings Banks; those marked thus (t) are Telegraph Offices.

ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

Inland Letters.*

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 4 oz. 1d., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional 2 oz.

* Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered inland newspaper, whether posted singly or with others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight.

2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

3. Any publication fulfilling the conditions for registration set forth in the Post Office Guide can upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

4. No packet of newspapers may exceed 5 lb. in weight, 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

5. A newspaper must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp, or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

6. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) A newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

(c) A newspaper may not contain any enclosure (except supplements).

(d) A newspaper and the cover of a newspaper may not bear anything except the names, addresses, and descriptions of the sender and the addressee, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed.

For any infringement of these regulations newspapers are liable to be surcharged.

*Halfpenny Packets.

For a weight not exceeding 2 oz. $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

A halfpenny packet posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage.

No halfpenny packet may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

Post Cards.—Official and Private.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, and official Reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them, can be bought at every Post Office.

2. Nothing whatever may be attached, except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below $3\frac{1}{4}$ by $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Stamps in payment of postage must be affixed to the face of the card (i.e., to the side which bears the address). If any of these rules be infringed, the card is treated as a letter liable on delivery to the usual charges.

3. Private Cards prepaid $\frac{1}{4}$ d. each and Private Reply Cards with a halfpenny stamp on each half can also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the Official Post Card. They may not exceed $5\frac{1}{2}$ by $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches in size, or be less than $3\frac{1}{2}$ by $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Neither half of a Private Reply Card may exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum size above stated. The rules in the preceding paragraph also apply to Private Post Cards. A Private Post Card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

4. It will be seen from the foregoing rules that there is no legal way of sending a written letter through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a Post Card. A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened letters may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the minimum postage upon all written letters (which are not written on Post Cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen. The words "Parcel Post" should be written or printed on the left-hand side, immediately above the address.

N.B.—The sender's name and address should appear on the cover, or within the parcel.

2. Any packet or parcel marked "Parcel Post," and posted contrary to this regulation, will, unless admissible and fully prepaid at the letter rate, be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient postage at the parcel rate.

3. The rates of postage are :—

For a parcel—	s.	d.
For a weight not exceeding 1 lb.	0	3
Exceeding 1 lb. but not 2 lb.	0	4
" 2 lb. " 3 lb.	0	5
" 3 lb. " 4 lb.	0	6
" 4 lb. " 5 lb.	0	7
" 5 lb. " 6 lb.	0	8
" 6 lb. " 7 lb.	0	9
" 7 lb. " 8 lb.	0	10
" 8 lb. " 9 lb.	0	11
" 9 lb. " 11 lb.	1	0

* The special conditions under which circulars, invoices, deeds, &c., may be sent as halfpenny packets are given in the Post Office Guide, which may be inspected at any Post Office.

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—

Greatest length - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of the posting of a parcel can be obtained at the time at any Post Office. This certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to an Officer of the Post Office, who will sign and return it to him.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

7. Parcels may be addressed to and obtained at Post Offices under the same regulations, generally, as letters.

8. Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept (unless containing perishable articles) for three weeks. After they have remained in the office one clear day, they are liable to a charge of 1d. a day, called "demurrage." This charge is not made in respect of Sundays, holidays, &c., nor is it levied on parcels addressed to persons residing outside the free delivery, or to persons on board ship.

9. Parcels may be obtained at a Post Office by persons not residing within a free delivery, or by persons residing within the free delivery, provided there is no immediate delivery by the usual means; but when parcels addressed to a Post Office, for persons residing within the free delivery, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, they are not delivered to callers, but are sent out for delivery in the usual way; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

Re-direction.

10. A charge at the full rate of postage originally payable is usually made for every re-direction. But no fresh charge is made if the original and corrected addresses are both in a delivery from the same Post Office, provided that re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction, and the parcel is not at the time of re-direction, lying at a Returned Letter Office. Persons desiring parcels to be re-directed as well as letters, &c., must fill up two re-direction notices, one for parcels, and one for letters and other postal packets. If the notice for letters be alone filled up, parcels will not be forwarded.

Undelivered Parcels.

11. When a parcel bearing on its outside the name and address of the sender cannot be delivered owing to wrong or insufficient address, or from any other cause, it is retained at the Head Post Office of the District, and a notice is forwarded to the sender stating that the parcel will be given up free of charge on application at that office, or that it will be forwarded to a fresh address or returned to him on payment of a fresh postage. If the parcel be not applied for, or the proper charges paid for forwarding it, within six days from the date of the notice, the parcel is sent to the Returned Letter Office of the District.

12. An undelivered parcel which does not bear the name and address of the sender outside is sent to the District Returned Letter Office, and if on its being opened the sender's name and address are found, it is treated in accordance with the preceding rule. If not, the name of the addressee and other particulars are entered on a list exhibited at the Returned Letter Office in question.

13. All undelivered parcels are retained at a Returned Letter Office for three months, after which time they are disposed of, if still unclaimed. If, however, the contents of a parcel become, or are likely to become, offensive or injurious, or worthless through natural decay, they are liable to be disposed of forthwith.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

14. The Postmaster General is not legally liable to make good any claim arising out of the conveyance of a parcel sent by post.

15. Nevertheless, if the parcel is registered, compensation will be given subject to the exceptions (including money) and conditions specified under the heading of "Registration and Compensation" in the Post Office Guide.

16. If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster General will, subject to certain conditions, accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage.

17. To secure compensation for loss a certificate of posting must be obtained at the time of posting.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the prepayment of telegrams, of the respective values of $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s., 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1 [the higher priced stamps are not kept at offices at which no demand for them is likely to arise];—registered letter envelopes;—newspaper wrappers with impressed halfpenny and penny postage stamps;—Inland and Foreign Post Cards, Envelopes with embossed stamps, and Letter Cards.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of stamps which have been torn, defaced, cut, or otherwise rendered imperfect. In the term "defaced postage stamps" is included stamps marked by the purchasers with any written, printed, or stamped characters, but not those bearing initials of firms, &c., defined by perforations.

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any Post Office, stating the value of the stamps and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the payment of the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. commission, will be sent by post from the Chief Office of Account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. Stamps offered for sale must not be less than a total value of £1.

Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House, London, W.C., can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office. Application should also be made there, or to District Stamp Distributors, for allowance on spoilt stamps, &c.

Prepayment in Money.

The prepayment of Inland letters, private post cards, newspapers, halfpenny packets, and parcels can, as a rule, only be effected by means of postage stamps.

In London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and Glasgow, however, and a few large provincial towns, prepayment can be made in money under certain conditions, which can be learnt on application at the offices, or from the Post Office Guide. Newspapers cannot be prepaid in money.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

(Inland).

Nothing may be written or printed on the address side of any postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarrass the officers of the Department in dealing with the packet. Any packet which is posted in contravention of this regulation will be liable to be withheld from delivery. Any packet of such a form or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely to embarrass the officers of the Department is also liable to be withheld from delivery.

Registration and Compensation.

The Postmaster General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules laid down, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £400 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon prepayment of a fee in addition to the postage. The scale of fees and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

Fee.	Limit of Compensation.	Fee.	Limit of Compensation.

Acknowledgment of Delivery of Registered Postal Packets.

The sender of an inland registered letter parcel, or other registered postal packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery to the addressee by paying in advance, at the time of posting, a fee of 2d. in addition to the postage and registration fee. He can also obtain an acknowledgment if he applies after posting and pays 2d. The sender must enter in the form provided for the purpose both his own name and address and the name and address of the person to whom the packet is sent, and he must also affix to the form a stamp of the value of 2d. in payment of the fee. Every inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet should be accompanied by this fee, and should, if possible, be made upon the acknowledgment of delivery form. If it is found that the Department is in fault the inquiry fee will be refunded.

Conveyance of Single Post Letters by Railway.

By an agreement with the Postmaster General certain Railway Companies are permitted to accept and convey by the next available train or steamship Single Inland Post Letters, not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office Letter Box for delivery by postman. In addition to the postage of 1d., which must be prepaid by means of adhesive stamps, the Companies are authorised to charge a fee of 2d. per letter. For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current edition of the Post Office Guide.

N.B.—Save in the case of a letter exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster General (see Post Office Guide), no letter can legally be sent by Railway otherwise than in His Majesty's Mails, or in the manner above described. Any person who sends or conveys or causes to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by the Post a letter not so exempted, or any person who performs, otherwise than by the Post, any services incidental to the conveying of letters from place to place, is liable by statute to heavy penalties.

Re-direction.

1. No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, post cards, newspapers, and halfpenny packets, whether registered or not, and whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that they are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, or tampered with.

2. Re-directed letters, &c., which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate; any which appear to have been opened will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets.

3. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

4. If any registered letter or packet, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter or packet which is marked registered and found in the letter box; and must be surcharged with a registration fee of 4d., minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

5. Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster or to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

6. The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, &c., for a person temporarily leaving home, unless the house be left uninhabited, nor does it undertake to re-direct letters addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings.

Delivery of Letters, &c.

1. All Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, parcels, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office; and from receiving any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of letters, &c.

2. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can have his letters, &c., or parcels delivered at the office if a delivery by Postman is about to take place; but if no delivery is about to take place, any person, on proof of identity, may obtain at the Post Office, without payment, any letters or parcels, registered or not, that may be in the office addressed to him provided that the correspondence is readily accessible at the time. By payment of a fee of a guinea, delivery at the office of registered letters and parcels which could not be delivered in the ordinary course at the first delivery may be secured even if a delivery is about to take place.

Poste Restante.

1. Letters, &c., addressed to a Poste Restante to be called for are retained for one month. If not called for by the end of that time, they are sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal. But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

In London there is a Poste Restante at the General Post Office, E.C., and at all Branch Offices.

In the Provinces the Poste Restante is at the Head Post Offices.

Undelivered Correspondence.

1. On reaching the Returned Letter Office, a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once returned, if possible, to the writer. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an enclosure of importance, the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which, on being opened, is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered, and unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged on the sender. Letters from abroad are returned unopened to the country of origin, after a brief detention in the Returned Letter Office.

Undelivered halfpenny packets, inland post cards, and newspapers are returned only when they bear the sender's name and address with a request for return in case of non-delivery, and they are liable to a second postage for return. The name and address of the sender, with the request for return, should be placed on the outside of such packets before posting, if it is desired to recover them in case of non-delivery. Fuller information will be found in the Post Office Guide.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous, or any living Creature forbidden altogether.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book, card, or any article having thereon or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character, may be sent by Post at all, nor any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, nor any living creature (live bees alone excepted), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the Mails or any officer of the Post Office. If any such postal packet be tendered for transmission, it is refused, or, if detected in transit, it is detained. The contents of any such packet are liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender of it is liable to prosecution by the Department.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

Postal Packets, Letters, and Parcels, are delivered by Express Messenger under the following Services, viz. :—

SERVICE I.Local. Express Throughout.

Under this Service, Messages, Letters, Parcels, and other articles are conveyed the entire distance by Special Messenger.

Charges.

For a Letter, Packet, or other Article, the Express Fee (inclusive of charges for omnibus, tramcar, railway, &c.) is

For every mile or part of a mile, - 3d.

(Ordinary postage is not charged.)

In the Provinces they are accepted at all Post Offices from which there is a delivery of Telegrams, and are delivered in any part of the Town or Rural District, or in any neighbouring town or village, provided such place can be easily reached by messenger by means of public conveyance or otherwise.

SERVICE II.Express Delivery of Letters, &c., after Transmission by Post.

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery, are sent out by Express Messenger.

Fees.

In addition to the full ordinary postage, the Express fee is :—

For every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery, - - - 3d.

SERVICE III.Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in advance of the ordinary Deliveries by Postmen.

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, halfpenny packets, and newspapers), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees :—

The full Express fee of 3d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters, &c., are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Offices.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or Chief Officer on duty at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a penny stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by Postmen commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no letters, &c., for the address given are found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the letters.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. All provincial Post Offices, whether in town or country, are open for every description of business on week days (Bank Holidays excepted) from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

2. In all offices, whether Head or Country Sub-Offices, which are open to the Public for a longer period, viz., from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., the sale of postage stamps, registration of letters, &c., and acceptance of parcels, is continued during all the hours in which they are so open; unless the offices are open for telegraph business only, in which case the sale of postage stamps only is continued. Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. In those places, however, where one afternoon in the week is observed as a half-holiday, Town Sub-Offices are in many cases closed early.

3. In all Money Order Offices, and in most of the smaller Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, postal orders are sold and paid during all the hours in which such offices are open, but no postal order can be sold or paid before 7 a.m. or after 10 p.m.

4. The Post Office is not, by law, responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter or other postal packet, nor from any injury which a packet may sustain during its transmission.

5. No letter or other packet once posted can be withheld from despatch or delivery at the request of the Sender.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

Foreign and Colonial.

Letters.

1. Letters posted unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, for any country to which prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers.

2. Unpaid letters from British Possessions to which penny postage applies are charged 2d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., and partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. Unpaid letters from all other places are charged 5d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., and partially paid letters are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.

On unpaid and partially paid letters for places abroad double the deficiency is chargeable on delivery.

3. No letter for a Colony or Foreign Country may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

4. The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town, and of the province in which it is situated, should also be added in English, French, or German.

5. To a few countries exceptional conditions apply, such as compulsory prepayment of postage, the collection of an additional charge on delivery, or the absence of arrangements for the complete or even partial registration of letters.

Post Cards.

6. Official Post Cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single Cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d., and Reply Cards with impressed stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

7. Private Post Cards, bearing adhesive stamps of the value of one penny, and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of one penny on each half, may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided that they are in conformity with the official post cards. They must be of the same size and substance as the official cards, and must have the words "Post Card" printed or written on the address side.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) natural history specimens, dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens and scientific specimens generally, when sent for non-commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or articles sent by one private individual to another, which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The limit of weight for samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 ounces.

A packet of samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

Letters for Passengers on board Mail Packets.

1. Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the Union-Castle Company's packets for the Cape, &c., sailing from Southampton; the packets for United States calling at Queenstown, the packets for Canada calling at Londonderry, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, and the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, &c. Such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received, but they must be registered, the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. _____, on board the mail packet _____, for _____, at Southampton, Queenstown, Londonderry, Lisbon, or Brindisi, care of the Commander of the packet."

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post.

For particulars of this service see Post Office Guide, which may be inspected at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad, and re-directed under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this Country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

2. Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

Postal Orders for 19s. and 20s. are sold with a 6d. stamp affixed to meet the needs of persons who wish to purchase Orders of the value of 19s. 6d. and 20s. 6d.

By the use of not more than three stamps affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount may be made up. Odd half-pence will not be paid. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Money Order Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of any Postal Order, unless proof can be given to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that the name of the Payee was inserted in such Order before the holder parted with the same, and unless the number of such Order can be furnished, the Postmaster General cannot undertake to trace such Order with a view to accounting for the miscarriage or loss thereof.

TELEGRAPHS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 12 words is 6d.; every additional word, $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

Interleaved books containing twenty stamped message forms, for Inland Telegrams only, and a sheet of carbonic paper, may be obtained at the principal Telegraph Offices, price 10s. 2d. per book.

Every word telegraphed is charged for, whether in the addresses or text.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who may send his reply from any Telegraph Office or use the form to prepay any message within two months, and if the form be not used, the value of it will at any time within the same period be refunded to the sender of the original telegram, i.e., the person who prepaid the reply, on application being made to the Secretary, General Post Office, London. The form must accompany the application for the return of the amount.

Corrected Addresses.

Should the sender of a telegram, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown, furnish a correct address or require the telegram to be presented a second time at the original address, he must pay a further fee of 6d. If, however, the new address is in another town, or, in the case of London, in another postal district, the cost of a fresh telegram must be paid.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should be found that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The sender may also have a telegram repeated back from office to office on payment of an additional half rate at the time of handing in, but in this case no copy of the repetition is given to sender or addressee.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, portorage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery.

Multiple Addresses.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at an additional charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy. Each London Postal District is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London contains one or more registered addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and be paid for.

Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a fee of one guinea per annum. Applications for such addresses should be made to the Chief Office.

FOREIGN.

Foreign telegrams may be written in plain language or in secret language. Secret language comprises code words and figure or letter cypher.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Words in plain language in the text of a mixed telegram (that is a telegram containing words in plain language and words in code language) are charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word, any excess being charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word.

Code words must not contain more than ten letters, and must be drawn from one of the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin; the artificial words must be pronounceable according to the usages of one of those languages.

Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum, or incorrectly joined together contrary to the usage of the language, are inadmissible.

In cypher language, which comprises groups of figures or letters having a secret meaning, the groups are counted at five figures or letters to a word. Figure and letter cypher cannot be combined in one telegram.

A reply of any length may be prepaid to a foreign telegram. The amount paid for a reply is refunded to the sender of the original telegram if no reply is sent, provided that application is made within three months. Foreign reply forms are only available for six weeks.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying an additional quarter rate plus the charge for an additional word, the expression "TC" being inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

The receiver of a telegram can obtain the correction of passages which are doubtful, by paying for two separate telegrams, viz., one requesting the repetition and the other consisting of the reply, plus one word for the name of the addressee. The amount is refunded on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, if the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

If the repetition shows that the repeated words were not all inaccurately transmitted in the first instance, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be refunded.

The Department undertakes the construction and maintenance on rental terms, of private telegraph and telephone wires between the offices or houses of firms or private individuals; as well as of telegraph and telephone wires between such offices or houses and Postal Telegraph Offices by means of which the renter can receive telegrams, forward messages for delivery as express or ordinary letters, or obtain the services of express messengers.

SCOTLAND.

LIST OF POST TOWNS.

The hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and therefore cannot be given here. The Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed an Independent Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Head Post Office other than its own Head Office; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose, whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

ADHESIVE STAMPS. See p. 63.

ADMISSION as an advocate, - - - £50.

If previously admitted as barrister in Ireland, £10.

Exemption.—A person duly admitted as a barrister in England.

ADMISSION of any person—(1.) As a law agent to practise before the Court of Session, or as a writer to the signet—if £60 indenture duty paid, £25. If previously duly admitted in any inferior court, £30. In any other case, £85.

(2.) As a law agent to practise before a sheriff-court—if 2s. 6d. indenture duty paid, £54 17s. 6d. In any other case, £55.

An enrolled law agent who has paid the stamp duty exigible by law on admission to practise as an agent in a Sheriff Court, shall be qualified to sign the roll of agents practising in the Court of Session on paying the difference between such duty and the duty chargeable on admission to practise in the Court of Session.—36 and 37 Vict. c. 63, § 17.

Exemption.—Admission of person previously admitted as a law agent to practise in Court of Session as a writer to the signet, to act in the other of these capacities.

ADMISSION to act as a notary public, £20. See FACULTY.

ADMISSION as a Fellow of the College of Physicians in Scotland, - - - £25.

The defenders are cited before this court on an induciae of six days; warrants to arrest on the dependence are issued; the decree may be extracted and arrestments used upon it immediately after decree is granted; and it may be enforced in all cases by pouncing and sale of the debtor's effects. By the "Civil Imprisonment (Scotland) Act, 1883" the power to imprison for aliment and expenses of process was restricted to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six weeks against debtors who wilfully fail to pay sums due for aliment, and the expense of process for which decree has been granted; but a new warrant of imprisonment may be issued against the same person at intervals of not less than six months for the same sums of aliment and expenses not paid, or for any part remaining due. BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF HACKNEY CARRIAGES AND THE DRIVERS THEREOF.

At Glasgow, the twenty-second day of October, Eighteen hundred and ninety-one years, the Magistrates' Committee of "Police Commissioners, Glasgow," in virtue of the powers conferred on them by "The Glasgow Police Act, 1866," hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages, and the conduct of the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

A License shall not be granted to a person under the age of 18 years, or any person who shall have been convicted of theft or any crime inferring dishonesty.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Owner's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of each Carriage on an enamelled iron plate shall be affixed on the back of the Carriage, and be distinctly visible from the outside, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and such Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall, whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

Carriages let out for Hire at other places, or met with, if not engaged.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

All Carriages ordered back for a party, at any place of public amusement or assembly, shall have the preference of drawing up nearest to the door or entrance of such place, and shall drive up in the order in which they arrive. When a party is put down the Driver shall immediately pass on and not wait at the door, but take such place as the Police may direct; and all Carriages waiting for hire at any such place shall stand on the opposite side of the street, or at such other place as the Police may on such occasions direct, for the purpose of preventing confusion.

DRIVERS.

Every Driver shall be able to read and write, shall be at least 18 years of age, shall be of good character, and have experience in driving, shall be free from infirmity of mind and body, and shall have a knowledge of the localities in and about the city and suburbs.

Every Driver shall, when he receives his License, be furnished with a Badge by the Registrar, and shall leave Half-a-Crown as security for the Badge, which sum will be returned when the Badge is given up. In the event of the Badge being injured while in possession of the Driver, the expenses of any necessary repairs will be deducted from the sum deposited.

He shall wear the Badge displayed conspicuously on his left breast above his outer garment, while on the stand or driving, or otherwise employed as a Driver, except when engaged at a marriage, or funeral, or country excursion, or airing, when he may wear his Badge concealed.

No Driver to lend or permit any other person to use his License or Badge, or to wear any other Badge than the one issued to him by the Registrar.

No Driver shall wilfully damage his Badge, and he shall not wear a Badge on which the lettering is not distinctly legible.

Every Driver who ceases to act, or whose License shall have been suspended by the Magistrate, or shall have expired, shall, within three days thereafter, deliver his License and Badge at the office of the Registrar.

He shall always have with him while on the Stand, or driving, a copy of the Clauses of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, relative to Hackney Carriages and Drivers; also Bye-laws, and Tables of Fares and Distances, and Duplicate of Carriage License, and Reference Ticket, which he will exhibit, on demand, to any Constable, or to any person who has hired or used his Carriage, or who is about to do so; which Clauses, Bye-laws, or Tables of Distances, with the Duplicates of Carriage License, he shall keep at all times clean and legible.

He shall keep his Carriage Lamps clean and well trimmed and lighted at all times, except from 1st May to 15th August inclusive, while driving, and on the Stand, between sunset and sunrise.

Every Driver shall be cleanly in his person, and shall, when on the Stand or driving, wear a good hat, and other good, clean, and respectable clothes, and shall conduct himself, at all times, in a proper, civil, and decorous manner.

Every Driver shall, if demanded, deliver to the person hiring his Carriage, when entering the Carriage, or at any time during or on completion of the journey, a Ticket, having printed thereon the number of the Carriage and of the Driver, the name and address of the Proprietor, and the following words—"Reference in case of complaints or of property being left in the Carriage," &c. Fares on reverse side.

Driver not to stand or loiter in streets appropriated as Public Stands when full number of Carriages on Stand.

No Driver of any Carriage shall stand or loiter with the same in any of the squares, streets, or places appropriated as Public Stands, at the time when the full number of Carriages authorised to ply on the respective Stand shall be thereon, or in any street or place not appropriated as a Public Stand, except at places of public amusement or entertainment, and on the occasion thereof.

Property accidentally left in any Carriage.

After completion of any journey, the Driver shall carefully search the Carriage for any property which may have been left therein; and in every case of property being left in any Carriage by any person or persons who may have hired or used the same, such property shall be taken and delivered up to the person or persons who have left the same, and, if none so delivered up, shall, within twelve hours after the property is found, be taken in the state in which it was found to the Central Police Office, and there delivered to the Registrar, with the name of the Owner and Driver, and number of the Carriage; the Driver in such case to be rewarded at the expense of the hirer, which reward shall be a sum equal to at least 2s. 6d. in the £ left with the Magistrate or Registrar, to be handed to the Driver if the property is given up outwith his presence.

Driver not to Canvass for Employment.

No Driver shall canvass or importune for employment; nor shall Carriages be taken from their station in search of employment, but shall wait their chance in the order prescribed by Bye-laws 21 and 22, except when taken to places of public amusement or entertainment.

Drivers not to Smoke.

Drivers shall not smoke when driving, after an objection made by any person riding in, or upon, any such Carriage.

As to Feeding Horses on Stands.

Horses when on the Stand or anywhere in the street shall not be fed except with food from a bag or with hay from the hand, and no hay or oats shall be kept inside of the Carriage.

Drivers to observe the Proper Rules for Driving.

Drivers shall, on all occasions, be careful to observe the proper rules for driving and to prevent danger, obstruction, annoyance, or inconvenience, and shall be particularly cautious in crowded thoroughfares, and when turning from one street or passage into another, and passing over busy crossings, shall bring the horse to a walking pace.

RELIGIOUS AND MORAL INSTITUTIONS.

EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY (LONDON),
SCOTTISH BRANCH.

Offices, Grove Street Institute, Glasgow.

Hon. secretary, T. A. Boyd, Esq., Shettleston Iron Works; secretary, Mr. E. J. Mitchell, Grove Street Institute. Number of meetings taken annually in Great Britain, over 20,000. Income, £11,000 per year.

The Evangelization Society is a company of preachers associated to preach the Gospel. As individuals they belong to various denominations of the Christian Church, but as Evangelists they belong to none. They go out through the Evangelization Society not as members of any particular Church, but only as Evangelists, to preach Jesus to the unconverted. The Society was established in 1868. Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel in the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

MISSION TO MEDITERRANEAN GARRISONS AND SCOTTISH DEPOT HOMES.

(Founded in 1883 by Mrs. Todd Osborne.)

The object of the mission is to minister to the spiritual needs of the soldiers and their wives stationed in Gibraltar; the many thousands of Royal and Merchant sailors in the bay; the 8000 Spanish navvies who labour on the Rock; and the native population of the Spanish towns of Algeciras and La Linca, where our missionaries are located. The mission has homes in Gibraltar and Cairo, where many thousands of soldiers are stationed, and also depot homes in Inverness, Perth, and Leith, and in Glasgow The Royal Reserve Rally, a home for ex-service men. Office of mission, 45 Hope Street, Glasgow. Hon. Treas., Mrs. Todd Osborne, Rysland, Newton-Mearns.

GLASGOW UNITED EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.

Central Offices, 64 Bothwell Street.

This association was formed in 1874, for the purpose of uniting the churches in evangelistic and philanthropic work among the masses. Evangelistic services and open-air preaching are conducted at Tent Hall, Steel Street, off Saltmarket (hall built at a cost of about £17,000); at Bethany Hall, Bernard Street, Bridgeton; at Cranston Hall, Cranstonhill U.F. Church, and at the various branches of Mizpah Band work throughout the city. A Young People's Mission for the city and the country is also conducted. A free breakfast is given every Sabbath in Tent Hall at 8.0 a.m. to about 1900 men and women, gathered from the very poorest; and at 2 o'clock p.m., about 1000 poor children receive a Bible lesson and a dinner, and connected therewith there is the Poor Lads' and Girls' Help, and a Senior and Junior Christian Endeavour Society. There is also the Cripple Children's League, in which all the poor invalid children of the city are registered, and in many ways helped and trained. Four Day Refuges are carried on, where children, who are entirely, or worse than neglected, receive three meals a day, and are otherwise helped in their education. In connection with the Free Breakfast, a committee meets in Tent hall every morning at 9.30 to enquire into cases of need. In connection with the children's Sabbath dinner a committee meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m., in the same place, to enquire into the cases of poor children sent from any quarter. Since 1885 122,336 poor children have been sent to the country for a fortnight, in connection with the Fresh-Air Fortnight Scheme. A Bible-Training Institute, of which Mr. J. Anderson is superintendent, is carried on at 64 Bothwell St., to qualify young men and young women for either the Home or Foreign field. There is also the Bonar Memorial Mission to the Jews in Glasgow, at 34 Govan Street. Ordinary income of the association from voluntary contributions, about £21,000 per annum.

President, Right Hon. Lord Overton, 7 W. George st.; hon. secretaries, John R. Miller, 44 Broad street, Mile-end, and J. W. Arthur, 9 Athole Gdns.; hon. treasurers, Robert Gourlay, LL.D., 124 St. Vincent Street, and Alexander MacKeith, 19 Howard Street.

SCOTTISH BAND OF HOPE UNION.

President, A. Cameron Corbett, Esq., M.P.; secy., Wm. Aikman; office, 94 W. Regent Street, corner of Hope Street.

The Union aims at training the youth of Scotland to abstain from alcoholic drinks as beverages through the formation of Bands of Hope in connection with the Churches or Sabbath Schools. There are now 725 Bands of Hope connected with the Union scattered over all the counties in Scotland. Through its various agencies, it is becoming very widely instrumental in training the young to hate and fear strong drink. There has also been temperance teaching in country day-schools. Lectures on nature knowledge subjects have been delivered in 564 schools, connected with 220 Boards, attended by about 50,000 young people and teachers.

GLASGOW JEWISH EVANGELICAL MISSION.

Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place, S.S.

The object of the mission is to bring the gospel home to the minds and hearts of the thousands of Jews who are living in Glasgow. The workers visit from house to house and from shop to shop, and invite the Jews to attend the various meetings, such as bible classes, night schools, and gospel services, &c., held at the Hebrew Christian house, secure medical aid for the sick, and, when necessary, admission to the hospitals. The Jewish poor and refugees are assisted in many ways, amongst others, by finding them employment, and by giving pecuniary aid towards enabling them to earn their own living. The superintendent will gladly supply reports and any information to anyone desiring such.

The committee of the Glasgow Jewish Evangelical Mission desires to call attention to the work carried on by the Rev. Aaron Matthews and his assistants at the Hebrew Christian House, 12 Abbotsford Place, in the hope that if it were more widely known it would receive a more adequate support. For many years past it has been conducted with marked ability, and with many happy results. Numbers of Jews visit the mission. From 50 to 60 regularly attend the Saturday afternoon service, the room being often uncomfortably full. There have been several cases of genuine conversion. A great deal of work of a purely philanthropic nature is also done in helping Jews who come to the city in search of employment, and in relieving families in sickness. The Jewish colony in Glasgow does not number less than 7000, and this number is being increased continually by refugees fleeing from political and religious disabilities on the continent to the toleration and freedom which this country affords. Mr. Matthews has had a long and varied experience in preaching the gospel to his brethren, and does his best to meet, in a discriminating way, really needful cases; but the resources available for the whole work have not, for several years past, been adequate to meet the necessary demand. It is a good and deserving cause, and if a cup of cold water given to another, in the name of a disciple, shall not lose its reward, an additional blessing will belong to those who remember the nation and the people in whose midst the Redeemer of mankind appeared.

President, Rev. Jas. Black, D.D.; honorary treasurer, Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq.; superintendent and secretary, Rev. Aaron Matthews, 12 Abbotsford place (private address, 22 Abbotsford place); committee—Rev. Alex. Brown, Rev. Jervis Coats, D.D., Rev. Robert S. Duff, D.D., Rev. Fergus Ferguson, D.D., Rev. Jas. Kidd, D.D., Rev. Alex. Kirkland, Rev. T. H. Martin, Rev. W. Henry Rankine, B.D., Rev. James Ross, T. Bost, Esq., and John Muir, Esq.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to John Muir, Esq., Laurieston Branch, Bank of Scotland, 1 Bridge Street, Glasgow, or any of the other members of the Finance Committee, viz.:—Andrew R. Buchanan, Esq. (convener), Ulverston, Terregles avenue, Pollokshields; Timothy Bost, Esq., 34 Lynedoch street; or to Mr. Matthews, at 22 Abbotsford place, will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged, both by receipt and in the annual report of the mission.

THE EAST-END GOSPEL MISSION

(Church and hall—Suffolk Street and South St.
Mungo Street, Calton.)

AND CHILDREN'S SEA-SIDE HOME AND RETREAT,
MOUNT PLEASANT, DUNOON.

This Mission has for its object the elevation, religiously and socially, of the masses of the city slums, principally aiming at those who know no church or other place of worship. In addition to preaching the Gospel, whereby outcasts and fallen are brought to a knowledge of the truth, their temporal wants are cared for. During periods of distress, the Mission has been the means of saving many poor families from utter want and ruin, and to-day numbers are hard-working respectable members of society, who, if solely left to themselves, would be on the downward path of sin and misery. The accounts of the Mission are made up and vouched for periodically.

The Children's Home and Retreat at Dunoon has proved a great boon to the little ones. The greatest care is taken of them. Moral instruction, medical attendance during illness, &c.

The Mission is supported by voluntary subscriptions and donations, and a copy of the Report with certified abstracts of accounts is sent to each subscriber. T. G. A. Scott, general superintendent and founder.

GROVE STREET (HOME AND MEDICAL MISSION) INSTITUTE.

Instituted 1859. Halls erected 1865; extension 1895.

Trustees, The Right Hon. James A. Campbell, LL.D., M.P., Stracathro; Robt. Boyd, Esq., Sir James Bell, Bart., W. A. Campbell, Esq., Sir James King, Bart., John A. Roxburgh, Esq.; hon. president, J. W. Arthur, Esq., J.P.; hon. treasurer, John S. Galbraith, Esq., J.P., writer, 30 Renfield Street.

Grove Street Institute is an unsectarian home and medical mission organization, having halls built by public subscription at a cost of over £10,000, and situated on the margin of one of the most densely populated districts of the city. It is entirely dependent on voluntary contributions, and requires £1000 per annum to maintain its work. In addition to the Evangelistic, Medical Mission, Benevolent, and Temperance work, it has departments for fathers, mothers, working lads, young women, and children—its agencies thus reaching whole families. It has been in operation for over forty-eight years as an auxiliary to the churches of all denominations, with results which prove the soundness of its principles of mission work, and the great value of organization.

The ships and sailors' families are visited regularly, and the men of the sea are influenced in every way for good. Other ports have more than one such society, and the needs of Glasgow, along with the great success which has followed the efforts of this Mission, will abundantly justify its existence. The Seamen's Mission is dependent upon voluntary contributions, which may be sent to the secretary, Mr. James Neilson, The Ferry, 10 Springfield Quay, s.s., Glasgow. Missionary, Mr. Malcolm Cameron, 284 Scotland Street, s.s.

A large staff of male and female missionaries, drawn from the various evangelical denominations at home, and a much larger staff of trained native ministers and teachers, carry on its work in Africa, India, China, Polynesia, &c. RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scotch branch office, 302 Buchanan st., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, R. Millar, Esq., Caledonian Railway; J. Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway, G. Calthrop, Esq., Caledonian Railway, C. E. Cockburn, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, George Cunningham, Esq., North British Railway, D. Deuchars, Esq., North British Railway, F. H. Gillies, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, A. Hillhouse, Esq., Caledonian Railway, W. F. Jackson, Esq., North British Railway. Wm. Moffatt, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, William Roberts, Esq., Highland Railway, W. Andrew, Esq., North British Railway, J. S. Stuart, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, T. A. Wilson, Esq., Highland Railway; bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Sq. branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitute a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties of their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Robert Gibb, Caledonian Railway, 302 Buchanan Street Glasgow.

This Home was begun in 1878, and its object also is to provide for females who have been in prison, and desire to lead a better life. The two homes are worked much on the same lines as to the length of stay required and the food and outfit given; also as to the effort made to find occupation for the women when they leave, after remaining their full time—i.e., a year. The special feature of the Whitevale Shelter is its large washing-house and laundry, in which the greater number of the 70 women are employed, the rest being engaged in sewing, with the exception of a few, who are occupied in knitting or housework.

Both Homes are equally dependent on the public for employment.

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY,

28 Cathedral Square.

The Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; Jas. Nicol, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; W. S. Peat, hon. secretary; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Marshall, bible woman for female prisoners.

105,702 men and 50,599 women, in all 156,311 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us for ten years, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Glasgow Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. There they are met every morning at half past eight by two of our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is not given, the Society being prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the thirteen years of its prosecution 23,327 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1905 work was found for 756 men.

Admission to the Houses of Shelter in Garnethill, Whitevale Street, and Magdalene Institution, Cathedral Street, is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

SCOTTISH LABOUR COLONY ASSOCIATION

Mid-Locharwoods, Ruthwell, R.S.O.

This charitable institution was established in 1897 for the purpose of providing work for unemployed able-bodied men, under the healthy and desirable conditions of farm labour, in exchange for food and shelter. The men are first tested in the Kyle Street Shelter of the Charity Organisation Society, and, if deserving, drafted to the Colony, where they stay for three or four months. Thereafter, suitable situations are obtained for them as far as possible. The farm is situated about eight miles from Dumfries, and borders the Lochar Moss, which extends inland for over ten miles, affording abundance of work in its reclamation for many years to come. The scheme is a practical Christian social and successful work for reclaiming unfortunates and social breakdowns, and forms one of the best solutions to the difficult problem of how to provide work for the mass of the unemployed.

Nearly 600 men have been dealt with, and the majority report "Doing well."

The farm was purchased in order to secure the benefits of all improvements, but there is a debt of £2500 over it, and the directors are anxious to see this cleared off. About £600 to £900 per annum are also required to maintain the work.

Men's cast-off clothing urgently required, and may be sent to the above address.

Contributions thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. treasurer, John W. Gourlay, C.A., 24 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow.

In 1858 the name of the society was altered to its present designation, while recently its rules have been revised, and the scope of its membership enlarged. GLASGOW HOME FOR DESERTED MOTHERS.

The home was established to supply a temporary shelter and maintenance for destitute and houseless mothers and their helpless infants. Only those who, for the first time, have been led astray are admitted, and it is no part of the home to make matters light and easy for the girls and thereby probably encourage sin. The anxious aim and desire of all connected with the Institution is to prevent them falling into despair, and so deepening their difficulties. Every effort is made to procure suitable situations for the mothers, who are expected (except under peculiar and exceptional circumstances) to defray all necessary expenses connected with the rearing and upbringing of their children.

COTTAGE NURSES TRAINING HOME.

South Avenue, Copeland Road, Govan.

Branch Home, 127 Watt Street, S.S.

The Home was instituted in the year 1901 with the object of bringing within the reach of the rural population of Scotland the Holt-Ockley system of nursing, which has proved very successful in England. The objects of the home as now developed are the following:—(1) To provide nursing in their own homes in maternity and other cases for the working classes and the poor in the district of Govan and elsewhere, without distinction of creed. (2) To train women in district nursing in order to fit them for work as Cottage nurses in rural and other districts. (3) To train women as Certificated Midwives for the Highlands, or other districts, where those may be required. During 1905 the cases and visits were as follows:—Maternity cases attended, 372; general cases nursed, 324; visits paid by the nurses, 13,319. The Elder Cottage Hospital, which owes its origin to the late Mrs. John Elder's generosity, is worked in connection with the Training Home. Small fees are charged for the nurses' services to the working classes of Govan and district (the necessitous being nursed free of charge), and fees are also paid by District Associations for the training of nurses; but with the additional expense of the Branch Home above mentioned, and the urgent need of increasing the staff of Nurses so as to overtake all the patients that need help, the Home requires an income of at least £200 per annum from voluntary subscriptions. Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. secretary, from whom copies of the Annual Report and any other information may be obtained.

Corp. Telephone No. 4158.

Receiving Hour, 1 to 2 p.m.

Consulting Hour, 2 p.m.

"The Institution has now entered on its twenty-first year of usefulness. During the last twenty years 2101 patients were treated for Cancer (527 males and 1574 females), and 16,537 patients suffering from Diseases of the Skin."

The outstanding features of the Institution continue to be:—(1) The advancement of the healing art in relation to the treatment of Cancer and allied diseases, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use, and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding, the use of the knife. In other words, the Therapeutic treatment of Cancer as distinguished from operative. (2) Affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to women—whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured by them before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless patients that have to be dealt with from day to day.

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances.

STIRLING'S & GLASGOW PUBLIC LIBRARY.

48 Miller Street.

Stirling's Public Library was founded by Walter Stirling, merchant and ex-bailie of the city, and son of Dr. William Stirling, a well-known Glasgow surgeon of the last century.

The library contains over 50,000 volumes and pamphlets, including many rare, valuable, and useful works. It possesses several manuscripts (two on vellum), and nearly thirty examples of fifteenth century printing, the earliest being 1469, or fourteen years after the issue of the first printed book.

The foundation being inadequate for the proper maintenance of the library the directors organized a system of lending of books. This has been immensely developed in recent years, and a large supply of new books and magazines—over 2000 copies annually of the latter—render it one of the best, as it is by far the most extensive and most moderately rated lending library in the city and district. The terms are—For two books and one magazine at a time, one year, 10s. 6d.; six months, 7s. 6d.; life, £5 5s.; for one book (no magazine) at a time, one year, 5s. 3d. Members may join at any time (no entry money), and may change their books and magazines singly or together as often as they choose. The library is open every lawful day from 10 a.m. till 10 p.m.

Board of Directors—President, William Bilsland, the Hon. the Lord Provost; vice-president, J. B. Murdoch; elected by the Town Council, Bailie Archd. Campbell, Councillor Alex. Murray, Councillor Andrew Scott Gibson; elected by the Merchants' House, John A. Galbraith, John Gibb Ure, and Wm Robertson; elected by the Presbytery of Glasgow, Rev. Thomas Hislop, Rev. G. Gibson Gunn, M.A., and Rev. John Maclean, D.D.; elected by the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. Wm. Dun, Dr. John Barlow, and Dr. Alex. Napier; elected by the Subscribers, J. Chief Office—HOLBORN BARS, LONDON.

Summary of the Report presented at the Fifty-seventh Annual Meeting held on 1st March, 1906.

ORDINARY BRANCH.—The number of Policies issued during the Year was 75,293, assuring the sum of £7,211,427, and producing a New Annual Premium Income of £395,029.

The Premiums received during the Year were £4,123,318, being an increase of £154,302 over the year 1904.

The Claims of the year amounted to £1,812,618. The number of Deaths was 7,437, and 7,775 Endowment Assurances matured. The number of Policies in force at the end of the year was 773,051.

INDUSTRIAL BRANCH.—The Premiums received during the year were £6,139,050, being an increase of £159,715. The Claims of the year amounted to £2,261,748. The number of Deaths was 238,220, and 3,344 Endowment Assurances matured.

The number of Free Policies granted during the year to those Policyholders of five years' standing and upwards who desired to discontinue their payments, was 123,586, the number in force being 1,102,267. The number of Free Policies which became Claims during the year was 24,698.

The total number of Policies in force at the end of the year was 16,065,268; their average duration is eleven years. The Assets of the Company, in both branches, as shown in the Balance Sheet, are £59,464,376, being an increase of £4,104,871 over those of 1904.

The Staff Provident Fund, which was founded in 1898 for the benefit of the outdoor staff, shows a satisfactory increase for the year, the total amount standing to the credit of the Fund being £148,941.

Since the completion of the Valuation the Actuary has reported that in his opinion a general increase of two-and-a-half per cent. could, with safety, be granted under the principal Industrial Branch Tables if provision were made for an increase in the liability of £750,000. The Board have accordingly revised the Tables as from 1st March, 1905, and have made provision to meet the increased liability by the transfer during the current year of £750,000 from the Reserve Fund to the Life Assurance Fund in the Industrial Branch leaving this Reserve Fund at £1,000,000. The Shareholders will be glad to know that this revision affects nearly Thirteen Million Policies, and of this number over Ten Million Policies receive an immediate increase in the sum assured.

Large Compound Bonuses. The Society being purely Mutual, all the profits belong to the assured. At the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1905, the large Compound Bonus of £1 15s. per cent. per annum was declared. The profits distributed have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are now more than doubled in amount.

Absolute Security. The Funds amount to £4,800,000, being nearly 16 years' purchase of the Premium Income. The Valuation of the Society's Liabilities as at 31st December, 1905, made by the most stringent tests applied to any similar institution, shows that the SOCIETY'S RESERVES ARE UNSURPASSED by those of any other Life Assurance Office.

Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Non-Forfeitable Policies, etc.

Claims paid immediately on proof of Death and Title.

"There are few Life Offices in this country possessing greater inherent attractions for New Entrants than this flourishing mutual institution."—The Statist.

INSURANCE against FRAUD and EMBEZZLEMENT.

The question of FRAUD by trusted Officials is so frequently brought into public prominence that the necessity of Employers holding adequate security on behalf of responsible persons whom they employ must be freely admitted. It is the obvious duty of Members of School Boards, Parish and County Councils, Directors of Public Companies, Committees of Charitable Institutions, Friendly Societies, etc., to see that proper security is held on behalf of those whose funds they administer, and the moral and financial safeguard of a Guarantee Policy issued by a good Office should commend itself.

The Premiums charged by The National Guarantee and Suretyship Association, are based on the statistics of upwards of Forty years' experience, and a full Prospectus containing an approximate table of rates for the various classes of risk will be sent on application. Special quotations are given where a large amount of business is involved.

The Association is prepared to grant immediate security to Accountants, Solicitors, and others, in connection with Court appointments and will give full particulars of the special facilities afforded on application.

WESTERN INFIRMARY

OF

(For other particulars, see page 186 in the Appendix).

STATEMENT AND APPEAL.

I. The Western Infirmary has between 400 and 500 beds, and a Dispensary for the treatment of out-door patients.

II. During the year (ending 31st October, 1905) 110,157 visits were made to the Dispensary by out-door patients. The number of patients treated in the wards was 6179.

The cost for maintenance during the past year was £30,869 8s. 8d.; and as the ordinary income from all sources during the same period was only £21,435 0s. 10d. the necessity for new and increased support will readily be seen. The Managers are making a special appeal for funds to erect a new wing. The number of cases on the books awaiting admission during the past year averaged over 400, the majority of these being surgical cases. There is only cubic capacity for 416 beds, while the average number of beds fully occupied was 444.73. This overcrowding is very much to be regretted, but it is due to circumstances over which the Managers have no control. Accidents and urgent cases require to be admitted at any hour. Accommodation for these must be made when they occur, and the number of such cases is rapidly increasing. Twelve years ago only 525 persons suffering from accidents were admitted to the wards during the year, while last year accommodation had to be provided for 857 cases of serious injury. There is ample room on the present site for an addition to the existing buildings capable of accommodating 250 beds. The sum required for this extension is about £70,000.

III. The Managers take the liberty of drawing attention to the subjoined Form of Bequest, in the hope that from this source they may be enabled gradually to accumulate a special fund from the investment of which, in so far as it is not required for contingencies, a considerable supplementary revenue may in time be derived.

NOTE.—There are already 30 beds endowed in perpetuity, most of them in name of deceased relatives whose names the donors desire to associate with the relief of suffering. The sum required for endowment of a bed is the capital sum necessary to produce £70 per annum.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE WESTERN INFIRMARY.

I, _____ of _____ do hereby leave to the WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW (Incorporated), free of legacy duty and charges, a Legacy of * _____ pounds sterling, which I authorise and direct my Executors to pay to the Treasurer, Secretary, or any two Managers thereof for the time being, upon his or their receipt, which shall be a sufficient discharge.

Dated at _____, this * _____ day of _____ Nineteen Hundred and _____ years.

(Testator's Signature).

* Sum and Date to be expressed in words, not in figures.

Funds are required and earnestly solicited for the upkeep of the Infirmary; all Annual Contributions and Donations sent to the Subscribers will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the “GLENBOIG” and “STAR GLENBOIG” brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.

The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting “Glenboig” alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the “brand” is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word “Glenboig” are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.

Glazed Sewage Pipes, and the Glenboig Junctions, Traps, and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the surest preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.

Mutual Assurance with Moderate Premiums.

ESTABLISHED 1837.

INCORPORATED 1848.

Scottish Provident Institution

HEAD OFFICE: 6 ST. ANDREW SQUARE, EDINBURGH.

THE PREMIUMS ARE SO MODERATE that an Assurance of £1200 or thereby may be secured from the first for the same yearly payment which generally would assure (with Profits) £1000 only—equivalent to an immediate Bonus of 20 per cent.

THE WHOLE SURPLUS goes to the Policyholders, on a system at once safe and equitable—the immediate assurance for the Premium payable being exceptionally large. The Surplus is reserved exclusively for the Policies of those Members who prove to be good lives.

The Surplus at the latest Investigation was £1,581,000.

Over 60 per cent. of the Members who died during last Septennium were entitled to Bonuses which, notwithstanding that the Premiums do not as a rule exceed the non-profit rates of other Offices, were, on the average, equal to an addition of over 50 per cent. to the Original Assurances.

Accumulated Funds, £13,500,000

PARTICULARS ON APPLICATION IN REGARD TO

ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE—WITH PROFITS—SPECIAL CLASS.

ALSO AN ATTRACTIVE

PROVISION FOR THE FUTURE OF THE YOUNG

Of which the following is an Illustration—

By an annual payment of £10 a parent or guardian of a child under a year old may secure to it an Assurance of £805, with right to Bonus Additions, payable at age 55, or at death if previous, should that event happen after age 21. If the Assurance were payable at death only after age 21 the amount would be £1276, with right to Bonus Additions. All Premiums returned in event of death before age 21, and the usual Medical Examination is dispensed with.
